Brampton Delegates Attend Lions Inter'l Convention In Quebec

Quebec City Lions Play Host To Delegates From All Sections Of Ont. and Quebec—Hear Outline Of Part Played By Lions Club At San Francisco Confr.

The Lions International Convention at Chateau Frontenac, Quebec City, June 24-25-26, was widely attended by delegates from Ontario and Quebec. The delegates from Brampton were Gordon Vivian and O. T. Walker, accompanied by Mrs. Vivian, Mrs. Walker and Miss Keitha Walker. Also attending was the newly-elected Deputy District Governor Ed. Capps, accompanied by Mrs. Capps. Dr. and Mrs. Bartlett and family joined the delegates at Quebec City.

An extensive program was arranged by the executive committee with constructive discussions on various phases of Lionism acquiring most of the attention and enthusiasm of the Lions.

Mr. D. A. Skeen, international president, spoke on the important part Lionism played at the San Francisco Conference. His talk was additionally interesting because he gave personal insights on various incidents which happened at that conference. Mr. Maurice Hebert, director general, Quebec Provincial Tourist Bureau, spoke on the relationship of Quebec Province and the rest of Canada. Mrs. Charles Fremont, internationally known speaker, addressed the women at their noon luncheon on the part women play in bettering Canada.

Opportunities for sight-seeing was afforded everyone. Among the most outstanding features along this line were the ladies' garden party and tour of the Quebec Citadel, and the afternoon trip to the shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre and Montmorency Falls.

The hosts of the convention were the members of the newly-formed Quebec City Lions Club, who by their actions and words convinced everyone that some of the so-called differences between Quebec and the rest of Canada are given entirely too much publicity on both sides, since these differences do not truly represent the majority of the people of Quebec.

Ex-Brampton Veterinary Doctor To Retire

The following article is copied from The Union Sun and Journal, of Lockport, N.Y., dated June 30, 1945, and is of considerable interest to our readers as Dr. Crowforth is well known here and has been a constant visitor in Brampton:

Lions Field Day And Horse Show Breaks All Attendance Records As Huge Crowd Jams Rosalea

Sports Events Closely Competed In All Classes—Mermaids Club Draws Plaudits For Excellent Exhibition of Swimming—Horse Show In Evening

Although the Brampton Lions Club have been holding Field Day for the past four years on July 1st, the verdict of all those attending the celebration held Monday last was that "It Was The Best Yet". The weather was ideal which assisted in making the attendance the largest held in the history of the event, and the added Horse Show in the evening was one of the items of interest which drew people from outside places. Many were present from Toronto, Hamilton, Stratford and two couples, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dayman, of Calgary, and the Misses Marion and Eva Dayman, of Brandon, Manitoba, came east purposely to attend the Field Day, which they have not missed for the past three years.

The Lions Club was organized in Brampton in 1930 with Col. R. V. Conover as the Charter President. After a short time the members saw the need of holding events which would be an uplift to the town of Brampton, and amalgamated with various organizations to hold the first Field Day four years go. Three years ago, July 1st, they conducted a Field Day of their own, and owing to it being a huge success, decided to continue the event annually.

The proceedings started shortly after dinner when the Brampton Citizens' Band headed by James Algie, paraded to Rosalea Park which was already jammed. Hundreds patronized the Bingo games, refreshment booths and other attractions. W. M. Robinson, O. T. Walker, J. Robinson and Cpl. Robertson, were in charge of the programme for races and swimming, while Jack Williams, of the Toronto Danforth Lions, assisted with the track events.

The Mermaid Swimming Club, of Toronto, composed of Doris Geddard, Canadian Champion; Marnie Delaney, who holds the Gail Trophy emblematic of highest award in ornamental swimming; "Skippy" Bavington, Olga Kay, Doreen Hanson, Gwen Causton, speed swimmer; Elizabeth Inglis, assistant coach, who announced her own events, presented a programme which lasted considerably over an hour at the swimming tank.

The lacrosse and hockey games created considerable amusement. Brampton Midgets Lacrosse team vs Nortonville, played an exciting game with the score 11-7 in favor of Brampton. The softball game, Army Daggers vs Army Shamrocks resulted in a score of 6-4 in favor of the Army Daggers, while another game, Gummed Papers vs Copeland-Chatterson, ended with a score of 8-5 in favor of Gummed Papers.

Lions Field Day and Horse Show

Toward the closing hour of the big day many people who were holding lucky draw tickets for a bicycle, toaster and electric iron, were in suspense as to who the lucky winners would be. The bicycle was awarded to Mrs. B. Russell, of Kingsway, Toronto; Robert Cooper carried off the toaster while Fred McBride won the electric iron.

Although Brampton people have been disappointed many times with their horse shows owing to inclement weather, they were richly repaid Monday night when one of the finest shows in the history of Brampton was held. The grandstand was filled to capacity, while several who were late in arriving were compelled to stand throughout the performance. Several of the animals were brought in from Acton, Stratford, Toronto, Hillsburg and other places nearby.

Brampton horses owned by the A.B.C. Farms and Fred Gowland were in fit-shape for entertaining the large number present, and showed their skill to the utmost. The judges were, J. W. Fleury and Reeve William Bovaird of Brampton, and L. L. Cook, of Toronto. Phil. Engage Services of Town Planning Consultant

All members were present at the regular session of Brampton Town Council which was held Tuesday night, with Mayor B. Harper Bull in the chair. Councillor E. A. Ingram received a welcome from his council associates when he was present after being absent from the last two meetings through illness.

Mayor Bull gave a very comprehensive report on the sessions of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities held at Toronto recently, and tabled considerable data and reports for the perusal of council members at their leisure. These booklets are to be on file in the Clerk's office.

John Layng, Architect and Town Planner, was present at the meeting on an invitation from the Town Planning Committee. Excellent Work of Gordon Graydon At San Francisco Wins Plaudit

Maclean's Magazine this week, when commenting on the work at San Francisco of the professional diplomats in Canada's Department of External Affairs, had this to say about Peel's member of parliament:

"But it wasn't only the professionals who did well at San Francisco. One of the 'discoveries' of the Canadian delegation was the leader of the Opposition, and Progressive Conservative delegate, Gordon Graydon.

"Graydon has never had any pretensions to special competence in international affairs. When they came up in debate it was usually Howard Green or John Diefenbaker who carried the ball for the Progressive Conservatives. And when he was invited to San Francisco, Graydon regarded himself as representing not so much his party as the ordinary Joe—the average Canadian who doesn't know much about foreign affairs either.

"But when he got there Gordon Graydon turned out to have talent for the job that neither he nor anyone else had suspected. His outstanding quality has always been a warm kindliness—his feeling toward his fellow man is one of instinctive and genuine friendliness. And this quality of his got across to the delegates of other nations, across the barriers of language and cultural differences. Graydon sincerely liked the people he met; sensing this, they liked him. Result was that he was able to do a real job for Canada, according to fellow delegates of the other parties."

Community Sing Songs To Start At Huttonville

The sponsors of this programme point with pride to the record of more than a quarter of a million cigarettes being sent overseas to boys from Peel County, Georgetown and Glen Williams. 'Thank You' letters were received from 500 recipients of overseas gifts.

"The programme will be even better than last year", said Gordon Vivian, "C. A. Chinn, our sound operator is going to provide talkies this year, and we will also offer amateur talent, quiz contests and the usual community singing".

"Proceeds of these Sunday night Community Singing concerts will again be distributed to deserving charitable organizations" said Mr. Vivian.

BRITISH-AMERICAN ALLIANCE SAFEGUARD FOR WORLD PEACE

(By Lewis Milligan)

It can be stated without fear of contradiction that the chief decisive factor in the first and the second world wars was the military alliance of the United States and the British Empire. It can also be stated with equal truth that if such an alliance had existed in the times of peace before the first and the second world wars the Germans would never have launched their campaign for world conquest.

The one thing that both the Kaiser and Hitler counted upon was that the United States would remain neutral, at least until the British Isles were conquered and occupied by the German forces. After that the conquest of the British Empire would have been comparatively easy. The United States would have been isolated and would have had enough to do in defending its own extensive shore lines against invasion. Canada would have had to defend itself, and would probably have been "thrown to the wolves."

If that be true, then the solution of the problem of world peace lies chiefly in some sort of permanent alliance between the United States and the British Commonwealth of Nations. The people of these two great world powers have a common language, and that makes for better understanding. They have the same democratic institutions and ideals. They have common world interests, for the United States has as much international interest, financial, commercial and for defence purposes, as Great Britain. The isolationists of the United States may not have been fully aware of that fact in the past, but the near defeat of Britain and the treacherous attack on Pearl Harbor brought it forcibly home to them.

In other words, any international situation that menaces the British Empire and the Dominions is a menace to the United States, and vice versa. Americans have large interests in British colonies and in Canada. The United States did not send forces to Australia, to North Africa, to the British Isles and establish naval bases on British islands in the Atlantic and the Pacific, merely out of sympathy for England. They were sent for the purpose of defending the north American continent and American interests around the world. The point is that American and British interests are mutual and so interlocked that anything that affects one affects the other. If this were acknowledged and acted upon in time of peace, as it is in time of war, it would be one of the best safeguards for future world peace.

It has been the policy of Germany in peacetime to create and perpetuate enmity between the British and American peoples. This has been done by insidious propaganda in England and the United States, and one of the products of that policy was isolationism, and even Canada has not been free from the same separating influence. Anyone, therefore, who creates or fosters misunderstanding or enmity between America and Britain is endangering world peace.

Even from selfish motives the United States and the British Commonwealth of Nations should be united in at least a defensive alliance, but above all from the high motive of humanity and world freedom and peace. This need not interfere with an alliance with Russia, but could indeed be part and parcel of the proposed United Nations League.

President Roosevelt defined "power politics" as "the misuse of power." But he went on to say: "We cannot deny that power is a factor in world politics. But in a democratic world, as in a democratic nation, power must be linked with responsibility and obliged to defend and justify itself within the framework of the general good." That should be the policy and the watchword of all international relationships, and more particularly the future relationship between the United States and the British Empire.

THEIR RESPONSIBILITIES ARE HEAVY

The service vote in the provincial election in Peel leaned heavily towards Col. Tom Kennedy according to the returns this week. The Colonel had 554 to Mr. Sovereign's 200. Mr. Hancock, the Liberal-Lab nominee, polled 165. Few, if any, candidates in the Ontario contest received as emphatic an endorsation from the men and women in uniform as Peel's Dixie-born member.

An analysis of Peel's armed force vote in the Federal election also shows some interesting results. The figures given out last week by the returning officer indicates that 1,161 men and women in the services cast their ballots in the Dominion contest. Sixty-two per cent of those voting supported Mr. Graydon, while nineteen per cent favoured Mr. Smeaton, the C.C.F. nominee. The Liberal candidate, Mr. Harmer, received one vote less than his C.C.F. opponent. Peel's member got approximately three and one-half times as many service votes as his nearest opponent. Comparing these figures with the vote given progressive Conservative candidates in other parts of the Dominion, Mr. Graydon appears to have established a record which no other candidate running under that party banner was able to equal.

The June provincial and federal elections enabled Peel's sitting members, Col. Kennedy and Mr. Graydon, to chalk up imposing election records for the riding. The Colonel carried away the red ribbon for the highest majority ever accorded a provincial or federal candidate. Then Mr. Graydon, a week later, with his 10,324 votes, broke all records for the highest number of votes polled.

To roll up such majorities and totals the two Peel Progressive Conservatives undaubtedly received heavy support from all political parties. Never in this county's long and interesting political history have more decisive mandates been given two public men. They have heavy responsibilities thrust upon them once more but they have the good wishes and hearty support of people of all parties in discharging those obligations. And that helps.

SUMMER VACATION OR HOLIDAY

Vacation or holiday season is on. Every nook and corner is being occupied. Plants, business places and institutions are being handled with skeleton staffs or in some cases shut down for a week period. What a change has taken place. What an improvement. The law demands a week's vacation or holiday with pay to each employee. It is a step in the right direction. People need a change of associations and location. They need a rest from the daily routine that has taken place for the past 50 weeks. Nearly everyone has been working at high tension and the change will do all a world of good. Yet it should be remembered that this is an opportunity that is ours because we live in a country that is governed by the people. That is when the people turn out and elect their representatives so that the majority of the vote cast is a direct representation of the majority voice of the people. These holidays are the result of years of work by organizations who have fought for the rights of humanity. It has come slowly but it shows that the people have been working along the right lines. Now that we have these vacation periods how will they be used? Well the thing to do is to get away from your regular routine and see something of your own country, of your own people, of the opportunities that you are offered in this land and you will come back ready to do a better job for yourself, your community and your associates. We learn to appreciate those things that we have become so accustomed to by seeing what others are faced with. Thus a good holiday with a keen eye to observe and a willingness to learn will bring you back refreshed and a better person. Try it and have a good holiday which is one of the many opportunities offered in this great land in your own country.

THEY KNOW WHAT'S WRONG

The whole structure of human society rests on character.

A list of sixteen bad habits was handed to two groups of women, and the members were asked to rearrange the order of the habits, placing the most anti-social habit at the top, and the least anti-social habit at the bottom.

One group was comprised entirely of young women who were inmates of reform institutions. The other group was comprised of university graduates.

The strange feature of the experiment was that the institutional girls, some of whom were morons, listed the habits in almost identically the same order as the college girls.

The conclusion seems to be that a knowledge of the relative rightness or wrongness of an action has no relation to conduct or character. People cannot be reformed by telling them that this action is right and that one wrong. The chances are that even the dangerous criminal knows right and wrong about as well as the average citizen.

When character is lacking, education increases the ability of the person to make trouble. The whole structure of human society rests on character.

RECONSTRUCTION—CANADA'S OPPORTUNITY

"Are you there where your country needs you, keeping the wheels a-turning?" This fragment from a patriotic song points the way to the spirit industry needs to make reconstruction a success. But there are many ways in which our own selfish interests can make the task difficult.

Some will say, "Why don't the bosses give us a square deal? We're just cogs in a wheel—nobody appreciates us."

Others will say, "Go easy, the more we give the men the more they want. Where would they be without our brains and the money we put into the business?"

To build the new world men have died for, all of us, both labour and management will have to meet, above our differences, with a greater common objective. We can learn to see the other fellow's point of view on a basis of 'what's right, not who's right.' To win wars, when we all remember we are Canadians first and foremost, our volume of production is a decisive factor in victory. Everybody works hard and pulls together. To win the peace we need to remember the same thing. We must keep our sights up—look beyond our own borders and see the needs of others. In peace, as in war, leadership of Canadian industry can be the decisive factor in victory. Our fortunate position in the world calls for full responsibility.

Surely this is motive enough to stir our enthusiasm. Industry's true destiny of making the work and wealth of the world available for all, and for the exploitation of none, can grip our minds and muscles. In pioneer days all worked together to fill the daily needs of the community; latterly the battle for the lion's share of the profits has raged so fiercely that we have lost the unselfish spirit of the pioneers. This spirit cannot be bought with dollars—it lies deep in our heart's desire to work for the good of humanity.

Only a new spirit in men can bring a new spirit in industry. As teamwork is pioneered by Canadian industry, so it will start to grow between the nations. International conferences can become, not battles for markets, but an alliance for service. When all plan for everyone to be adequately warmed, fed and clothed, trade will cease to divide the United Nations, and instead will unite the world.

With this spirit in Canada lies our one hope of winning the peace, and securing it for ourselves and for our children.

Gestapo Trial!

By NORMAN MARSHALL

OTTAWA: With justification, eyes everywhere in Canada are focussed on the Royal Commission holding sittings in Toronto on the charges made by C.C.F. leader E. B. Jolliffe during the recent Ontario election campaign. These charges were that the Progressive Conservative government of Premier George Drew maintained, within the Provincial Police Force, a special secret police whose purpose was to enquire into activities of political opponents of the government.

To a large degere, it appears that Mr. Jolliffe could have made his charges public long before he did, but that he deliberately held back in order to make political capital during the election. At the same time, however, it is obvious that a great many irregularities existed in the conduct of the secret branch of the Provincial Police, and that Mr. Jolliffe did perform a public service in raising the whole matter.

The enquiry has clearly shown that the responsible heads of the government, Premier George Drew and Attorney General Blackwell were not culpable; it was shown just as clearly that they are responsible, as chief elected officers of the people, for what occurred. That they were ignorant of the whole situation seems to indicate a laxness in the conduct of the Provincial Police Force which should immediately be cleared up.

The facts of the situation appear to be as follows: At the beginning of the war, a special "anti-sabotage" branch of the Provincial Police Force was set up, parallelling the work of the R.C.M.P. The work of this force was chiefly to investigate and report on employees in war plants. In 1944, the branch had outlived its usefulness, and was slated for elimination.

However, one man was retained, Captain Osborne-Dempster, until he could be placed elsewhere in the Force. He went on with his work, and having extra time and access to many sources of information, proceeded to set up what amounted to a private detective force working within the Provincial C.I.B. He definitely made information available to certain provincial politicians, but he appears to have proceeded independently, and he alone is responsible.

The whole branch appears to have been run like a grade B comedy from Hollywood. Osborne-Dempster was spying on the C.C.F., and Rowe, working for the C.C.F., was spying on him. It is difficult to believe that a properly run affair, having backing from high sources, would have been run as inefficiently as was this force. No attempt was made to keep the information confidential, or to preserve it from Rowe, which would normally have been the first consideration of those who were doing the work.

Maybe, now, you'd like a Tractor...

Queenie and Dobbin have done a fine job and their useful day is not yet past.

But maybe you want to speed up your farm operations with tractor ploughing, cultivating, seeding and harvesting.

Maybe you want to do many things for the improvement of your farm . . . repair your barn or build a new one, fix up the fencing or drainage, buy a new bull to build up the quality of your herd, install an electric system or improve the present one.

And what about seed, feed and fertilizer? What about your livestock? All these things need money—more money, probably, than your bank balance will allow. If that's the case with you, call on the manager of our local office and discuss, in confidence, your financial needs. You will like the kind of consideration he will give your plans and problems.

Crippled Kiddies Spend 2 Weeks At Georgian Bay

This is the happiest day of the year for 44 young crippled lads who left the Ontario Society for Crippled Children headquarters this morning on a two-week holiday at the Society's Blue Mountain Camp near Collingwood on Georgian Bay. Nineteen of them have never been at camp before.

Awaiting their turn in all parts of Ontario are 132 more boys and girls who will also have a two-week holiday at Blue Mountain Camp during the summer months. Their names are submitted to the society by its nursing staff, service clubs and public health nurses.

The Ontario Society for Crippled Children is closely associated with the Hospital for Sick Children. All the hospital's orthopaedic patients and discharged hospital patients living outside Toronto are regularly visited by the society's nurses.

"A few years ago, after the polio epidemic, at least 75 per cent of the campers were handicapped because of infantile paralysis, and quite a number went to camp on Bradford frames", said Miss Gretta M. Ross, director of nurses. "Now the majority are cases of cerebral palsy.

"With fewer bed patients this year," she continued, "more organized activity will be possible. Campers will write and produce their own plays, swim, play ball and take part in all the usual young people's sports. Visitors watching our ball games are always amazed to see a boy go up to bat in a wheel chair."

"And I'll never forget," added Miss Marjorie Morrish, society secretary, "how excited one little girl was during her first night at camp when she saw the moon for the first time."

Under the direction of an occupational therapist, camp days are also filled with leatherwork, weaving and woodcarving. Friends from nearby communities provide transportation to church in Collingwood and to other activities.

Blue Mountain Camp is made possible through the generosity of interested individuals and service clubs throughout the province. Miss Alberta Carson, R.N., a graduate of the Hospital for Sick Children, is camp supervisor and on the nursing staff are Miss Mary-Jo Dale and Miss Margaret Murphy, both of Toronto.

OBITUARY

Mrs. E. Gillmore

Following an illness of several months' duration, Mrs. Mary Conley Gillmore, beloved wife of Mr. Ebenezer Gillmore, passed away at her home, 46 Elliott Street, Wednesday. She was born in England and for the past 45 years resided in Brampton, where she was highly respected by all those who made her acquaintance. She was a member of St. Paul's United Church, and before she was attacked by illness was an untiring worker in the different organizations of church work generally. She is survived by her husband, two daughters and one son: Mrs. Miles Seely of Huntsville, Miss Edna Gillmore, and Norman Gillmore at home. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon from the T. H. McKillop Funeral Parlors where the service will be conducted by Rev. Amos Thomas, of Toronto, and Rev. John McDermid, of St. Paul's United Church. The committal service will be conducted in Brampton Cemetery.

Hugh Morrow

Having been ill only a brief time, Mr. Hugh Morrow passed away at his home, 45 Mill Street North, Wednesday afternoon. He was born in Chinguacousy Township, and all his life, resided in the vicinity of his birth. He carried on the occupation of farmer until he retired from active work owing to ill health and since 1918 was a resident of Brampton. In religion the late Mr. Morrow was a member of Brampton Presbyterian Church. His wife predeceased him three years ago, and surviving are two daughters, Mrs. J. M. Charles, of Toronto; Mrs. C. M. Sackrider, of Fenwick. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon from the Funeral Home of the Brampton Funeral service, where the service will be conducted by Rev. A. Neil Miller. Interment will take place in Brampton Cemetery.

William Harris

Having been sick only two days Mr. William Harris, one of the oldest residents of Brampton, passed away at his home, 28 Ellen Street, Thursday night, in his 85th. year. He was born in Euphrasia Township, and for a long number of years resided at Meadowvale. In 1910 he moved to Brampton where he resided until his passing, and was well known as he was for twenty years a mail carrier between the stations and post office. When the late Mr. Harris first moved to Brampton he conducted a livery business combined with his duties on the mail route which enabled him to come in contact with the public generally. In religion he was a member of Grace United Church, and all his life a staunch Conservative. He was also a member of the L.O.L. for over sixty years, and at the time of his passing was an honorary member of the Grand Lodge. During his time as an Orangeman, the late Mr. Harris held important offices both locally and in the county lodges, and was present Tuesday night at the semi-annual meeting of the County L. O. L. which was held at Campbell's Cross. His wife predeceased him in 1934, and surviving are two daughters and two sons: Mrs. Fred Ashton and Miss Verrall Harris, both of Brampton; Sgt. Bartley Harris, RCAF, of Orangeville, and Elgie Harris, of Malton. Two sisters also survive: Mrs. Emily Rosche, of Regina, Saskatchewan; Mrs. L. Chamberlain, of Detroit, Michigan. The funeral took place Saturday afternoon from the family home to Brampton Cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. John McDermid, of St. Paul's United Church. The committal service was under the auspices of Brampton L.O.L. who conducted the ritual of the Order. The bearers were all Past Masters of the County Orange Lodge: James Oilliff, John S. Sloan, William Black, Thomas A. Nixon, E. J. Pellett and Fred Jones.

Mrs. Mary E. J. Harris

The friends and neighbours of Mrs. Mary Harris, widow of the late Edward James Harris, were shocked to learn of her sudden passing on Friday evening. She was born at Norval Station on April 17, 1884, a daughter of the late John and Mary McClure but at an early age moved with her family to Maple Grove Farm on the outskirts of Georgetown where Mrs. W. H. McClure and family now reside. After her marriage she moved to Chinguacousy and later to Caledon township where she won the high esteem and respect of all those who came to know her.

In religion Mrs. Harris was of the United Church faith and was a member of Melville United Church. Her pleasant smile, happy disposition, and kindly ways will be keenly missed throughout the circle of her acquaintances. She enjoyed excellent health all her life until recently. While shopping with her family in Brampton she had the misfortune to fall and break her hip just two weeks ago. She was removed to Peel Memorial Hospital where she was enjoying a pleasant visit with her twin daughters Jean and Vera, when she was suddenly called away. She also leaves to mourn her loss two other daughters, Mrs. Jas. Fitzpatrick (Elizabeth) of Brampton; and Marjorie, formerly of the Toronto teaching staff; also two sons, John Stanley of Georgetown; and Herbert at home; and one grandson, Herbie. She is also survived by one brother George of Vancouver, B.C., who although unable to attend personally wired flowers.

The funeral on Monday afternoon from the family home Lot 2, 4th Line West Caledon, was conducted by Rev. A. O. W. Forman and was largely attended by relatives and friends from Toronto, Hamilton, Brampton, Georgetown, Caledon and vicinity. The many floral tributes were carried by ten of her nephews. Mrs. Harris was borne to her resting place in Greenwood cemetery, Georgetown by six of her neighbours: George Green, Bert McDonald, Jack McMillan, Roy Switzer, Jack Russell and Tom Foster.

In our hearts your memory lingers,
Always tender, fond and true;
There's not a day, dear mother,
We will not think of you.

"Glad to get back to Canada" was the statement made by LAC Lloyd Ewles, who returned to his home in Brampton Friday last. It was a joyful re-union when he was met in Toronto by his wife, his mother, Mrs. George Ewles, and little son, Billie. He was overseas for one year. LAC Ewles was born in Brampton and attended Brampton schools. At the time of his enlistment in August, 1941, he was employed at the Dale Estate, trained at Manning Depot and Brantford, and went overseas in October, 1944. After arriving in England he was transferred to the Allouette Squadron.

LAC Ewles will spent a month's leave at his home and then report back to Debert, N.S., where application will be made for the Pacific service. Before enlisting LAC Ewles was enthusiastic on sports and played with the junior and intermediate lacrosse teams in Brampton. He was a member of the Brampton Baptist Church.

• • •

Sgt. Douglas Smith was met by many Brampton relatives and friends when he returned home Tuesday morning after being overseas for four years. Sgt. Smith will spend thirty days' leave with his mother, Main Street North, and has already signed up for service with the Pacific Force. He enlisted with the Lorne Scots in Brampton in April, 1941, and after a brief training in Hamilton left for overseas where he saw considerable action in Italy, Holland and Belgium. He was born in Brampton and received his education at Brampton schools.

• • •

Flt. Sgt. Bill Holmes, RCAF, who returned to his home, 183 Queen Street West, Friday morning last, has already signed up for the Pacific force. He served overseas for eleven months, and will now spend a thirty-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holmes. He enlisted in Toronto with the RCAF, and while training at Portage La Prairie, received his wing July 14, 1944. Flt. Sgt. Holmes was born in Brampton and played with the Midgets in both hockey and lacrosse and was also noted for his skill as a rugby player at Brampton High School. He was a member of St. Paul's United Church.

After completing his thirtieth operational tour overseas, F/O Howard J. R. Taylor, RCAF, returned to his home at 55 David street, at the week-end. He received a warm welcome from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Taylor and sister Bernice, when the joyful reunion took place in Toronto. He was overseas fifteen months. F/O Taylor enlisted in November, 1942, with the RCAF, in Toronto, received training at Souris, Manitoba, and while training at Edmonton, Alberta, graduated and received his wing. He went overseas in March, 1944, after spending a brief time at Quebec City. After arriving in England, F/O Taylor took a further course and in November started operational tours. After he completed his thirtieth tour he took an instructor's course prior to leaving for Canada. F/O Taylor was educated at Orangeville public school and later attended Brampton high school.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sutton, Cpl. Alfred Sutton returned to his home, 15 George Street, Brampton, Tuesday morning, after being overseas five years. He was met in Toronto by his wife and daughter Muriel. He enlisted with the Peel-Dufferin Lorne Scots Reserve in Brampton, and went active on June 18th, 1940, with the RCCS, and went overseas soon after his enlistment. He was educated at Brampton schools, and at the time of his enlistment was employed with the Metropolitan Insurance Company. Cpl. Sutton saw service for three years in England, seventeen months in Italy and latterly spent some time in Holland. His brother, FO. David Sutton, RCAF is at the present time stationed in the Maritimes. He will spend his leave with his family at Brampton, and after thirty days expires, Cpl Sutton expects to receive his discharge.

Tpr. Robinson Vincent returned Monday night to his home, 83 Church Street East for the second time since his enlistment. Altogether he was overseas 4½ years, and a special feature of his final trip home was that he saw his son, Duane, twenty-two months old for the first time. He was met in Toronto by his wife. He enlisted with the Ontario Regiment, September 19th 1939, at Oshawa where he took a portion of his training. After taking further training at Camp Borden he left for oversea s March 4, 1941. He took a general tank training course in England, and came back to Canada in May, 1942, as an instructor at Camp Borden and Camp Dundurn, Saskatchewan. Tpr. Vincent returned to England in November, 1942, where he acted as an instructor at Aldershot for four months and later took charge of the Tank Firing Rangers at Minehead, Somerset, England. Shortly afterwards he returned to No. 2, CACRU at Aldershot where he continued as an instructor.

Altogether Tpr. Vincent spent nine months on the continent. He made special mention of the royal welcome the men received from the time they left Doesburg, Holland, until they arrived in Toronto, which took thirty-two days.

A reputation can be either something to live up to or live down.

Grahamsville

Friends and neighbors gathered to extend best wishes and congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brander on the occasion of their recent marriage on Friday evening, June 29th, 1945, in Clairville Community Hall. The evening was spent in dancing with Wiley's orchestra supplying the music. Mr. Lloyd Lane was chairman. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brander were then called to the front and Mr. Earl Steele read the following address:

June 29, 1945.

To Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brander:

Dear Bill and Mae: We, your former school friends and neighbors, could not let the time go by without meeting and expressing our happiness and approval of the fact that a new home has been established in our community. Most of us present have seen Willie grow up and have watched with interest his successful farming efforts. Many of us have shared with him in his interest in community enterprises such as his work in the junior farmers' organizations and farm forum groups. He has even been able to form a convenient "sub" in hockey teams. We all hope that such efforts on his part will not cease but will be even more freely given now that he has entered the ranks of the benedicts. We hope that nothing in the future will ever disturb a union so happily begun—not even the many little disappointments that beset a farmer's life and may tough pie crust never ruffle that happiness so firmly established.

We take this opportunity of welcoming your happy little bride to our neighborhood. May her years at Grahamsville deal lightly with her and in the future we hope she may share in all those local organizations in which women have been doing such wonderful work. We ask you both to accept this little piece of furniture. Our hope that it will be able to serve a useful and decorative place in your new home and may it serve in some way to link you closer to your friends in this community.

Signed on behalf of the shivaree boys: Douglas Lansdell, Eric Maltby, Earl Steele and Melville Robinson.

Bill then made a reply, expressing his appreciation for the 3-piece chesterfield suite and also to the shivaree boys. Lunch was then served and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

MONO ROAD

The Mono Road W. I. will hold their regular meeting at Innis Lake, Thursday afternoon July 12. Roll call: "How to save your feet". The speaker, Mrs. Lorne who has a summer home in Caledon Twp., and has travelled extensively in Canada, will address the meeting on topics of interest in "Canada from Halifax to Vancouver". Contest by Mrs. Sam Wilson on "Famous Men".

PALESTINE

The June meeting of the Palestine Woman's Association was held at the home of Mrs. W. Clark, June 27th, with a number of ladies present. The president, Mrs. J. Dunn, opened the meeting with hymn "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," followed by the Lord's Prayer. The secretary, Mrs. D. Harkness, read the scripture and minutes of the last meeting. The roll call was answered by "My Hobby". After the business meeting the ladies presented Mrs. C. O. Sommer with a lovely vase. Mrs. Sommer, in her happy manner, thanked the ladies for their lovely gift. The ladies then went on to the lawn and spent a happy hour together in the form of a picnic, closing with the mizpah benediction. A dainty tea was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. Wedgewood, Mrs. E. Parkinson and Mrs. Nelson South. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Patterson, July 25th, and an apron sale is planned for that date.

Palestine United Church celebrated their 75 anniversary on Sunday, June 17th, when the church was crowded to capacity for both morning and evening services. Rev. Forth of Bethesda United Church preached at the morning service and Dev. Davidson, a former pastor, now of Fairbanks United Church, in the evening. The young people of the congregation, under the leadership of Mr. Warren McClellan, provided special music at both services. Following the morning service, a social hour was spent on the lawn of Mr. Thomas Wedgewood, when refreshments were served. There were three people present who attended the opening of the church 75 years ago, Miss Sara Moore of Brampton, Mrs. Cheyne of Islington, and Mr. Thos. Wedgewood of Palestine. The men of the congregation got together and painted the church prior to the anniversary, which greatly improved the appearance. Mrs. Amanda Grafton McBride very kindly donated the paint. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers provided by Mrs. Frank Johnston and the ladies assisted with the arrangement.

On behalf of his wife, Mr. Dean thanked all present for the gift, and in conclusion invited relatives and friends to visit them at their home where a warm welcome would be extended. 1200 FANS SEE BRAMPTON TRIM MIMICO 16-14

Combines Win Sixth Straight At Mimico In Scoring Splurge

Give Mountaineers 16-14 Pasting As 1200 Wild Fans See Brampton Handle Situation Nicely In Overtime Period—Elmer Lee To Play For Mimico

Brampton extended their winning streak to six straight wins with a 16-14 ten minute overtime win over the Mimico Mountaineers at Mimico Bowl last Thursday in what many spectators claimed as the best game of the season locally. Some 1200 fans were in attendance. Mimico outspeeded their Peel County rivals in the first half of the game clicking on close in plays and using good judgment on masked shots on Hartley to lead 8-4 at the halfway breather. Brampton kept pecking away at Mortimore in the Mimico goal and three consecutive counters by Gord Gair whittled the home clubs' margin and gave the red shirts a Mexican saw off, of 12-12 at full regulation time.

In the overtime the Brampton crew were all over their opponents with "speed" Graham notching the opener, quickly followed by a sensational end to end rush by Goalie Red Hartley, to score on Mortimore. "Red" who is about the speediest traveller in Chuck Rowan's senior derby broke the "Mounties" heart with his specialty. Duke Henson and Magee added to make victory certain with Sandford and Blain McDonald cutting Brampton's margin with two belated counters. Harry Graham and Jack Bryans featured with speed and combination attacks while Gord Gair scored four, Brunskill three and Henson a double to lead the winners snipers—Scoop Hayes, Blain McDonald and Worsencroft lead the losers with three apiece. Donnie Campbell returned to the Brampton line-up and played well for his initial start, while Jack Stewart, who had received a previous warning about rough play apparently failed to heed the warning and his actions brought down a two game suspension from O.L.A. headquarters. A decision of the Senior Committee of the Association ruled player Elmer Lee, the property of the Mimico Club with whom he had signed.

Local Juveniles Trim New Toronto 6-4 At Rose Bowl

Brampton Juvenie Lacrosse representatives in the O.L.A. came through with flying colors when they defeated New Toronto Daggers at the Rose Bowl by a 6 to 4 count. The Toronto boys presented a big, fast team and they gave last year's Ontario midget champs, who have moved up to juvenile this year a real run for their money.

Evans for Brampton and Arnston made the first quarter count one-all. Ralph Gowland notched the only counter of the second quarter for Brampton. In the third quarter Gord Steele garnered a consecutive pair. His first was on a pass by Gowland and his second unassisted. Ralph Gowland, assisted by Evans, ran Brampton's total to five. But Arnston match this goal in short time. Steele laid a nice pass to "Red" Howell to make the three-quarter count Brampton 6, New Toronto 2.

New Toronto's big guns opened up in the final session, blanked the Brampton hopes and increased their total to four, insufficient to cause the fans to become perturbed. Gray passed to Harrison, who slammed the strings, and Gowner ended the scoring on a fast breakaway.

New Toronto—Knatchell, Harrison; Vinner, Flack, Olwell, Downer, Gray, Campbell, Arnston, Berveski, Kopski, Ferguson.

Bampton — Bignell, Gowland, Caruso, Hennessey, Evans, Byrne, Cooper, Gallagher, Lagerquist, Dalzell, Teasdale, Steele, Howell, Sutherland.

SANDHILL

Wedding Anniversary

On Saturday evening, June 23rd, about eighty guests gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCauley, to assist them in celebrating their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. After the arrival of the guests the "Hands of the Uniorse" were turned back and all joined in on a program of old-tyme dancing. Mrs. McCauley received her friends and neighbors in a dusty Rose sheer dress with a corsage of sweet-peas and Bridal roses. Music was supplied by Caledon East Orchestra, and Norman Cook acted as floor manager. Following the dance portion of the program, an appetizing plate luncheon was served in the living room which was decorated with carnations, snapdragons and other seasonable flowers. Rev. N. H. Noble, of Caledon East, gave a very brief address, and on making their departure each guest wished Mr. and Mrs. McCauley many more anniversaries.

Mrs. Michael Dixon

Friends of Mrs. Michael Dixon were shocked to hear of her passing on Thursday last, death taking place at Toronto General Hospital where she had been a patient for six weeks. The late Alice Brandel Dixon was born at Buffalo, N.Y., and came to Sandhill over fifty years ago, where she resided until her passing. She was an untiring worker in Sandhill United Church, a member for years past of the Women's Association and always took an active part in the work of the Women's Institute.

The late Mrs. Dixon is survived by her husband and thirteen children, seven daughters and six sons, as follows: Mrs. J. Hudson, and Mrs. E. Davis, of Toronto; Mrs. W. Ellis, of Caledon; Mrs. Marty Stonehouse, Mono Road Station; Etta Dixon, of Mount Dennis; Lola and Gladys, at home; Howard Dixon, of Grand Prairie, Alta.; Bert and Kenneth Dixon, of Sexsmith, Alta.; Philip, Gordon and Louis Dixon, at home. Also surviving are four sisters, Mrs. William Scully, of Niagara Falls, N.Y., Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. E. Crate and Miss Florence Brandel, of Toronto.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon from the family home, where a private service was conducted by Rev. J. S. Veals for the immediate family and relatives. Following was an impressive service at Sandhill United Church. Interment took place in Providence Cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest in a profusion of floral tokens. Six sons of deceased acted as bearers.

Caledon East

Farewell Party

A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Rev. N. H. and Mrs. Noble, Friday night last, when the members of St. James Anglican Church Women's Auxiliary, gathered to say farewell to Mrs. N. Hutchinson. Mrs. Noble expressed the thoughts of all those present of what a great loss Mrs. Hutchinson will be to the church, and she will be keenly missed by her many friends in Caledon East and district. On behalf of those present, Mrs. Hutchinson was presented with a Prayer and Hymn Book. She suitably responded to the gift. Mrs. Line and Mrs. Fred Holder expressed a few words of regret on having to lose Mrs. Hutchinson from St. James Church. The evening came to a close with refreshments served by Mrs. Noble and helpers.

LAWN BOWLING NEWS

According to reports received, there is much activity at the Brampton Lawn Bowling Club. The greens were never in better condition than they are at the present time and many are taking advantage of the games from time to time. The regular Tuesday night jitney was held with an exceptionally large attendance. Following are the prize winners: Miss M. Holliss, E. Henderson, F. Thompson and Walter Misener. An interesting programme has been arranged by the committee, in charge for future events, which looks as though the balance of the summer will be taken advantage of to the extreme.

"Your Grandpa wore a dustcoat and I had a white linen coverall"

1. "When we were your age we wouldn't have thought of driving in the Summertime without some kind of protection from the dust. Your Grandpa wore a dustcoat and I had a linen coverall. Even then we used to come home with plenty of dust on us and on the car.

2. "The dust behind every car that passed us was like the tail of a comet and you daren't swing out to pass anything for fear of meeting something coming through the dust, the opposite way.

3. "The things your Grandpa used to say were awful. But I couldn't blame him. In fact I used to say the same things under my breath — that is if I had any breath left after a few miles driving.

4. "Yes, that's the dustcoat that your Grandpa uses now when he works in the henhouse, and I wore out the coverall around the house. You see there's no need of them now, since they fixed the road with Calcium Chloride. No dust, no dustcoat and no coverall!

5. "Getting rid of the dust has made a pile of difference in these parts. The crops are better, driving—even with the truck—is safer and we don't spend half our time in the house with a dust mop. That Calcium Chloride is good stuff right enough!

6. "Fred Hall, our county engineer, told me the other day that it cost practically nothing to make the road dustless with Calcium Chloride. He said that the cost of the Calcium has been more than paid for by the reduction in maintenance costs.

"'My men spend less time re-spreading gravel and levelling', he says, 'and with labour scarce this makes things a whole lot easier for everybody. I've been getting all the bouquets,' he says, 'but the praise should go to Calcium Chloride. That's what did the trick'."

LAKEVIEW.—Due to receive honorable army discharge on Dominion Day, Pte. William Emerson MacFarlane, 41, Canadian Forestry Corps, was instantly killed last Saturday night when struck by a car at the entrance to Small Arms Training Camp on the Lakeshore highway.

According to Provincial Constable Maurice J. Seaman, who investigated the fatality, driver of the car was Gordon Williams, 42, of Park Road, Lakeview, who is now out on bail and faces charges of dangerous driving in Port Credit police court this week.

Native of Timmins and son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert MacFarlane of that city, Pte. MacFarlane, while awaiting discharge papers at military district No. 2, decided to visit his brother, Pte. Garnet MacFarlane, at Small Arms Training Camp, before returning to North Bay on Sunday. The two brothers intended to visit the movie in Port Credit and the accident occurred when Pte. Wm. MacFarlane crossed to the south side of the highway to see what was delaying his brother and warn him that the bus was approaching.

Capt. John H. Deeth, medical officer at Small Arms Camp, pronounced death instantaneous and Dr. A. B. Sutton, Toronto Township coroner, had the body removed to Skinner's Undertaking parlor in Port Credit. Pte. Garnet MacFarlane accompanied his brother's body to Timmins on Sunday night.

Pte. Wm. MacFarlane had been in the army for three years and had for the past two years been stationed at North Bay where his wife and three children made their home. He also leaves his sisters, Mrs. Arthur Badham, of Arnprior, Mrs. C. C. Hicks of Schumaker, and another brother, Robert, of Detroit, Michigan.

"One-Way" Farming for Profit

A striking example of the effectiveness of a machine, in helping farmers operate successfully under difficult conditions, is found in the One-Way Disc. Introduced during the drought spell and period of low prices for farm products, it helped farmers cut down their production costs, thereby leaving them more margin for profit.

It is little wonder then that the One-Way Disc Seeder speedily became one of the most popular machines on the market. Preparing the soil and sowing the seed in one operation, the One-Way Disc Seeder saves time and expense. Used as a tillage machine it destroys weeds and leaves the land in a condition to resist soil drifting. In effect the One-Way Disc offers the usefulness of two machines at little more cost than the price of one.

In design and construction the MASSEY-HARRIS One-Way Disc offers special advantages that appeal to users. The sturdy frame construction, long wear replaceable bearings, patented stone jumper, easily adjusted direct draft hitch, and quick action power lift are features that contribute to the popularity of the MASSEY-HARRIS. Your local dealer will be glad to give you full particulars.

VIRUS INFECTION

Because the sap of potato plants infected with virus diseases is infectious, the disease may be spread by the leaves rubbing against the leaves of healthy plants. Virus diseases may also be spread by the hands of workers who have handled diseased material, or by seed-cutting knives, the pickers of planting machines, or by insects, of which aphids, or plant lice, are the most common.

The Japs prefer death to dishonorable captivity. The Americans are too busy to bother with prisoners so that makes it unanimous.

That government is the strongest of which every man feels himself a part—Thomas Jefferson.

From a ton of corncobs, scientists of the U.S. Department of Agriculture are making from 90 to 95 gallons of motor fuel. The corncobs are ground up, treated with acid to produce chemical sugars, and in turn the sugars are fermented into alcohol from which liquid motor fuel is made. The question of commercial practicability is now under review.

After an absence of eighteen months overseas, LAC Harry Beecham, RCAF, returned to his home, 18 Jessie Street, Friday last, and was met in Toronto by his wife and son Roger. He enlisted in Toronto with the RCAF December 18, 1941, received training at Manning Pool, Toronto, St. Thomas and Trenton. He went overseas in March, 1943. After arriving in England, LAC Beecham was transferred to the Thunderbird Squadron 426, and remained on duty in England until his return to Canada. He was born in Brampton and attended Central School and later was a student at Long Branch High School. While in Brampton he played lacrosse with the Brampton Junior's, and was a member of Brampton Presbyterian Church. LAC Beecham is a son of Mr. Frank Beecham, of Long Branch.

LAC Allan Mabee, RCAF son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mabee, 89 West Street, has arrived at his home after spending two and a half years overseas. Another brother, Pte. Howard Mabee, is stationed in England at the present time. LAC Mabee will spend a thirty days leave with his parents, and has already signed up for the Pacific Campaign. He was born at Alliston, and at the time of his enlistment February 2, 1942 was employed in Brampton with the Pease Foundry. He received training at Galt, St. Thomas, Jarvis and Vancouver, going overseas in March, 1943. When he arrived in England, LAC Mabee joined with the Leaside Regiment, and remained at base work until he returned to Canada.

After serving overseas for four years where he received his M.M. for bravery, L/Cpl. Fred Harrison of the Ontario Tank Regiment returned to his home, July 2nd., had a joyful re-union when he met his wife and two children. He was born in Brampton, being a son of Bert Harrison and the late Mrs. Harrison. He enlisted in July, 1940, with the Lorne Scots, and while training at Camp Borden transferred to the 48th. Highlanders, and later to the Ontario Tank Regiment. At the time of his enlistment, L/Cpl. Harrison was employed with the Reid Press, Hamilton, and while in Brampton was employed with the Hewetson Shoes, Copeland-Chatterson and for a short time with the Peel Gazette.

After receiving his honorable discharge from the army in Toronto on July 9th, Pte. G. H. Green is experiencing difficulty to obtain a house in Brampton where he is desirous of making his future home. He returned from overseas recently and at the present time his wife and daughter Joy are residing in Montreal until arrangements can be made for them to move to Brampton. Pte. Green enlisted with the Dufferin-Peel Lorne Scots Reserve in 1934, and went active with the Toronto Scottish on January 9, 1940. He trained at Montreal, Three Rivers, Quebec and Valcartier. At the time of his enlistment he was employed at the Shamrock Farms, Caledon. Before going overseas, Pte. Green was a member for a considerable time of the Brampton L.O.L. and Black Knights. While overseas he spent his entire time in England.

Pte. Gordon Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. M. Browne, of Norval, and the late Mr. Browne, and Pte. Ormie (Bud) Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rheuben Carter, Toronto, and formerly of Norval, arrived home together on Monday afternoon after spending a year in the same Nazi prison camp. The boys came over together on the same ship, and it was a real coincidence that Gord and Bud, friends together in Norval, yet serving in altogether different regiments overseas, should find themselves together in the same prison camp, in fact their prison stalls were right next to each other. Pte. Browne was a prisoner of war for one year. He served with the Seaforth Highlanders and was missing for three months before his mother received word that he was a prisoner-of-war. He said they certainly would have starved had it not been for the Red Cross parcels. Gord enlisted in July, 1942, and prior to that conducted his father's malt mill at Norval.

Pte. Ormie Carter has been a prisoner of war since last October, and was serving with a special American Force prior to his capture.

Brampton Lions Push Plans To Establish Recreation Centre

Authorize Funds To Pay Part Salary of Full Time Director of Youth Activities When Permanent Appointment Made—New Officers Installed

Brampton is one step closer to the long-awaited recreational centre as a result of decisions made last Monday night at the Lions Club meeting. Guest at the meeting was "Bill" Robinson, recently released from Y.M.C.A. duties with the armed forces. Bill described in detail the advantages that would accrue to the town of Brampton by the co-ordination of all youth social and athletic activities.

A committee has now been named to study the question, and to meet with various town organizations who are also interested in an extensive youth project. The committee is composed of A. J. Davis, K.C., O. T. Walker, Mayor Harper Bull, Frank Early, N. L. Powell and Cecil Carscadden.

Brampton Lions Club have already passed a motion and are prepared to pay a portion of the necessary funds to maintain a full-time physical director when officially appointed.

By appointing the above committee and authorizing their share toward payment of salary of a physical director, Brampton Lions feel that they are ready to go ahead with plans for the Community Recreational Centre as soon as other organizations interested in the project can agree on the general plan to be followed, financing arranged, and materials and labor are available.

It has been the intention of the Brampton Lions to launch a campaign for funds in some manner to be definitely decided shortly. Whether this will be accomplished by selling shares in a car or a bungalow, as has been the general practice elsewhere, or the possibility of using some other means, is a matter for the committee to decide, and for this reason the matter was referred back last Monday night.

Field Day Nets Almost $900

In the report on field day results by Art Morrison and financial report by Pat Patterson, it was revealed that the proceeds from the annual field day netted a cool $875.

The horse show in the evening proved an unqualified success, but was somewhat hampered by the untimely downpour that chased a good many spectators from the grounds.

Install New Officers

At the installation of new officers the new president, Gordon Vivian, complimented Frank Richardson, retiring president on the splendid record of achievement by Brampton Lions during the past year under his presidency. The new treasurer, Pat. Patterson replaces E. L. "Ted" Vokes for the forthcoming year.

Lion "Alf." Sutton was welcomed back to the Brampton Lions Club following his return from a five-year tour of overseas duty. Alf. gave a resume of his experiences overseas, his pleasure at seeing all the old familiar faces at the club, and tendered thanks to his fellow Lions for many parcels received while overseas.

Radio Firms Here Convert For Post-War Production

Radio manufacturers can now go ahead with postwar plans but the models they bring back on the market must sell at 1941 basic period prices. Production of radios has been banned since 1941 so that the production approval given manufacturers by Wartime Prices and Trade Board clears the deck for a return to civilian sets.

However, H. H. Foreman, co-ordinator of capital equipment and durable goods, WPTB, in making the announcement said there is little likelihood of radio sets for civilians for some time yet due to shortage of component parts which must come from the United States where resumption of production has not yet been allowed.

Canadian manufacturers, therefore, may proceed with reconstruction plans and get into production when component parts become available. No restrictions have ever been placed on maintenance and repair parts.

Holding prices at the 1941 basic period level is in line with previously announced policy with respect to prices of goods returning to the market.

L.O.L. Has Busy Initiation Night

Setting an initiation record for the L.O.L. Lodges in Peel County after they have been at a standstill for the past few years, a special meeting was held Friday night, July 6th. in the L.O.L. Hall, Port Credit. A favorable feature of the meeting was that eight new members were initiated. District Master, Frank Keates, of Brampton, took charge of the meeting, and was assisted by the Past Masters from Cooksville L.O.L. There was a large attendance with many lodges from Peel County being represented. During the evening a Past Master's Jewel was presented to Bro. Frankish by Past District Master, Andrew Sherman. During the business portion of the meeting it was definitely decided that the Port Credit L.O.L. 163, will celebrate July 12th. at Toronto. Following are the names of those initiated at the special meeting: Fred Law, Harry Law, Robert Page, R. Drury, Roy Hall, Robert M. Grant, Alfred Russell, Donald W. Muir. At the close of the meeting a sumptuous supper was served by the members of Port Credit Lodge.

Toronto Men Get Stiff Sentences For Thefts

That Provincial Constable Barry Farrell has been working strenuously in the past several weeks to clean up the thefts and robberies which have been going on in North Peel for the past three months, was demonstrated in Brampton Police Court Monday morning, when Mark Cartwright and John Canning, both of Toronto, faced Magistrate K. M. Langdon on nine different charges which were laid by Constable Farrell. The two men were jointly charged and pleaded guilty to each charge as they were read. They entered the Fred Johnston Service Station, at Caledon, the general store of Thomas McCabe, Caledon East, and broke into the house owned by J. Walsh, Chinguacousy Township. After evidence had been given by Constable Farrel, Magistrate Langdon sentenced Canning to four years on each charge to run concurrently. Cartwright received a three years sentence on each charge, also to run concurrently.

Both Cartwright and Canning pleaded guilty to the thefts, as follows: They stole a motor car from Roy Ellis, of Sandhill; gasoline from a car owned by Russell Craig, Twenty-Seven Road, Sandhill; two gallons of alcohol from the driving shed of Lester Little; tire gauge, gas funnel, four gallon tin can and tractor gasoline from the premises of James Benham, Snelgrove; a set of "6-S" wrenches the property of Weylie McKeown, of Mono Road Station; car jack from the car of Jack LaRose, of Campbell's Cross. On the morning of Thursday, May 24th., a Chevrolet Coach registered under the name of John Canning was found abandoned on Twenty-Seven sideroad, near Sandhill, and on investigation it was found by Constable Farrel that all the stolen articles were found concealed in the car.

In view of the sentences for breaking and entry, the Magistrate gave an indefinite suspended sentence to each man on the theft charges.

George Tyre, who was remanded from last week on a charge laid by Constable Savage, for causing a disturbance at the Wellington Cafe, was dismissed. Tyre was defended by Frank Richardson.

Wilfred Burrows pleaded guilty to a charge laid by Constable Keates for being about the streets without any visible means of existance. The Magistrate allowed Burrows to go on suspended sentence, and if he gets into any more trouble, the charge would be used against him.

Douglas Merton, of Toronto, was charged with reckless driving, and pleaded not guilty. While driving on Queen Street East, at the log in the road, the car driven by Merton left the highway and did considerable damage to the Orr Service Station, and also to the sign-posts. Malcolm Donaldson gave evidence in the case, and in his evidence Constable Savage, who investigated the accident, described the damage which had been done. Merton also faced a charge of careless driving, and was fined $25, and costs. The first charge was withdrawn.

James T. Doran and Charles Mack both pleaded guilty to driving motor vehicles without the necessary licenses. After evidence had been given by Constables Keates and Savage, each man paid a fine of $10, and costs.

On a charge of making a disturvance on Main Street while in a state of intoxication, Russell Young pleaded guilty to the charge which was laid by Constable Savage. Young was allowed to go on suspended sentence providing he pay the costs of the court.

William Waite faced two charges, one for causing a disturbance by using profane language on

Must Produce Proof Of Age To Get Pension

According to Clerk David Wilson, of Peel County Council, there have been forty-five new applications made from the entire county from January 1st, to July 1st. 1945. for Old Age pensions and Mother's allowances. This number stands about the same as in the last three months of 1944. A great deal of difficulty is being experienced at the present time regarding the applications being made. The applicants believe that all they have to do is make application for their pensions and it is the duty tion is made to the time their ages.

As a result of this misunderstanding a great deal of time elapses between the time application is made to the time their first pension arrives. Mr. Wilson is willing to do all he can to assist the applicants, but it is impossible for him to find proof of their ages, that being the duties of the applicants themselves.

Motorcycle And Truck Collide Two In Hospital

Two brothers, Earl Davey, 18, and James Davey, 16, sons of Gordon Davey, R.R. 2, Brampton, were conveyed by ambulance to Peel Memorial Hospital, early Wednesday morning, as a result of an accident which occurred on No. 10 Highway near the Calvert Greenhouses.

Both boys were riding on a motorcycle when they collided with the rear end of a truck owned and driven by Gerhard Neudoerffer. Earl Davey was on his way to work at Malton, while his brother was on his way to work at Calverts. Mr. Neudoerffer was travelling north, and before making his turn into the Calvert lane, looked in his mirror to see that everything was clear. After making a left turn he felt the crash and on making an investigation found that the motorcycle had collided with his truck. The motorcycle continued on for a distance of 133 feet when the two lads were thrown to the east shoulder of the highway.

Earl Davey suffered from injuries to his right hand, forehead, head bruises and brush burns to both knees and ankle. James suffered from shock and internal injuries. After receiving medical treatment Earl Davey left for his home, while James will remain under observation in hospital for a few days.

The accident was investigated by Provincial Constable William McClelland, who is substituting in Brampton while Constable Hewat is on vacation.

Cafes And Hotels To Offer "Meatless Menus" To Patrons On Tuesdays And Fridays

Friday, July 13th, Sees Start of Meat Rationing In Canada—Coupon System For Consumer Rationing To Start About Sept. 1st

Patrons of restaurants and hotels will face a 'meatless menu' on Tuesday and Friday of each week until further notice, according to an order announced this week by Donald Gordon, Wartime Prices and Trade Board Chairman. First meatless day will be celebrated (?) in Brampton to-morrow, unlucky Friday the 13th.

While individual rationing of meat is considered immediately necessary, the immense amount of organization required for sound administration makes it out of the question to expect that such plan will begin before the end of August. Within that time it is expected that the Government will have the necessary machinery set up, and coupons printed.

In the meantime Government control of slaughtering is expected to bring about such a shortage in the retail outlets to consumers that the effect will be almost the same as consumer rationing.

Ration Is Reduced

Conservator readers were warned in June 28th. issue that meat rationing was considered necessary, and could be expected shortly.

The new rationing plan will allow one and a third pounds of meat to each consumer weekly, or sixty nine and a third pounds yearly. Poultry is not covered in the new plan, and chickens, geese, ducks and turkeys will not be included in the coupon coverage.

All processed meats such as ham, bacon, preserved and canned meats, liver, sausages etc. will be rationed. It is anticipated that 'small amount tokens' will be introduced for perishable meats. All meats will be included in the new plan with the exception of poultry. The new plan is designed to decrease per capita consumption in Canada by approximately eleven pounds. Thus while the average consumer is not heavily hit, those who are accustomed to big juicy steaks daily will have to pull in their belts as far as meat is concerned, or plan to 'eat out' at restaurants on days other than Tuesday and Friday.

Mr. Gordon appealed to Canadians that pending the actual operation of rationing on the consumer level, they make a voluntary reduction in meat consumption so that the maximum amount may be sent to distressed areas of Europe.

The Prices Board said that under previous orders a farmer was allowed to slaughter for his own use or that of his farmer neighbors without a permit, and this regulation remains in effect. However, any excess over his own or his neighbors' needs may be sold only to the holder of a slaughter permit, who in turn must stamp the meat and submit a record of the purchase.

The Board warned that when the consumer coupon rationing is reintroduced, all persons holding meat in cold storage lockers will be required to surrender coupons as who passed away early Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Holwell, 51 Elizabeth Street North, in her 87th year. She resided in Brampton sixty-four years and with her husband conducted the Royal Hotel for over half a century.

PASSED AWAY

MRS. ROBT. ROBSON

Mrs. Mary Robson Passes, Aged 87, Owned Royal Hotel

A resident of Brampton for the past sixty-four years where she was known and highly respected, Mrs. Mary Robinson Robson, wife of the late Robert Robson, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Holwell, 51 Elizabeth Street North, early Tuesday morning. The late Mrs. Robson, who was in her 87th year, had been suffering from ill health since the Royal Hotel fire three years ago, she being one that was released from the burning building. A heart attack developed in January of this year, and from that time on her condition was considered serious. She was born in the Klienburg district, being a daughter of the late George K. and Mrs. Robinson. For over half a century the late Mrs. Robson and her husband conducted the Royal Hotel in Brampton. In religion the late Mrs. Robson was a member of Grace United Church, and was a strong advocate of missionary activities until she was compelled to retire owing to her advanced age. The late Mrs. Robson is survived by one daughter and one son, Mrs. Fred Holwell and Major Harold Robson, both of Brampton. Her twin sister, Mrs. J. Shaver, of Cainsville, survives; also three grandchildren, Pte. Gerald Robson, overseas; Sgt. Russell Holwell, RCAF, who returned to his home recently from overseas, and Mrs. Stewart Beatty. There are also three great grandchildren.

The funeral took place this afternoon (Thursday) from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Holwell, where an impressive service was conducted by Rev. A. N. Miller, who also officiated at the graveside in Brampton Cemetery. The bearers were: W. J. Abell, Robert Worthy, John McQueen, Thomas Delaney, Harry Sproule and Bud Munroe.

Former Brampton Resident Awarded Military Medal

Word has been received by Mrs. Ed. Harris, 220 Main Street North, that a Military Medal for Bravery had been awarded to L/Sgt. Donald Gustave Campbell, who formerly resided at Fleming, Saskatchewan, but at the time of his enlistment was residing at 220 Main Street North, Brampton and had been employed with the Armstrong Construction Company for a considerable time.

L. Sgt. Campbell, a Crew Commander with the Canadian Armoured Regiment, was engaged in close fighting near Hollen, Germany. He manoeuvered his tank into a position from which he was able to see an anti-tank gun about seventy-five yards away, and despite the fact that it was pointing directly at him, moved to the attack and managed to kill and wound all the crew. The gun was entirely destroyed, and the mission completed. He then charged his tank through the hail of enemy mortar, artillery and machine-gun fire and destroyed another gun. "There is no doubt that L/Sgt. Campbell's destruction of these two guns was a deciding factor in the success of the whole attack" was the citation quoted. "His skill, quick courage and determination, was favorably commented upon" further stated the citation. L/Sgt. Campbell was slightly wounded in his knee.

Storage Building Is Total Loss In Early Hour Wed.

The Brampton Fire Brigade received a call in the early hours of Wednesday morning to extinguish a fire which was started in a building in the rear of the residence occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones, Church Street East.

Although the firemen were on the job in three minutes after the alarm was sounded, the building, which was of frame structure, was a total loss and efforts were put forth by the brigade to save the nearby buildings. Owing to the high wind blowing in a southerly direction there was danger for a time that the Rose Bowl grandstand might be in danger from the sparks, but with the prompt action of the brigdae all the danger of fire spreading was avoided.

It is the belief of Fire Chief George C. Maitland that spontaneous combustion was the cause of the fire, as the building was used for storage purposes, including a quantity of coal and furniture.

Total damage to the building is estimated at $350, while the contents are estimated at $300., fully covered by insurance.

Must Serve Additional Thirty Days If Costs Not Paid

Edward J. Rutledge, suspended chief constable, of Streetsville, was convicted in Brampton police court Tuesday, along wtih his son Edward, on charges of obstructing a police officer while in the performance of his duties. They were each sentenced to thirty days in prison and costs, plus an additional thirty days if costs are not paid.

The charges are a sequel to the arrest in the Rutledge home of two of the suspended chief constable's sons, sought by the R.C.M.P. as army deserters.

The former chief constable was convicted in Brampton Police Court on May 29th on charges of concealing an army deserter and was fined $200.

Charges against Rutledge and his son Edward, were laid by the R.C.M.P. after they found the two alleged army deserters concealed at the Rutledge home, one being in the cistern under the kitchen part of the building, while the other was concealed beneath a floor in another part of the house.

LIONS CLUB ENTERPRISE

Commendable indeed is the action of the Brampton Lions Club in their decision to pay part of the salary to maintain a full time physical director for youth recreational activities in Brampton.

The question has often been asked, "How does the Lions Club spend all the money they make in their various activities?" Here then, is a concrete example that shows one direct way in which an active community service club can, by their efforts, do much for the old home town.

Brampton definitely lacks any co-ordinated direction of sport for the young people. Like hundreds of other towns across Canada Brampton has no community or recreational centre organized and operated as such, where parents can send their boys and girls with full knowledge that they will receive the leadership that teaches better sportsmanship, better citizenship, and a better way of living.

The present war has taught Canada, and all the Allied nations for that matter, a bitter lesson. Through lack of preparedness and training thousands of young Canadian lives have been lost, a fact that everyone knows and acknowledges. However, most people are prone to associate this loss with the lack of army, air force and naval training alone. That viewpoint is true, but actually only part of the whole truth.

Our most important neglect since the last war, when our national and civic leaders should have learned their lesson, was our outright neglect of any policy to strengthen the health and better citizenship viewpoint of the young people of Canada.

When Canada and the British Empire was menaced, when the Nazis proclaimed total war, and subs were sinking ships even in the St. Lawrence river and on both coasts, Canada sent out her call to the colours. What happened? Ask any Navy, Army and Air Force medical officers what they found when they examined the thousands of young lads that flocked to enlist in the armed forces. The results were known at that time only to the authorities. Had the public been informed they would have been shocked to learn of the high proportion of boys rejected as unfit for active service.

The medical officer of one regiment alone is said to have rejected 400 recruits out of a total of 550 in order to bring his battalion up to the necessary strength. Yet these were the lads upon whom we depended to defend Canada in her time of crisis. And that is merely one example of hundreds of like stories that can be heard from coast to coast.

"Well," you may ask, "what can I do about that?" And the answer is very simple. Canadian servicemen know the answer. Take a look at any boy when he enters the armed forces, then compare him with the same lad after he has had the benefit of four or six months intensive training. The average lad enters the services, if he is declared physically fit, pale, a bit stooped over, short of wind, and not too alert. Usually after he has completed his basic disciplinary course he bears himself upright, is bronzed, healthy, alert and owns an appetite like a bear.

In the early stages of his service training, his class is placed in the hands of a competent physical director, who, step by step, gives his charges a little more proper exercise each day, which with the proper amount of sleep and proper food can make a man out of most boys. This training, along with his service training produces the type of soldier or sailor who is sufficiently fit to take on the more exacting type of training necessary in warfare today.

A great many years ago European nations instituted nation-wide programmes of physical fitness. They demanded that the youth of their nations receive physical training that would build bodies, so that, when a time of national emergency arose the youth of the nation would be fit champions to protect their homes and country from any enemy. In North America we ignored our youth, and they went their way. Instead of military training, games and summer camps, the majority of our boys indulged in a diet of late hours, dancing, shows and pop and hamburger feasts.

When our boys have all returned from overseas duty they'll have a story to tell. They haven't had an easy enemy to fight, on any front. And they'll want to see their sons, or their young brothers, given an opportunity to build a strong, healthy body. They'll want to see the same type of organized physical training and games here in Brampton that they know now is so necessary. They'll want to see a community recreation centre where young folks can get proper leadership with organized sport and entertainment. That is what every community in Canada needs to-day.

That is why the Brampton Lions Club have accepted the problem as a challenge and taken steps to initiate such a plan for the Town of Brampton. All credit is due to a group of business men who devote so much of their personal time to better conditions for the youth of Brampton. More power to 'em. Let's help the Lions Club by boosting this community enterprise in every possible manner.

PHYSICAL FITNESS

People have got to learn to play more, in a manner that will increase their physical well-being, and there is a provincial project under way here in Ontario to see that they get started. That's what it amounts to, a plan to get people out, young and old, into an active playing mood.

Since the advent of movies and radio, Canadians have become a race of "sport fans." Twenty-five years ago in Canada almost every corner lot invariably sported a group of boys playing baseball or rugby. In the winter every frozen pond or stream had its quota of skaters, young and old, and a bunch playing shinny. Not so today! Instead we have a race of sideline experts and critics. It's so much cozier to sit in a Morris chair in a warm room or sit in the bleachers at a baseball or lacrosse game and toss pop bottles at offending referees.

Earlier this year the Minister of Education for Ontario (Col. Drew) announced plans to promote physical fitness in all communities. Shortly thereafter he announced the appointment of Squadron Leader Johnny Tett, DFC, as Director of Physical Fitness for the Province of Ontario, with offices at Queen's Park.

Later a cash grant was made available for local directors, skilled in the art of converting leisure time to active, body-building recreation. Under this plan towns would form their own recreational committees or councils, with representation from service clubs, welfare organizations, boards of education and municipal councils, meeting periodically as a co-ordinated body.

This civic group would then appoint a local director of physical activities, carefully choosing a man experienced in organization of all types of sport and entertainment on a community basis. The benefits of this provincial plan are available to all towns and communities in Ontario and that means Brampton too.

When Brampton gets a good community recreational centre and maintains the services of an experienced physical director, the old town will have taken a great step forward, and will be a better place in which to live for young and old alike. What's holding us back?

MEAT RATIONING

Well, well . . . here we go again! And it's meat this time. Yes sir, when you saunter casually over to your favourite restaurant tomorrow morning and ask for your old favourite, bacon and eggs, you'll probably notice the delicately pencilled brow of the waitress raise slightly as she queries in a bored tone "don't you ever read the papers? This happens to be meatless Friday, the 13th, AND WE AIN'T GO NO BACON."

No bacon, no sausage, no tender roast beef, no deliciously tender sirloin steaks . . . just eggs, salads, beans and such. That's what you and I will eat on Tuesdays and Fridays for a long time to come, if we eat all our meals in the hotels and restaurants.

Of course . . . just in case we feel too hard done by, we can ponder over the plight of the servicemen in the Pacific who are mighty glad often to partake of a meal from their emergency rations as they lie snugly in a bit of a steamy slit trench. And then, too, if we miss our Tuesday stew, we can console ourselves with the thought of those long ration line-ups all the way from Russia west to the French coast, literally millions of starving people who may gradually get back their strength to continue living, if each of us here in Ontario manage to get by on about 15 pounds less meat per year than we have been stuffing into us so far during the war. No . . . we aren't so very hard done by, are we?

Actually the new meat rationing won't be a hardship to anyone, unless it should be some glutton who is in the habit of gorging on meat every meal. And then, whether you think so or not, you'll be better off with less meat. Ask your doctor if you don't think that's true. Naturally he'll have to agree because he's doing without too.

After this war is over, perhaps we'll all have a truer sense of the worthwhile things in life. Take the lowly spud for example. Now who would ever have thought the day would come when city folks would go out to the farm in droves, hundreds of 'em, and pester a farmer for a basket of spuds.

One farmer at a nearby centre must have thought he was living in Utopia when a bunch of city slickers followed his tractor as he plowed up his spuds and filled their own baskets, paying ceiling prices for the potatoes and offering their labour for nought. What a life for a farmer! If this is an example of the coming trend we'll all go back to the land, and the world will build a beaten pathway to our door . . . for spuds!

Well, we got away from the meat in our quest for the Murphies . . . but it seems that the only consumer rationing of meat will be dependent on the actual retail stocks for the next six weeks. After that time we can expect a new issue of meat coupons, that will give each of us approximately one and a third pounds of meat per week, or about sixty-nine and a third pounds per year. That's a lot of bull!

THE ARMY

"Well chum, looks like we're no longer airborne!"

United Ch. WMS For Peel Dufferin Reports Meeting

The sectional meeting of Dufferin-Peel Presbyterial of the United Church Women's Missionary Society was held at Inglewood on June 26. In the absence of Mrs. McKinney, the president, Mrs. Wilkinson, presided.

The morning session opened with the singing of hymn 388. The devotional period was taken by the ladies of the Cheltenham Auxiliary. Scripture read was from 1st Mark and the fourth chapter of Luke to the 18th verse. The topic was based on this reading, telling of Jesus being baptized by John and revelation coming to Him that He is God's Son. He is so impressed He goes to the wilderness and there is so engrossed in His meditations and prayer that He does not note the passage of time till hunger overcomes Him. Then Satan tempts Him to turn stones to bread but He does not. When He comes out He feels tempted to start an earthly kingdom. His third temptation came when He saw the temple shining in the sun and was tempted to throw Himself off but resists.

Jesus was a regular attender at the synagogue. This surely shows us the importance of regular church worship for young people.

His ministry lasted only three short years.

Should not verse 18 be a challenge to all of us. It was the way the Master trod, should not the servant tread it still.

This was followed by prayer.

Greetings were extended to the ladies by Mrs. Hurst on behalf of the Inglewood Society.

Mrs. Cranston gave a detailed and interesting report of the Toronto conference.

Mrs. Wilkinson suggested we try and send more members to Toronto conference as in that way we could obtain so much more good from the reports.

Miss Kilpatrick explained how to organize book clubs in our societies. She said, "If our minds are ignorant or limited to our chores every day we are not so alert and helpful as if we take our part in other activities. In Caledon the book club 12 members—plan to read a book a month. Each member lends a book which is returned to her in good condition at the end of the year. A list of books is made out showing when book is to be passed on at the end of the month. Another way. Meet once a month and one person to give synopsis of book she has read. This is to be followed by discussion, exchange of books. Pick newer books such as books on countries, biographies, fiction, detective stories and poetry. Have a committee meet and decide what to get. We must not stop education with school. We must keep up reading.

Mrs. Clark invited us to look over the literature which was sent us. Meeting adjourned for lunch.

The afternoon session opened with a call to worship by Mrs. Downey.

We then sang hymn 398. Scripture reading, Romans 12, given by Mrs. Cyril Clark, was followed by prayer by Mrs. Armstrong. Topic taken by Mrs. Downey. Christ is our motto. The short life of Jesus Christ stands out among followers as the perfect life. Christ had temptations while on earth and overcame them. So can we with His help.

A solo by Mrs. Livingston, "I'll Go Where You Want Me To Go" was beautifully sung and much enjoyed by all. Worship period closed with hymn 500.

Roll call conducted by Mrs. Clark was answered by the different societies stating a problem or giving a suggestion to help.

A vote of thanks was moved to Inglewood Auxiliary for their hospitality.

Miss McEachern, our speaker, was a returned missionary from Korea evacuated just before Pearl Harbor. She says that at one time she knew very little about W.M.S. Now she has been around and seen, she is thrilled and thinks it is a marvellous organization not only to benefit local women but world wide. W.M.S. has clubs and nurseries in big cities for children of all ages. Children whose mothers are in war work and fathers at war are rounded up and taken to these places, fed and clothed and given friendship and love, for which they are starving and are in this way they are thus saved.

The W.M.S. is also doing a fine work beyond the seas. Christians of Korea are holding to their ideals and defying Japs. The Japs imprisoned many Koreans. But Bibles were allowed in the prisons and they became bible schools. The Japs improved their treatment of prisoners but made it unpopular for people to be Christians. The time came when the missionaries were sent away but by this time there were Christian teachers in all schools. The question now is, will the Christian people be able to carry on. We feel, yes. Korea is the central place to Christianize the Orient. Scholarly people should be the natural leaders. When Miss McEachern left Korea people gathered in a private home against Japanese orders to bid her farewell and next day at the station an old woman who had risen from her sick bed was at the station and sent this message: "Please tell the W.M.S. in Canada we are praying for you. Thank you for sending missionaries to us to lift us out of darkness."

Mrs. Jewett sang, "In The Garden." Offering was taken. The meeting was closed by singing hymn 402 and repeating the benediction.

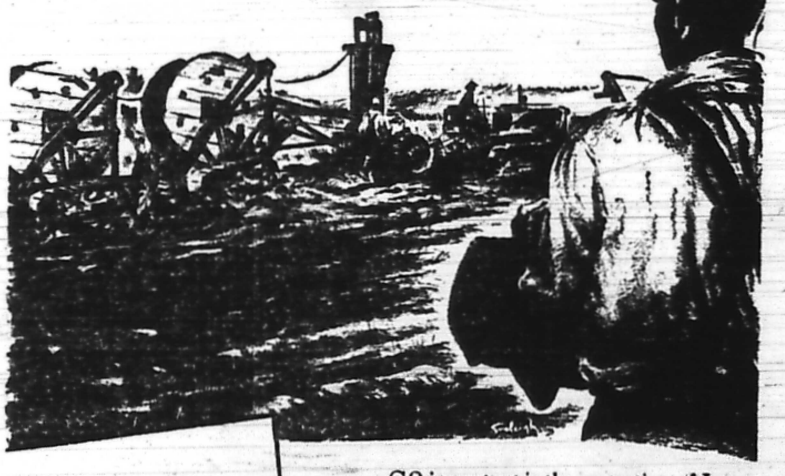
Ploughing Deep for Future Growth



SO important is the protection of Long Distance telephone communications that not even war was permitted entirely to hold up work on our great triangular underground cable route between Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal. Indeed, war made it more important than ever that we guard strategic telephone channels from interruption by storm and other hazards.

As the supply of men and materials increases, more and more open wire will be replaced by underground cable between London and Windsor—between Montreal and Quebec City—north from Montreal to the Laurentians—wherever increased traffic and operating conditions justify it. In addition, new areas will be brought into the Long Distance network.

Here is still another major job to be done as part of our post-war construction program.

It all means PEOPLE AT WORK

Laying underground cable is just one of the big projects which we are eager to carry forward as soon as possible—projects which lead to improved service and long-range economies and to work for thousands of people . . . for all our employees at home as well as those returning from war service.

AFTER FINAL VICTORY, WE'LL STILL BE Busy as Bees

Veterans' Land Act Offers Financial Aid To Returned Men

Stress Farming To-day On Business Basis—Will Help Vets Finance Land, Buildings, Stock and Equipment Up To $6,000

There may have been a time when farming was a haphazard sort of business, operated by rule-of-thumb, but that's certainly not the case in 1945. And it is certainly not the case when it comes to the Veterans' Land Act. This important part of the machinery of rehabilitation is functioning at the present time, and will continue to function, with the clear purpose of seeing that the men who elect to turn from war to agriculture are the men who can make a success of it.

There was criticism voiced at the way this aspect was handled after the last war. This disappointment arose from the haste in establishing a large number of veterans on the land within 18 months of the end of the war. In this period, 19,000 men were placed on the land. It was also stated that some of the veterans of 1914-18 got land that was poorly suited to agriculture. And there was also the fact that men were placed on the land who were temperamentally unsuited to the life. You have to have an aptitude for farming, just as you have to have an aptitude for being a doctor, a lawyer or a book-keeper. You have to have the knack, and the skill for it.

Another advantage of the present land settlement scheme is the fact that this time there is a trained settlement staff. This was not the case after the last war.

Re-establishment of the veteran of this war is putting stress on the angle of vocational guidance. Look before you leap is the advice given by cousellors when the man discusses the problem of farming with them. They tell him what he'll be up against, they find out whether he's really going to like the life, and whether his wife will like the life. The advantages and the disadvantages of farm life are underlined, and the veteran is asked to see the picture in its true perspective.

The government will help the veteran to finance land, buildings, stock and equipment up to $6,000. The maximum amount that can be expended for livestock and equipment is $1,200. The veteran makes a down-payment of 10 per cent of the cost of the land and buildings in instalments which may be extended up to 25 years. The rate of interest on this is 3½ per cent. The government absorbs the balance of the cost which is approximately 24 per cent. In addition, if he has complied with the terms of the contract for 10 years the money which he obtained for equipment and livestock becomes an outright grant. After 10 years, or after the veteran has paid all his instalments, whichever is the longer period, the veteran is given the deed to the property.

But the government's interest in the veteran goes past the purely financial aspect of the situation. Personnel counselling helps the man to know the type of farming he likes best—whether it be in wheat, fruit, livestock or any of the other phases of agriculture.

There is no intention of extending financial aid to veterans for establishment on land that is unsuitable for settlement purposes and the administrators of the Act are working in close co-operation with the federal and provincial departments of agriculture and Canadian agricultural school in pursuance of this policy.

And loneliness, that bugbear of land settlement, is also receiving attention. It is the intention of those in charge to see that the veterans settle in communities that are well established, and where there is a reasonable standard of social services established.

Hit Black Market

The new slaughter regulations are designed to combat a "black market" in meat dealings which Prime Minister King said had grown up in Canada as a result of the drain on supplies for export. It was believed the undercover operations were not on a major scale so far, but it was feared they might expand if shortages continued and no new control measures were imposed.

Already the Meat Board has been withdrawing large quantities of pork and beef from the domestic market has exported half of Canada's output of lamb during the past year to the United States and a sizeable proportion of its poultry supply to the United States Army.

When rationing was suspended last year the movement of Canada's vast meat stocks was hampered by shipping and refrigeration shortages. These difficulties now have been removed and Canadian meat can now move quickly to countries in need.

Rationing Here No Help To Menu Of Britons

London, July 7—Britons will not eat more meat as a result of the re-imposition of meat rationing in Canada, although Canada's reductions will assist in maintaining, at its present standing, the weekly ration in the United Kingdom.

"Any savings effected will go into the United Nations' pool," a Food Ministry official declared. "They will not be sufficient to permit any increase in the ration here."

Seasickness pills used during the invasion were invented by a Canadian scientist.

Using new methods of mine-laying, Canadian airmen bottled up thousands of German troops in Norway who were badly needed at home.

Survey Shows Canada Picks Goodyear, 3 to 1

Canadian Motorists named Goodyear 3 to 1 over any other make when asked what tire they would buy today!

By an overwhelming [illegible] to [illegible] preference Canadi[illegible] motorists would rather own Goodyears than any other brand of [illegible] tires. This preference [illegible] on past experience with automobile tires.

These facts [illegible] brought out in a scientific opinion survey amongst Canadians from coast to coast. The survey, made by one of Canada's largest and most dependable research organizations, was so fully conducted that the [illegible] of questions asked in [illegible] of the country was in [illegible] the number of motorists [illegible] tered.

Further [illegible] those who answered the carefully worded questionnaire had any inkling of which tire company was behind the survey. The names of competing tires were always used first in putting questions. Very carefully, those who answered were broken down into automobile owners and non automobile owners and records were made of such data as the make of cars they were driving, [illegible] etc.

Like Wearing Qu[illegible]

Proof that p[illegible] year was based [illegible] on wearing qualities, lies in the fact that both motorists and non-motorists combined gave Goodyear a 42.7 per cent vote, while the motorists alone gave Goodyear a 48 per cent rating.

The next most popular tire received only 14.5 per cent of the total vote, just about a third of the Goodyear rating among all those surveyed.

When the figures have been broken down even further to exclude the motorists from the non-motorists, we find that 38 per cent of the non-motorists showed preference for Goodyear over all other tires.

While even this last figure is highly flattering and exceedingly gratifying to the Goodyear organization, it is even more significant to compare it with that 48 per cent figure supplied by the [illegible] knows, the [illegible] an automobile [illegible] tires.

The in[illegible] Goodyear [illegible] with a man a[illegible] driving a car.

Figures Given

Here are the figures on competing tires as shown by the survey total—in other words, the proportion answers favoring other brands. T[illegible] A. 14.4 per cent, Tire B. 5.8 cent, Tire C. 5.5 per cent, [illegible] 5.2 per cent; Tire [illegible] Tire F. 1.8 per c[illegible] cent. Tire H. 8[illegible] per cent; Tire [illegible] K. .3 per cent [illegible] 0 per cent, and no [illegible] .3 per cent.

Another interesting point brought out by the survey was that of the average Canadian's feelings about synthetic tires. Sixty-five per cent were convinced that synthetic tires were not as good as natural rubber tires.

Yet when the questi[illegible] rowed down to th[illegible] tually bought s[illegible] had actually h[illegible] them, it was [illegible] out of 10 o[illegible] were satisfied with their synthe[illegible]

It seems reasonable [illegible] assume that this satisfied figu[illegible] will be even higher when the synthetic owners have had even more experience with their new tires.

Even now, however, more than half the synthetic owner[illegible] their tires are just [illegible] even better than n[illegible] Those who rate them [illegible] ly proportion—say [illegible] durable.

Wing Fabric Pioneers

Aviation owes much of its early development to a Goodyear-developed fabric for wings and control surfaces. Up until Goodyear [illegible] vention, planes depended on [illegible] fabrics stretched over [illegible] frames, but these had [illegible] ped in the wind [illegible]

All-Weather Tread Stands Time Test, Survey Reveals

[illegible] other brand [illegible] entific coast-to-coast [illegible] reveals.

Hundreds of Canadians were shown pictures of different automobile tires and asked [illegible] best-selling tires [illegible] Goodyear and 53.1 per cent [illegible] identify correctly the [illegible] design. The next best known [illegible] was identified by only 20 [illegible]

The Goodyear [illegible] tread was first adopted [illegible] 1908, [illegible] now 37 years old. Other com[illegible] have changed their tread [illegible] many times, but the Good[illegible] tread has withstood the tes[illegible] and has remained basicall[illegible] unchanged from the beginning.

Resistance to Skidding

The resistance to skidding, ability to dig in and take hold in mud and snow, or grip in all directions are the points w[illegible] All-Weather [illegible] days [illegible] sharp [illegible] turned out [illegible] with buttons, saw that the portion given them in driving tended to wear them off prematurely, and immediately changed to more rounded corners which wore [illegible] evenly.

Goodyear took the opposite course by rounding the grooves between the diamonds [illegible] strain [illegible] great [illegible] diamonds [illegible]

When closed cars came in, the slight humming noise which the diamonds made on the road became more noticeable [illegible] circumferential ribs were add[illegible] shoulder to dampen th[illegible] provide some additional [illegible] to sh[illegible] wear.

[illegible] an ingenious [illegible] varying the sizes of the diamond blocks and staggering them the engineers found that they broke up rhythm so that the sound did not have opportunity to build up volume. The comparison to a number of soldiers marching across a bridge in step—with the effect that would have on swaying a vibration of the bridge—as against the same number of men marching over in broken step, will make the point clear.

The non-skid and traction advantages of the All-Weather tread were saved, and the penalty of doing too good a job avoided.

Milestones

A Goodyear slogan, "The Greatest Name in Rubber," is no idle boast, as many milestones in the chronology of rubber reveal. Here [illegible] a few Goodyear firsts:

Within another two years, the threshing machine, the separator, the binder, the corn-husker and sheller, the mower, the potato-digger, the ensilage-cutter, the silo filler and the manure-spreader all began riding on rubber.

6 out of 10 Plan to Buy Cars

[illegible] six out of every [illegible] adult Canadians plan to buy new automobiles after the war. This interesting fact was revealed as an incidental point in an elaborate scientific survey conducted on behalf of Goodyear among Canadians from coast to coast.

The survey, conducted by one of Canada's largest and most reliable scientific research organizations, was devoted primarily to finding out just how Canadians feel about automobile tires.

In addition to the 57.4 per cent who definitely plan to buy new automobiles, prospects include another 18.2 per cent who have not yet made up their minds. Only 23.4 per cent definitely do not plan to buy new cars after the war.

Goodyear Tires Boon to Farmers, Ease Hi[illegible] Chores

Far[illegible] prod[illegible] the [illegible] tractors [illegible] on the farm [illegible] in 1931 when an orange-grower in Florida complained to a Goodyear salesman.

He was having trouble cultivating his groves. Loose, dry sand would slip, and slide under his tractor. The lugs did nothing to brace hooking against. [illegible] wheels would spin and presently would be [illegible] to the r[illegible] The [illegible] was no reason why couldn't be applied to [illegible] machinery. Within another two years, the threshing machine, the separator, the binder, the corn-husker and sheller, the mower, the potato-digger, the ensilage-cutter, the silo filler and the manure-spreader all began riding on rubber.

The large [illegible] tires were inflated to five pounds' pressure and the front tires [illegible] 15 pounds pressure. The idea [illegible] The large, soft tires [illegible] over rough ground, climb[illegible] bles, would even pull out a stu[illegible] tractor. In short, they showed [illegible] the low-pressure tires could d[illegible] the farm tractors on uneven [illegible] in the same thing that had b[illegible] one for the airplane on the c[illegible] ture airports still common at [illegible] period.

Poin[illegible]

T[illegible] ment was not a complete [illegible] but it pointed the way to [illegible] the use of Air Wheel-type tires for farm use. The manufacturers of tractors became interested immediately, and wh[illegible] velopment [illegible] of Goo[illegible] on the dri[illegible] engi[illegible] workin[illegible] wheels [illegible] installation of rubber. [illegible] next year, rubber-tired tractors were demonstrated at the National Corn-Husking con[illegible] and made a deep impression. [illegible] farmer, a observing man, [illegible] that the rubber-tired tract[illegible] needed less power to drive, u[illegible] fuel [illegible] more [illegible] the gro[illegible] fuel did [illegible] look a l[illegible] of his [illegible] fatigue [illegible]

Roads Longer Barred

Thinking of the growing complaints of road commissioners and legislators to steel-shod tractors on the roads, he concluded [illegible] would remove that o[illegible] ready there were sign[illegible] roads. "No tractors w[illegible] permitted," and boards had to be laid across the highway before a tractor would even be permitted to cross over from one farm to another.

[illegible] offered real possibilities. A [illegible] resolution in agriculture was on [illegible] way.

Riding on rubber the tractor need not be limited to slow speeds, might be driven at 25 miles an hour. By [illegible] a trailer or farm [illegible] could haul products to [illegible]

Rayon Is Used In Truck Tires

Today's modern, high-speed, long-distance trucking business would not be so successful without a Goodyear development—truck tires using rayon instead of cotton cords, thus enabling tires to stand up under the extreme [illegible] through high sp[illegible]

Dinsmore, first raised the question of using silk or rayon in place of cotton, which was unable to stand up under the extreme heat generated by the long-distance [illegible]-country trucks.

Silk w[illegible] found almost immediately [illegible]table. The first great [illegible] with rayon was that it [illegible] rating from the rubber. [illegible]blem was that of getting [illegible] to stick to rayon.

[illegible] Sebrell, Goodyear's research head, thought of the gelatine latex coating for the gas cells of the U.S. Navy's rigid airship which he had previously developed, suggested a somewhat similar solution to answer the rayon problem. It did. Then came the need for a stronger rayon. Search seemed endless. No visible pro[illegible] made in 1932 or 1933. [illegible] miniature mill was [illegible] hundreds of tires were [illegible] thousands of laboratory [illegible]

[illegible] the answer was found after the [illegible] of tires had been tested. [illegible] new Goodyears gave outstanding serv[illegible] superior to anything previo[illegible] built in the field of long-d[illegible]nce runs, and other companies hurried in, demanded the s[illegible] rayon Goodyear was [illegible] the rayon com[illegible] up tires to see how [illegible] bu[illegible]

Urgently needed food production was boosted on farms throughout the United States in the last war by a colorful caravan organized by Goodyear to show farmers that pneumatic-tired trucks could do jobs better than horses.

Announce New University Course For Physical Education At McGill

Four Year Course Following Matriculation Gives Bachelor Of Science Degree (Phys. Ed.) To Furnish Well Trained Personnel For Schools

Montreal, July 12th—A step in the right direction, in support of the national physical fitness plan, has been taken by McGill University which has just announced establishment of a degree course in physical education.

The course will be of great assistance in furnishing well-trained personnel for the national scheme as well as for schools and other institutions. Initial classes will be held next September.

Open to both men and women students, the course will be of four years' duration following junior matriculation, or three years following senior matriculation or its equivalent. It will lead to a degree of Bachelor of Science in Physical Education—B.Sc. Phys. Ed.)

The curriculum will include courses in English, physics, chemistry, zoology, anatomy, physiology, psychology, sociology, education, bacteriology, organization and administration, history development and present day requirements in mental health, preventive medicine, nutrition and the technical application of physical medicine.

Progressively arranged throughout the four years will be the technical and professional material involving basic techniques in neuromuscular activity; principles of physical education; analysis and practice of activity; methods and analysis of teaching; curriculum content and planning; and practice teaching.

McGill has had a School of Physical Education since 1912, oldest of its kind in Canada, but this will be the first degree course offered by the school which is an integral part of the Faculty of Medicine.

General A. G. L. McNaughton, Minister of National Defence for Canada, is personally credited with some of the developments in radar.

WMS Cheltenham United Church Observe 60th Year

The 60th Anniversary of the founding of the Women's Missionary Society of Cheltenham United Church, was celebrated in the church on Friday afternoon last. A large number of past members of the organization and representatives from various societies of the district were present. The meeting opened with the hearty singing of "O God Our Help In Ages Past", after which the President, Mrs. Herbert Taylor, in a few well chosen words, welcomed the visitors.

Mrs. Clarence Anderson of Union Presbyterian Church, read from the 13th. Chapter of Matthew "The Parable Of The Sower" and gave an exposition of the verses, followed by prayer by Mrs. S. Leslie. The minutes of the 50th. anniversary were read by the Secretary, Mrs. Wilbert Wilkinson.

Mrs. George Wilkinson conducted an impressive memorial service for the members who have passed on since the 50th anniversary. As she read the names, Mrs. W. H. Wilkinson placed a white flower in a silver basket in their memory, when the hymn "For All The Saints Who From Their Labors Rest" was sung. Mrs. Alex McKinney, Presbyterial President, brought greetings from the Peel-Dufferin Presbyterian, while Mrs. Thomas Dolson brought greetings from the Mount Pleasant Society. Mount Pleasant Society was associated with Cheltenham for the first four years of their work, and the two societies were in the same pastoral charge for many years. Mrs. (Dr.) J. C. Stevenson, of Brampton, delighted the audience with a vocal solo "God's To-morrow" after which Mrs. Garner Wilkinson gave a reading.

Mrs. William Fraser then paid tribute to our one Charter member, Mrs. James Lyons, sr. of Brampton, who, on account of illness and advanced years, was unable to be present. Her great-grand-daughter presented a bouquet of yellow roses and blue cornflower to Mrs. James Lyons, jr. to be presented to her mother. Mrs. Lyons replied for her mother.

Joan Townsend presented Mrs. W. H. Henry, the oldest member of the society, and for many years Honorary President, with a nosegay, and after Mrs. Henry thanked her friends for the gift, the hymn "Listen The Master Beseecheth" was reverently sung. At this time the offering was taken and Mrs. (Rev.) John Hurst gave the dedicatory prayer.

The Ladies Trio, Mrs. George Townsend, Mrs. Fred McDonald and Mrs. H. K. House, rendered "Bless This House".

The guest speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. S. B. Horwood, of Brampton, who gave an appropriate address in harmony with the special anniversary. At the close of Mrs. Horwood's remarks, Mrs. R. Acheson, on behalf of the society, extended to her a very hearty vote of thanks, and all joined in singing "Blest Be The Tie That Binds", and prayer by Mrs. (Rev.) John Hurst brought the meeting to a close.

Mrs. Herbert Taylor invited the guests to the Sunday School parlors where a luncheon was served. The parlors were attractively decorated with mauve and white. The tea table was centred with a birthday cake, mauve candles and flowers. Miss Margaret Henry and Mrs. Victor Fraser poured tea, the birthday cake being cut by Mrs. W. H. Henry. Mrs. Victor Fraser, in a few words, thanked the convener of the luncheon committee, Mrs. J. J. Campbell, and her committee for their unfailing hospitality during the social hour, and also to Mrs. W. H. Wilkinson for the attractive decorations which added materially to the success of the meeting. It was noted with pleasure that eighty guests registered in the guest book.

ANDY CELEBRATES HIS BIRTHDAY

Andy Clark is not the least superstitious. If he were he would never celebrate his birthday on Friday the 13th and that is just what he is down on the books to do. To those who follow his broadcast Sunday after Sunday, those who sorrowed when he was seriously ill, recently, to those of his friends—many of whom have never seen him but only know him by his wholesome drawl, the occasion will be one where all would like this lovable character to feel that, on that day, they are all saying to him "Happy Birthday", Andy Clark.

The bride was attended by her sister, Doreen, who wore a street-length dress of gold coloured alpine and carried a bouquet of Dream roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Carl Stoddart.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served in the dining room, which had been prettily decorated in pink and white for the occasion. Lorne Davidson Passes Away At Summer Home

Having taken an active interest in municipal affairs in Meadowvale and district all his life, William Lorne Davidson passed away at his summer home, Gregory, Lake Rosseau, Muskoka, Monday night. He had been ailing since October last, but was able to be about until his arrival at Muskoka six days ago. His death was heard of with keen regret, as he was well known at the Meadowvale United Church where he held important offices from time to time, and was for a considerable time a member of the board of trustees at the Meadowvale public school.

The late Mr. Davidson was born on the homestead sixty-seven years ago, being a son of the late William Thomas Davidson and Mary Jane Armstrong Davidson. All his life he carried on the occupation of farmer and was always interested in the breeding of Holstein cattle and Clydesdale horses.

The late Mr. Davidson is survived by his wife, formerly Frances B. Andrews, of Aurora, and two children, Miss Mary Davidson of Toronto, and Ian Davidson, at home. One sister, Miss Ida Davidson, of Meadowvale, also survives.

The funeral took place this afternoon from the family home, when the service was conducted by Rev. E. S. Bishop, of Hamilton, a former pastor at Meadowvale and a close friend of deceased. Rev. Bishop also officiated at the committal service in Churchville cemetery.

Students of Alton continuation school held a very happy picnic on the banks of the Dods' pond last Wednesday afternoon to celebrate the closing of school for the season. A couple of hours' swimming was enjoyed before the delicious lunch prepared by the first form girls was served. After lunch Bryce Davison, on behalf of the student body, presented Miss E. McTavish, who has resigned her position as assistant teacher, with a silver cream and sugar set. Hugh Mackie made a short address, expressing the regret of the students that Miss McTavish was leaving, but wishing her good luck in the future years. Miss McTavish made a fitting reply and the gathering dispersed early in the evening.

The sudden death of Mr. Jos. Sheffield at his home here late Thursday afternoon, July 5th, came as a shock to his neighbors and residents of the village. Although not in too good health, his sudden passing was unexpected. Mr and Mrs. Sheffield have been residents of our village since last fall and were a very fine couple. Mr. Sheffield was 69 years old. Service was held at the Caven Funeral Home here at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, July 7th, for burial in Dixon cemetery, near Brampton. Rev. E. M. It was with the keenest regret that the ratepayers and trustees of School Section No. 9, Caledon, learned of the resignation of their teacher, Mrs. Jean M. Lak of Alton. During the years before and since her marriage Mrs. Lak has taught faithfully and well and has earned a real place in the hearts of all the people of the section. Being endowed with those qualities so necessary in a successful teacher, she has been extremely efficient and has had wonderful results in her class work. On Monday evening at the closing of the school term a very large and representative gathering of the section and neighbors met at the home of Mr. Harvey Speers to show their respect and esteem for Mrs. Lak before she left the section. During the evening, which was spent in a pleasant social way, the departing teacher was called forward by Deputy Reeve Ambrose McCormick, who thanked her in a few well-chosen words for all her kindnesses and the conscientious service she had given the section. A beautifully worded address was read by Mrs. William Vickery and a purse containing a substantial sum was presented to Mrs. Lak. Mr. Harvey Speers and others spoke of the high esteem in which Mrs. Lak is held and expressed their regret at her departure. Mrs. Lak replied in her usual pleasant manner, thanking the people for their kindness and their gift and expressing her appreciation of their co-operation and help during her work in their school section. The memories of a work well done bring to mind the oft repeated saying, "Teachers are born nat made," and the people of School Section No. 9 realize with a deep feeling of loss that it will be difficult to replace a teacher so worthy as Mrs. Lak. Mrs. Lak, who was the former Miss Jean Burnett, is a well-known Alton girl, born and lived all her life in Alton and her many home town friends congratulate her on her successful work and the high esteem she has won in the School Section of No. 9, Caledon.

TRUSTY BUCKWHEAT

Generally speaking, buchwheat as a crop is prized, particularly in Eastern Canada, for its ability to yield at least fair returns when sown on relatively infertile soils, as well as on fields that cannot be prepared in time to be sown to oats or barley with hope of obtaining satisfactory returns. The ability to so wbuckwheat late even up to the middle of July—also enables the farmer to spread his labour.

Great War 1 'Amp' Plays Golf In 70's At Pro Demonstration

Brampton Golf Club Scene of Pro Foursome When Win-The-War Committee Arranges Match—Vets Encouraged To Play Golf

Aputation cases of World War II still have a fight on their hands to return to normal living but four of Canada's top-ranking professional golfers demonstrated last Monday night at the Brampton Golf Club how the "amps" can get back into sport. Gordie Brydson, Willie Lamb, Bob Gray and Bill Kerr, members of the newly-formed Canadian Professional Golfers Association treated Brampton's golf fans to a fine exhibition of golfing skill and then took time out to give a few pointers to the wounded war veterans. Not satisfied with this, Bill Kerr set a new course record of 31 for nine holes bettering the previous mark of 32 which he set last year. Par for the course is 35.

Kerr and Gray teamed up against Lamb and Brydson. Gray's sensational driving and Kerr's hot putter gave them the match at the twelfth hole, seven up and six to go. Kerr added his record-shattering 31 to a 34 going out, for a total of 65. Brydson with 34 and 32—66, and Gray with a 35 and 32—67 pushed him hard while Lamb finished with a one under par 69: 36-33

The tough luck shot of the match was Gordie Brydson's approach on the eighth green coming in. He laid the ball dead for the pin but it rimmed the cup and trickled on a few inches. Bob Gray twice driving the ninth green drew a great round of applause from the gallery of 200, as did Lamb's iron shot on the green after an off-centre drive on the fourth hole. Duffers can take heart from the fact that all four professionals misjudged their approach shots on the second hole coming in.

After the first nine holes Mr. Jack Houck, Chairman of the Sports Committee of the Camp Division of the Brampton Win-the-War Committee which was responsible for arranging the match, explained that the object of the golfing exhibition was to encourage war veterans with amputations and disabilities to get back into sport. Mr. Earl Morris, Secretary-Treasurer of the CPGA said that the Association was always ready to assist war veterans both by exhibition matches and personal instruction in the game.

Mr. Morris introduced Norm Falconer, an amputation case from World War I. Falconer, who had just finished nine holes of golf, told the "amps" he didn't start playing golf until he was 36, eleven years after his amputation. He said his enjoyment of the game didn't suffer because of an artificial leg. Spectators agreed that his score was not greatly handicapped either when they learned that he plays in the middle 70's.

Gordie Brydson, President of the CPGA said that the golfers themselves were only too anxious to stimulate an interest in the game and that their services were always available for any rehabilitation program or charitable organization. Brydson then led the way to the first tee where the pros gave instruction to the "amps" who were present.

Jack Reid, H. A. Jackson and M. Lebrick, amputation cases of this war and now on the staff of Christie Street Hospital tried some practice shots under the expert guidance of the pros. They hit some good ones and missed one or two like all beginners. None of them had played much golf before the war. Bob Gray banged out some long ones standing on one foot and hitting with one arm to show it could be done with practice.

Col. MacKay, Commanding Officer of the Conditioning Centre at Brampton with many of his officers and men watched the match. Col. MacKay thanked those responsible for making the exhibition possible and said that such sporting events were needed and appreciated by those whose job it is to rehabilitate the war veterans. He added that although there were no amputation cases at the Conditioning Centre, outdoor sport played an important part in restoring health to soldiers with nervous and other physical handicaps. Mr Houck presented Col. MacKay with the net proceeds of a raffle for use at the Conditioning Centre.

At the conclusion of the match roses were presented to the four golfers and to Earl Morris. The winnegs received prizes of sport shirts. Mr. L. Stacey, President of the Brampton Golf Club thanked the players for coming to Brampton and said he hoped they would return soon. A special tribute to the course attendants was given by Gordie Brydson when he said that the players found the course and greens in excellent shape. The four Toronto golfers competed in the Ontario Open Golf Tournament which was held Tuesday and Wednesday this week, in Toronto.

Wet Pavement Causes 3 Car Smash-Up

PORT CREDIT.—The wet, slippery condition of the Queen Elizabeth Way was responsible for a three-way car smash-up near the Clover Leaf on Monday morning.

While driving west along the highway, Henry Jackson, 73, of 242 Indian Road, Toronto, lost control of his car on the slippery pavement, causing it to knock off a hydro pole on the middle of the boulevard, and end up on the east bound traffic lane. Thos. McLeod, of 8 Grenadier Heights, Toronto, who was driving east at the time, slowed up to avoid hitting the Jackson car and was struck in the rear by Crawford's Transport of Hamilton, driven by Harry Madeley, 33, of 221 Adair Ave., Toronto. The large transport, carrying ten tons of steel, was badly damaged when it landed on its side in the ditch. Luckily, no one was injured. There was slight damage to McLeod's car and Jackson's car suffered heavy damages to the right front fender. Provincial Constable Maurice J. Seaman investigated.

You can't pull together with others if you're all tied up with yourself.

Summer Cottage Rents Not To Exceed 1941

Outline Few Highlights In Canada's Production And Controls

It is estimated Europe will need 12 million tons of food this year . . . Canada's sugar beet industry produces only a fifth of our sugar needs . . . T. L. Hall, deputy administrator of capital equipment and electrical products and J. W. Rainbow, deputy administrator of cocoa, confectionery and allied products with Wartime Prices and Trade Board have resigned to return to private business . . . during the first four months of 1945 Canada mined nearly 6,000,000 tons of coal . . . summer cottages are under rent control regulations and may not be rented for more than the amount charged in 1941 . . . a fresh peach in Britain costs almost as much as a retreaded tire.

Spring wheat prospects in Canada and the United States are generally good . . . WPTB is urging home canners not to dip into canning sugar for other than canning purposes and not to use all their canning sugar before the main fruit crops are harvested . . . 1,177,557 passenger cars were registered in Canada in 1944 . . . beer, wines, liquor, marmalade, syrup, honey are rationed in Canada but not in the United States (on the other hand the Americans ration shoes and canned vegetables and we do not) . . . in April, 1945, 12,000 fewer people were working in Ontario than in March.

Convention Ban Likely To Be Extended

Extension of the ban on conventions from July 20 to at least August 20 is very likely, government spokesmen indicate. The "ban" on conventions and similar gatherings was imposed in an effort to relieve crowded rail and hotel conditions while servicemen were being moved to demobilization centres or were travelling on leave.

It is expected that meetings involving less than fifty persons will be exempted from the ban and this will permit skeleton conventions or special business gatherings.

The situation regarding troop movements is not sufficiently clear to make a final statement on the matter but a decision will be reached as soon as troop dispositions are known.

Latest Order By WPT Board Is Boon To Kids

Not much that the Prices Board does is of much interest to the very young generation but a few days ago the Board came out with an order that should bring whoops of delight from the small fry.

With a certain amount of official fandangle, the Board announced that the Canadian castor oil quota for 1945 will be restricted for the balance of the year.

This cataclysmic news included dehydrated castor oil used by the paint industry but also covered natural castor oil as well. (For any interested adults, the dehydrated castor oil available for the rest of the year must not exceed 35 per cent of last year's usings while the natural castor oil for modified castor oil formulas that may be used must not exceed 50 per cent of the average annual amount employed during 1940 and 1941).

We expect any day to hear that Donald Gordon has received a plaque of gratitude inscribed all over with childish scrawls.

WPTB OK Given To Refrigerator Manufacturers

Remember the days before the war when there was a not-so-mysterious scuffing in the kitchen with a few clicks and the rattle of an odd plate and a bottle round about bedtime when the house was quiet? Everyone awake knew who it was having that midnight snack.

Well, those days are looming again. Wartime Prices and Trade Board has just taken the ban off the manufacture of electric refrigerators and WPTB co-ordinator of capital equipment, H. H. Foreman, has announced that according to reports from the industry "a few thousand units will be on the market toward the end of the year."

Plants are now being reconverted to the manufacture of refrigerators and after this process has been completed production should increase rapidly. But it will take an extended period of time to stock all distributors from coast to coast. 1941 basic period prices will apply for the new machines.

Refrigerator production has been resumed in the United States and Canadian manufacturers will be assisted in obtaining priorities for imported materials and component parts.

Production was halted in Canada in 1942 and only limited numbers of units were released to dealers in 1943 and 1944 from stocks built up before the ban. Since last September the very few machines left have been reserved for hospitals.

Non-mechanical ice box production was resumed last May.

Industrial Sugar Users Heavy Hit By New Order

Industrial users of sugar began their third quarter July 1 with a considerable cut in the amount available to them during that quarter. Bakers have been cut to 60 per cent of their 1941 usage; biscuit and breakfast cereal manufacturers to 55 per cent; and other users, such as soft drink, candy and confectionary manufacturers to 50 per cent.

A cut of 15 per cent became effective July 1 also for hotels, restaurants and other quota users. Civilians have already had their purchases of sugar curtailed.

Canada must reduce her sugar usings by 184 million pounds this year, as part of her share in meeting the world shortage of sugar.

Erindale Home And School Ass'n Holds Festival

ERINDALE.—Under auspices of Erindale Home & School Association, a delightful "strawberry social" and musical evening was held on Thursday, June 28, at Erindale public school, and attended by 300 residents of the community and their friends.

Howard Gill, chairman of the School board, was master-of-ceremonies, and conveners of the successful event were Mrs. W. Robbinson in charge of the program and Mrs. J. Featherston, who convened the refreshments, which consisted of delicious homemade cake and coffee, and strawberries and cream.

The musical program, which was greatly enjoyed by everyone, included community singing, led by Mrs. Saxon, with Miss M. Crozier at the piano. This was followed by a chorus from Erindale School and a piano duet by Misses Margaret and Joycellan Adamson. Jimmy Robbinson and Billy Green also gave a duet and Miss Margaret Sloan was heard in a piano solo. Others who participated in the splendid program were Dale Sedree and Marie Gailes who sang, song by Joan Green, Shirley Dolby, Lorraine Jackson, Adrienne Hunter and Margaret Sloan; skit by Mrs. Saxon; dance by LaVerne Lock; piano solo by Adrienne Hunter, piano solo by Mrs. J. Miller, piano solo by Sybil Harmer, duet by Marjorie Norman and Sybil Harmer; song by Eileen Sedore, Clare Rodgers, Doreen Barnataple, Eleanor and Isobel McDonnell. Instrumental numbers were given by Mrs. Saxon on the piano, Wm. Green on the mouth organ and accordion, George Donner on the violin and traps. A duet was also given by Jean Fogg and Sybil Harmer. A donkey and car very kindly loaned by Mr. A. W. Miles, provided great amusement for the children, as well as three clowns who were present to do comic turns throughout the program.

Mrs. D. Gillespie, president of the Home and School Association, extended a warm welcome to all present and corsages were presented as follows: To Miss Simmons, senior teacher at Erindale School, by Marlene Silburn, Miss McIvor (junior teacher) by Margaret Fogg, to Miss Waite, singing teacher, by Joan Green; to Mrs. W. Crandell, past president of the Home and School Association, by Jean Sproule.

Children able to creep or walk need constant supervision if drowning accidents are to be kept down. Prevention is better than regret. Supervision and the buddy or pal system help prevent fatalities. Learn to swim. Be a life saver.

The first boat special for civilian travellers to be operated by the Canadian National Railways since the beginning of the war left Montreal on June 29. Among the 250 passengers were British families who were evacuated to Canada early in the war and 23 St. John Ambulance nurses going on overseas service.

Dorbaska's No. 4 Hole Resultful

Dorbaska's diamond drill hole No. 4 is in very favorable structure there being long sections of well mineralized, sheared diorite carrying tourmaline. This hole was just entering the zone of chloritic schist at a depth of approximately 400 feet. It is this chloritic schist that the vein was found in the previous hole.

Hole No. 5 will be spotted 200 feet south from Hole No. 4 and at a steeper angle so that there will be a vein intersection at between 500 and 600 feet, vertically.

Clarkson Stage Star on USO Tour Visits Troups in South Pacific

Three Month Tour By Plane Takes Dora Sayers Through Marianas, Tinian, Marshall, Hawaiian Islands—Played Roles With Top-Ranking Stars

After a three-and-a-half month U.S.O. tour covering 11,000 miles by plane through the Marianas, Tinian, Marshal and Hawaian Islands, Miss Dora Sayers returned to her home in Clarkson for a brief rest before returning to New York to resume her stage career.

The play presented on tour was the Kauffman-Moss Hart production, "The man who came to dinner", with Hart taking the leading role and Miss Sayers taking the part of Maggie Cutler, his secretary, sharing top honors for the feminine roles with Miss Haila Stoddard, who appeared at the Royal Alexandra Theatre in Toronto one year ago in "Blithe Spirit."

The audiences of anywhere from 2,000 to 8,000 American soldiers, many of them combat troops, went wild in their enthusiasm and appreciation of each performance, and their cheers, whistles, barks and shouts were "something out of this world," according to Miss Sayers. "We loved our work and were glad to be able to do something for these war-weary troops whose only other entertainment was movies," she said. The play was presented in open-air theatres on a stage built from one section of a Quonset hit, and the seats often were oil drums, sand bags, benches or the bare ground.

Born at Clarkson and graduate of Oakville high school, Miss Sayers spent a year in New York as a student of the theatre before appearing in her first professional engagement with oJan Bennett in "Stage Door". She later toured with Miss Ruth Chatterton and Ralph Forbes in "Private Lives", followed by "The American Way", with Frederirk March and "The Philadelphia Story", with Kathrine Hepburn. Just before leaving on tour, she appeared with Miss Elizabeth Bergner in "The Two Mrs. Carrolls," which had a long and successful run on Broadway last winter.

Two years ago Miss Sayers appeared at the Royal Alexandra Theatre, Toronto, in three productions, "Out of the Frying Pan," "Little Women," and "Personal Appearance". She reports having had some of the most interesting and fascinating experiences of her life while on the U.S.O. tour and is looking forward to returning in the near future.

Agnes Giffen, 98 Dies From Injury Was Peel Pioneer

Born At Snelgrove Believed Hard Work Best For Good Health

To have lived in Brampton and Snelgrove for ninety-eight years and only away from home for a few days when a small girl is a rare record. Such was the case of Miss Agnes Giffen who died at her home, William Street, Tuesday afternoon, following an illness of three weeks, caused by a fall when she fractured her hip.

The late Miss Giffen was born at Snelgrove, a daughter of the late John Giffen and Janet Wilson Giffen, who came from Paisley, Scotland, more than a century ago. During her stay at Snelgrove, the lte Miss Giffen was a member of Snelgrove Baptist Church, and after moving to Brampton over thirty years ago with her sister and brother, Miss Mary Giffen and William Giffen, attended Brampton Presbyterin Church.

Miss Giffen always stated that hard work was beneficial to health, and that was one reason why she lived to the advanced age of ninety-eight years. Until receiving a fall, the late Miss Giffen enjoyed excellent health, and was always pleased to meet her acquaintances of days gone by.

The late Miss Giffen is survived by one sister, Miss Mary Giffen, in her 88th year, who is the last surviving member of a family of ten children. She resides at the family home, William Street. Also surviving are two nices and two nephews: Mrs. Samuel White, and Miss Jennie Giffen, both of Toronto; John J. Giffen, of Brampton, and Melvin Giffen, of Chatsworth.

Rev. A. N. Miller, of Brampton Presbyterian Church, officiated at the funeral service which was held from the family residence William Street, this afternoon (Thursday), and also conducted the service at the graveside in Dixon's Cemetery.

Four Canso flying boats, complete with 5-man aircrews and supporting groundcrew, all RCAF personnel, are assisting Canadian entomologists in the spraying operations north of Lake Superior, designed to combat the deadly spruce budworm.

Peel County Council Votes $2,000 For Hospital Fund

At the July session of the Peel County Council, which was presided over by Warden Cecil L. Gott, three members were absent, Messrs. Skinner, Reid and Davis.

It was recommended to the House of Refuge Committee that the name be changed from "House of Refuge" to "Peel and Halton County Home."

Messrs. Smith and Weir, representing the Smith Insurance Agency, addressed council and suggested the adviasbility of insuring under a Blanket Policy, the county buildings together with contents.

A motion moved by Reeve H. R. Lawrence and Deputy Reeve Ready was carried: That the council as a whole be a committee to deal with the question of a grant to the Sick Children's Hospital Building Fund.

A motion moved by Lawrence and Jenkins was carried: That a grant of $2,000 be made to the Sick Children's Hospital Building Fund in Toronto.

Moved by Lawrence and Ready: That the clerk be instructed to contact A. E. Wilson & Company regarding Workmen's Compensation Insurance, and to point out to them the discrepancy in the salary list, and, in the event that the actual salaries paid to the various county officials be not correctly incorporated in the policy, that the clerk contact other companies with a view to placing insurance elsewhere than with the A. E. Wilson Company. Carried.

Moved by Ready and Cunningham: Be it resolved that this council authorize the Property Committee to proceed at once with the building of the caretaker's cottage, and committee to work with Mr. Hall, and any contractor with authority to proceed under cost-plus agreement. Carried.

Closed Since '41 Brampton Brick Yard to Reopen Under New Owners

Bulldozer Already On Property And Kilns Filling Ready For Production—Output Of 19 Thousand Brick Daily—Train Men To Learn Brick Business

It was announced this week that the property and other assets of the Brampton Pressed Brick Company have been purchased outright by a newly formed company. An old landmark in Brampton, the brick plant dates back to 1905 when the business was originally started by William J. Packham and Chas. J. Packham, and operated until the early days of the war, when it was closed down because of the scarcity of labour and materials.

Executives of the newly organized company include Ross H. Fawcett, president, Toronto; Earl Murphy, secretary treasurer, Mount Dennis and J. E. Montgomery, vice-president, Mount Dennis.

In a conversation with A. A. Ridder, Administrator of Building Products Control, Mr. Fawcett quotes the Administrator as follows: "Government sponsored building programs will require production of at least 50 million brick by January 1, 1946, and it is estimated that only one million brick will be available to meet the necessary requirements.

It is the intention of the new company to branch into other lines of building products, including tile and building blocks. A steady increase of employment is planned when manpower is released from other industries. A large bulldozer is already at the plant removing top soil preparatory to making available shale for immediate production.

The management has announced that kilns are already being filled with brick, and a daily production of 19,000 brick is anticipated. Chief immediate difficulty is lack of labour and the company has already commenced advertising for operators to learn the brick business in Brampton.

Thugs Break In Queen St. Factory Cash Box Looted

Constable Telfer Wilson is investigating a break-in which occurred at Leaver Brothers Factory, 13 Queen Street East, Monday night. The break-in occurred during the night between the hours of closing and when the employees arrived at their work Tuesday morning. Investigation showed that the cash-box had been opened and a sum of money taken. The manager, P. Bucham, immediately got in touch with the police who made a thorough search of the premises, but at the present time no clue can be found.

Mrs. Marg. Griffin Dies In 94th Year In Brampton

One of Brampton's well known and beloved nonegenarians, Margaret E. A. Griffin, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. G. Wilson, 198 Main Street North, on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Griffin was born at Bayfield, Ont., on August 19th, 1851 and was in her 94th year. During her lifetime she contributed much to the welfare of the community. For 34 years she was Matron at the Wellington County House of Refuge, where her husband, who predeceased her twenty seven years ago, was the superintendent. In this capacity she did a great deal to add to the comfort of aged persons spending their declining years at the institution. Always thinking of the welfare of others she contributed freely and took a keen interest in homeless men. During Great Wars 1 and 2 she did more than her share in knitting comforts for the Red Cross and the Red Shield. She had knitted hundreds of pairs of sox for boys overseas in the two wars.

A life-long Conservative, Mrs. Griffin had voted as recently as the Federal Election on June 11th.

She was an ardent Anglican and showed great love for her church. Prior to settling in Brampton she was active in the Women's Auxiliary of the Church.

Mrs. Griffin is survived by one daughter, Mrs. J. G. Wilson, 198 Main St. N. in Brampton, and one son, Marshall Griffin of Burlington, Ont. Two grandchildren survive, J. G. Wilson of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. W. T. Munns of Toronto. In addition there are four great-grandchildren; Peter and Penelope Wilson and Bobby and Tommp Munns.

The funeral service will be conducted by the Rev. Canon R. Waller, former Rector of Christ Church Brampton, at 1.30 on Friday afternoon at the Main St. residence of Mrs. J. G. Wilson. Interment will take place at Elora Cemetery.

At Meaford, Ontario, where Canadian volunteers for the Pacific war receive their preliminary training, the treacherous swamps, heavy undergrowth and swarming flies are said to closely approximate conditions in Burma and New Guinea.

Hon. T. Kennedy Warns Need For MoreSugarBeets

Points To World Sugar Shortage And Idle Ontario Plants

The world today is facing a sugar shortage of 2,400,000 long tons, Agriculture Minister T. L. Kennedy told the Legislature yesterday in moving the second reading of the bill which provides sugar beet growers in Ontario with a subsidy of $1.55 per ton.

"It is vital that this country produe all the sugar beets possible in order to blster up the badly shrunken supplies," Col. Kennedy declared. The two sugar factories at Wallaceburg and Chatham would not be able to operate at full capacity unless more beets were produced.

"There are urgent reasons why the sugar beet subsidy should be continued," said Col. Kennedy. "First, there is the desperate world shortage of sugar. Second, there is the desirability of retaining for the farmers and the workers of Western Ontario this well-established industry. If the two plants at Chatham and Wallaceburg were supplied with sufficient beets to keep both operating, it would mean $5,000,000 a year return to the farmers of that area and it would also mean the payment of $2,400,000 a year in wages to the labor employed in the handling and processing of the sugar beets. That is an industry worth maintaining.

Duty to Assist

"It is our duty as members of this Government and of the House to do everything that can be done to assist this industry in a period of wartime emergency that still exists, in order that it may be preserved to play its full part in the post-war period when it may be of great value in absorbing the men and women who are released from the armed forces and from war industry," the Minister said.

In moving second reading of the Hog and Cheese Subsidy Bill, Col. Kennedy stressed the need of improving the quality of Ontario-produced hogs in order to retain a dominant position in the overseas market.

"Today Ontario stands second among the Provinces of Canada in the quantity of hogs produced and stands first in quality," said Col. Kennedy. "So far as quality is concerned, 36.5 per cent of the hogs marketed in Ontario last year graded 'A', and 46.4 per cent graded B1, a total of 82.9 per cent in the grades that are now accepted for export. But even though the quality of Ontario hogs is better than that of the other Provinces, it is far from being good enough for the future in which we will have to meet keen competition from other countries. And it is also very far short of what can be done by our hog producers if they will follow the best methods of feeding."

Lean Bacon Needed

The Minister emphasized the necessity of providing Britain with the lean type of bacon desired by its people. Only the "A" grade of hogs would enable Ontario to hold the British market. The only solution of the problem seemed to be the elimination of the B1 animals, he said.

"How important this is to the future of our hog industry can be seen from the facts of the situation in Denmark and Sweden," Col. Kennedy told the House. "Denmark has still 60 per cent of her pre-war hog population. In July of 1944 there were well over 2,000,000 hogs in Denmark, and that number is probably higher today. Sweden is in about the same position. That places squarely before the farmers of Ontario the job they had to do in better feeding as well as breeding in order to be able to compete on a basis of quality and continuity of supply with these two countries."

Immunization Week Opens Sept. 30th

Toronto, July 19.—National Immunization Week, sponsored by the Health League of Canada in co-operation with health departments, will be held this year from Sept. 30 to Oct. 6, it has been announced by Dr. Nelles Silverthorne, chairman of the Health League's National Immunization Committee.

The "Week" is devoted to the intensifying of the all-year effort of the League and health departments to promote immunization as a means of wiping out diphtheria, smallpox, whooping cough and scarlet fever—all of which continue to take toll among Canadian children.

Major Birss Awarded O.B.E.

Major Ronald Birss, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Birss of 200 Main St. North, was presented with the Order of the British Empire Medal by King George VI at an Investiture ceremony held at Buckingham Palace last week. This medal was awarded some time ago but Major Birss had not been in England until now to receive it. Major Birss served with distinction in Sicily, Italy and Holland. His wife and small son are staying with Mrs. Birss' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles King, 3rd line west.

250 Lorne Scots At Niagara Camp July 15th to 28th

Peel, Dufferin And Halton Counties Represented By Companies From Brampton, Orangeville, Georgetown And Oakville—Lt. Col. Bertram, O.C.

More than 250 all rank, including some 35 officers, of the 2nd. Batt. Lorne Scots (P.D. & H. Regt.) arrived at Niagara Summer Training Camp, Niagara-on-the-Lake, last Sundy. They were preceded by an advance party that left Brampton early Saturday under the command of Capt. Ambler to make preparations for the incoming troops.

Various centres of the three counties were well represented, with companies from Brampton, Orangeville, Georgetown and Oakville.

The regiment is commanded by Lt. Col. L. H. Bertram, M.C., with Major N. L. Powell as 2nd in Command. Officers from Headquarters and Support Company in Brampton attending the camp this year from July 15th to July 28th include: Major Gordon Stratton, Capt W. J. Abell, Capt. D. E. Smith, Lieut. S. Gautley, Lieut. G. Robinson, and Lieut. Emerson McKinney. Medical Officer is Capt. H. H. Hetherington. Major Harry P. Charters is attending as Unit Chaplain.

An unusually interesting syllabus of training for the reserve units has been set up at Camp Niagara this year, and high ranking army equipment used in modern warfare to be used. In addition to up-to-the-minute infantry methods now being taught, field maneouvres, mechanized warfare and many special subjects will make every minute at camp interesting for the two week training period.

Special interest is being taken in the reserve camps across Canada this year, and high ranking rmy officers and instructors back from overseas duty in Europe and Africa are touring the camps to offer their experiences in the present war, in order that the troops in training may know at first hand how the boys on active service are meeting the enemy, and to illustrate methods used to combat and overcome the latest enemy tactics and weapons.

Town Council Awards Street Oiling Contract

Sub-Division Plan Referred To Town Planning Consultant

For the first time in several weeks all matters were transacted at the regular meeting of the Brampton Town Council which was held Monday night, and the members were on their way home at 10.45 o'clock. Mayor B. Harper Bull presided, and all members were present with the exception of Reeve H. R. Lawrence, who is away on vacation.

Owing to the absence of Clerk-Treasurer A. L. Paterson, who is on a two weeks' vacation, the minutes and communications were in charge of the town solicitor, Sybil Bennett.

The question of closing the public building at Gage Park was discussed at length, and on motion of Councillors Thompson and Ingram, it was decided to close the building at 10 p.m., and the police be instructed to enforce same.

Miss Jean Smith addressed council regarding a sub-division plan at McCaul St. and Homewood Ave. She was advised by Mayor Bull that the matter would receive every consideration, and would be submitted to John Layng, consultant for town planning, for a report in the very near future.

Moved by Deputy Reeve C. F. Ready and Councillor E. Ingram: That the Town Planning Committee, appointed by a select committee, comprising Reeve H. R. Lawrence (chairman), Councillors Thompson and Jackson, be the committee to act in conjunction with J. Layng, recently employed by the council to act as consultant in town planning. Carried.

Moved by Councillors J. W. Kellam and Lloyd McGregor: That Armstrong Brothers Construction Company be awarded the contract of covering certain streets in Brampton with R.C. 5 and chips at a cost of 9.7 cents per square yard, and certain other streets with S.C. 1 and and sand at 8 cents per square yard, the work to be done according to the terms of the contract and under the supervision of the town engineer. Carried.

Moved by Councillor Jackson and McGregor: That the Mayor proclaim Monday, August 5th, Civic Holiday for the town of Brampton.

Junior Farmers Attend Mayfield Church Service

Over two hundred members of the Junior Farmers of Peel County attended the annual church service which was held Sunday night last at Mayfield United church. The choir was composed of Junior Farmer members, when selections were rendered by Miss Dorothy Elliott, Miss Isabelle Archdekin, Misses Mable and Marion Shaw. Mr. George Gardhouse took charge of the scriptures and Miss Margaret Archdekin conducted the devotional service.

Special speaker for the occasion was Rev. Mr. Boyd, of Bolton, who gave a forceful message in harmony with the activities of the Junior Farmers, and Rev. John Hurst, of Inglewood, conducted the closing exercises.

Red Cross Blood Donor Clinics Open in August

Continued support of the Blood Donor Service and urgent necessity for donors to continue their faithful attendance at clinics is urged in view of the fact that Ottawa has announced that there are to be about 35,000 Canadian troops in the Pacific. Blood serum must be made available to the wounded in that theatre of war.

Canadian Red Cross blood donor clinics will re-open next month. Mr. Russell T. Kelley, chairman of Canadian Red Blood Donor service in Ontario, emphasizing the need for continued support of the public, pointed out: "While the war with Germany is over, the war with Japan is far from finished. There are two big reasons (including that stated above) why the service must continue. The British Government has asked the Canadian Government, and they in turn have requested Canadian Red Cross for 150,000 bottles of blood serum annually until the war is won. To produce that quantity will require 500,000 donations annually in Canada and Ontario has agreed to produce half of that total, on a basis of 5,500 donations weekly.

"The National Blood Donor Committee and the Canadian Hospital Association have already held two meetings giving consideration to the question of the blood donor service after the war."

Fire Department to Demonstrate Portable Fire Escape Monday Night

Widely Used In East Coast Cities, Modern Fire-Escape Said Practical For Small Hotels And Apartments—Public Invited To See Test Drill

Brampton residents will have an opportunity to see modern fire-precaution equipment demonstrated here next Monday night, when the Brampton Fire Department under Fire Chief George Maitland will hold a fire drill at the Winston Apartments on Main St., Brampton, at the showing of a new type, portable fire-escape in action.

The demonstration will take place at 7 p.m., Monday night, with the co-operation of H. L. McMurchy, owner of the Winston Apartments, and representatives from a firm that manufactures the portable fire escape equipment.

In his effort to combat the danger of serious loss of life through fire, Chief Maitland is scouting every possible angle of protection for Brampton citizens. According to a statement by Chief Maitland, the new portable fire-escape has been widely used in cities on the east coast.

Air Cadets Leave For Two Weeks At Camp Borden

More than 20 Brampton Air Cadets caught the early train Thursday morning for Camp Borden where they will take intensive training for the coming two weeks. Flt/Lt. McCleave accompanied the detachment, but will return to Brampton to-morrow, and spend only the last week (July 22nd to July 28th) returning with the cadets at the end of the camp period. FO J. L. Patterson preceded the party on July 15th to complete arrangements for the detachment, and will remain at Camp until July 28th.

The cadets will have an opportunity to see the training planes in action, will be working under officers and instructors back from overseas, and included in their training syllabus will be actual flights.

Seeds shipped from Canada to Britain in 1943 and 1944 produced more than three million tons of food for that country.

REHABILITATION

The problem uppermost in the minds of all men and women in the armed forces and war industries and their families today is—A PEACETIME JOB.

Probably half a million of these men and women in the armed forces and wartime industries will be looking for jobs in Ontario. They are too busy to do any planning.

When peace comes they want to come home—home to a living, healthy, growing, prosperous community that can provide employment and security for themselves and their families.

To develop and grow, to be healthy and prosperous, your community needs the vision and the energy of these young people. Furthermore, your community owes it to them.

The need is obvious. The responsibility for co-operative community action for JOBS and PROFITS is equally apparent.

Who is responsible for community action? Y O U.

Because Community Planning is the responsibility of each individual and every group of individuals in the community.

Obviously, the demand for the goods and services produced in your community must provide JOBS and livelihood for the people of your town. The more people with jobs the better your income and the more goods and services you demand.

It is equally apparent, then, that the established business people and labor are most interested and must accept the responsibility for Community action.

Somebody has to be the "Spark Plug". What about YOU?

Y O U: every worker, business man, business woman, every professional man, banker, housewife, school teacher, clergyman, everybody.

LOOKING BACKWARD

We find it very hard to agree with the viewpoint of a prominent London, Ont., business man who spoke before the Kiwanis Club at St. Thomas this week, when he said that "idealism and romanticism is all right but realism is also necessary". That part of his speech was all right, but when he described in detail how he thought Government regulations were throttling business, we figured he was going a little too far. Here are his exact words as quoted in a Toronto daily:

"If Canada is to survive economically and morally, money has to be put back to work. He then referred to 'the subterfuge' of orders in council, paternalism in promises and legislation that included unemployment insurance, state medicine and those utterly disfraceful baby bonuses.

"Too many promises were being made by unproductive idealists", he said, "in their effort to flatter people and win their support. They might be sincere in their idealism, but who is going to pay for it all."

How many times have we heard prominent men in public and business life talk just that way. Scan the newspaper columns for 100 years back in Canada if you wish, and you'll find the same speech, almost word for word, almost every month of every year since Confederation, and you'll find almost the same line of bunkum. Fortunately, Canada goes ahead despite these obstructionist methods by would-be dictators, otherwise wages would have been kept to a bare minimum, and the lot of the working man in Canada sorry indeed.

When a country like Canada cannot afford to keep abreast of the times, there is small chance for the little man in the world. Canada has everything necessary to give her citizens the benefits of advanced civilization. There is no need for adoration of the dollar sign, with tremendous wealth for the comparatively few, and the bare necessities of life for the many. That is not our way of life.

In every community in Canada we have seen families struggling to buy food and fuel, getting further in debt. While frequently this has been a matter of poor management, the majority of cases in most communities are a matter of small life incomes, with probably the death of the family bread winner early in life.

Any kind of legislation aimed at an improvement of the lot of families in such circumstances looks like a good bet to us. No country and no community is stronger than its weakest link. We cannot be considered a prosperous country with starving families in our midst. In our opinion, prosperous gentlemen who go ranting around the country asking for a return of the old days, should be put on a dole for a year or so, with all other income cut off, children dressed in cast-off clothes, no car, no palatial summer home, insufficient food and all the other well-known restrictions . . . then let's see if the gentleman changes his tune!

No man gets world vision till he is able to see past his own point of view.

Don't try to get the best of the other fellow. Try to bring out the best.

If all honest men would show their colors, black markets would disappear.

The only people to get even with are those who have helped you.

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE

Meat rationing is coming back again. We have known rationing for some time now and it is not a new venture. We had meat rationing before. Many of the papers of the nation have been insistent in their demand that it be brought back again. Britain is desperately short of meat, Europe is starving and faces a winter of despair. Well, here it is, the meat rationing Canada asked for.

But the war in Europe is over and it is a different thing asking for meat rationing to help the poor Europeans or the meat-short British and actually going without meat. How gracefully will we in this country of full resources accept the role we must acknowledge as citizens of international responsibility? Will our people resolutely turn their backs on black markets? Will our city people week after week be prepared to see on their tables quantities of meat which they as Canadians consider inadequate? Will our farmers, justifiably proud of their privileges as free individuals, recognize the necessity for slaughtering control without which the system of meat rationing could not be properly maintained?

We are a big people in a country of growing power. This business of meat rationing can be a test of our adult qualities as a nation. If we grumble and let dull the edge of our enthusiasm to feed Britain—and what parts of Europe we may—then it won't be long before our grumbling will lead to strong dissatisfaction, to black markets and all the underhand devices of a deceitful people too corrupt to do away with a law they are not willing to stand by. We have seen what happened to some parts of the world when war collapsed national economy. We have no such excuses in this country.

We will have meat rationing again. By and large we asked for it. Let's make it work.

EDUCATION

Children are the raw material of democracy. Often we may feel they are discouragingly raw. But they all have a chance to learn the principles of democracy at home. And at school they have an equal chance to work them out. Next to our homes, our schools are our greatest training ground for national character.

Years ago the totalitarian nations recognized the primary importance of the schoolroom, the teacher and the text-book in moulding the kind of character they wanted. The war has shown how successful they were, up to a point. They fought, and almost won, the battle of faiths long before they were ready for the battle of weapons.

In a world that cries out for reconstruction on democratic principles our new generation must of course learn them from us. Unless they learn to live out the moral principles which are basic in democracy, the world in which they grow up will have drifted away in search of some easier, cheaper set of principles. And the experience of 1919-1945 may well be repeated in a more terrible way.

What is the deciding factor, the factor that will turn the tide? What did education lack in between the two wars that made some nations think democracy had gone soft? Education is not only the instilling of useful knowledge into more or less childish minds. It is building future men and women. Thus our educational system owes the post-war world, above all, the kind of character that will make another war impossible: the character that accepts an inner discipline which starts by lightening the teacher's task and eventually makes the task of government easier; the character thta will produce sound home life and honest business life, and that knows and depends on Divine power to give meaning and direction to life.

As the English writer, Peter Howard, says in his book "Ideas Have Legs", "Is not this true education—to give children the secret of development and a sense of destiny? All thy children shall be taught of the Lord, and great shall be the peace of thy children'. That is the forgotten factor in all this talk of education nowadays. It is the basic education."

WEEKLY NEWSPAPER WEEK

In almost every reach of life there is a steady, unrelenting process which can be aptly termed "keeping pace". In many cases the pace maintained reflects the whole attitude. It is a great thing to be able to keep pace with oneself—with one's real self. It comes to the child of tender years in the classroom, follows us into our business or professional life, into every organized activity; indeed into the many scattered realms into which the human element enters. This pace-keeping challenge, too, comes to newspapers as to other forms of organized effort.

Many people fail to realize the importance and power of the weekly press as a social instrument. It is not enough for a community paper to be engaged continuously in public service. The reading public—and that should embrace all within the community—should understand, with a keen sense of appreciation and certainly without bias, that it is so, if a true appreciation of the value of the paper to the community is to be enjoyed.

Weekly Newspaper Week, which is being marked throughout the length and breadth of the land—October 1 to 8—under the sponsorship of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association, was instituted for this very purpose. In seeking to express the potential worth of a community paper—a home paper—we have enlisted the assistance of the local clergy and our high schools, with a generous and most encouraging response.

But more important even than a pace-keeping program by a newspaper is the pace-setting policy it adhers to. In this directive we have set our faces for some time, and it is rather a coincidence that certain rather drastic changes should synchronize with Weekly Newspaper Week. The accepted aim is to release a weekly newspaper worthy of the community which the publishers are privileged to service.

Mineral And Oil Potentialities Of Canada To Engage 37 Parties From Dominion Geology Division

Five Groups Will Study Northwest Territories, Others Will Comb Vast Areas Across Entire Country

A program of field work for 1945, designed in the main to provide prospectors and exploration companies with helpful information in their efforts to disclose new sources of mineral supply in various areas throughout Canada, is announced by the Mines and Geology Branch, Department of Mines and Resources, Ottawa. Portions of several of the areas in which exploratory work has been increasingly active will be mapped in detail, mainly in an endeavour to determine the geological features that control mineral deposition, and considerable attention will again be given to the mapping of areas in Alberta of interest because of their oil possibilities. The program also includes reconnaissance surveys of largely unknown sections of northwestern Canada, and an examination of certain areas where rare element minerals occur or possibly occur. The Geological Survey has assigned thirty-seven parties to field work and the Topographical Survey, fifteen. All of the parties are now in the field.

Five of the geological parties will operate in the Northwest Territories, one in Yukon and the Northwest Territories; one in Yukon, seven in British Columbia, five in Alberta, one in Alberta and Saskatchewan, two in Saskatchewan, three in Manitoba, two in Ontario, six in Quebec, one in New Brunswick, and two in Nova Scotia. In addition, one geologist will be engaged in collecting mineral specimens.

The Topographical Survey, which provides base maps for the development of the country's natural resources, has one party in the Northwest Territories, two in Yukon and northern British Columbia, four in Alberta, one in Manitoba, one in Quebec, four in New Brunswick and two in Nova Scotia. Aside from this, aerial photographic work will be undertaken in certain areas in western Quebec.

Museum Parties

The National Museum of Canada, which is administered by the Mines and Geology Branch, has assigned three parties to field work, one in Alberta and British Columbia, one in Alberta, and one in Yukon.

Details of the field program for 1945 follow.

Northwest Territories

Two parties headed by M. Fonziak and J. B. Thurber will do detailed geological work in the Echo Bay portion of Great Bear Lake area, with particular attention to rare element minerals.

J. F. Henderson will do similar work in the Hottah Lake area.

Y. O. Fortier will continue the geological mapping of the Ross Lake area, about 40 miles east of Yellowknife, on a one mile to the inch scale. The area contains gold and the ores of base metals, tantalum, tin, and lithium.

J. S. Stewart will make inspectional trips in portions of the Mackenzie River Basin where oil operations are under way.

E. S. Fry will commence the establishment of control in the active portion of the Yellowknife River area to provide base maps on a scale of one mile to the inch from aerial photographs.

Also The Yukon

E. D. Kindle will continue a geological reconnaissance of a belt five to ten miles wide along the Canol Pipeline road between Whitehorse, Yukon and Camp Canol, Northwest Territories. This road crosses potential mineral-bearing country in Yukon and in the adjacent part of Northwest Territories. At the Camp Canol end it crosses structures that are possibly favourable for the accumulation of oil.

H. S. Bostock will make a geological reconnaissance along that portion of the Alaska Highway between Whitehorse and Alaska. Little is known of the mineral possibilities of part of this area, but in other places it contains base metals.

J. D. Lecchman, of the National Museum, will make an archaeological investigation along the Whitehorse to Alaska portion of the Alaska Highway, an area in which it is expected that important archaeological material will be found. The work will be done in conjunction with the geological reconnaissance of the area.

Northern B.C.

Two topographical parties headed by A. C. Tuttle and R. J. Parlee will complete the contour mapping that was commenced in 1944 in the Dazadeash and Whitehorse areas, Yukon, and in the Bennett area, British Columbia, to provide base maps for geological work on a scale of four miles to the inch. In making the maps they will use trimetrogon aerial photographs in combination with ground photography for control.

A. F. Buckham will continue the detailed investigation of the coal and of the coal-bearing rocks in the Nanaimo-Comox area of Vancouver Island. This work involves a study of the structural origin of the coal in order that prospecting can be done on a scientific basis, and it has already been of aid in the disclosure of a coal field in the area.

C. S. Lord will continue a geological reconnaissance in a 2,600 square mile portion of the McConnell Creek area, a short distance northwest of Takla Lake. Formations are favourable for the occurrence of metallic minerals.

J. E. Armstrong will commence a geological reconnaissance of a 2,600 square mile portion of the Aiken Lake area, the southern border of which is about 15 miles north of Omineca River.

Two parties headed by S. Duffell and K. C. McTaggart will commence mapping the geology of a 3,000 square mile section of the Ashcroft area on a four mile to the inch scale. The area contains base metals and coal.

H. M. A. Rice will commence mapping the geology of the Shuswap area which lies between Shuswap and Okanagan Lake.

W. E. Cockfield will make general inspectional trips throughout the Province, during the course of which he will make various geological investigations.

B.C. and Alberta

A. E. Porsild of the National Museum will make a botanical study of the Rocky Mountain region, with special attention to the Banff, Jasper, and Waterton Lakes Parks.

The five geological parties will be engaged in the detailed mapping of possible oil structures in the foothills, and the four topographical parties will continue their work in a section of the foothills north of Entrance.

R. J. W. Douglas will continue detailed geological mapping in the Callum Creek and Langford areas in the southern foothills.

O. A. Erdman will commence detailed mapping of the Cripple Creek area in the central foothills.

A. H. Lang will commence detailed mapping of the Brule and Moberly areas in the northern foothills.

E. G. W. Irish will commence detailed geological mapping of the Gregory Lake area in the northern foothills.

W. A. Bell, on completion of his work in Nova Scotia, will examine fossil plants for the purpose of correlating Upper Cretaceous formations of the foothills in reference to the oil and gas possibilities of structures.

Three topographical parties headed by A. M. Floyd, J. V. Butterworth, and M. E. Nidd will establish horizontal control for aerial photographic mapping in an area in the foothills north of Entrance, the purpose of the work being to provide base maps for geological mapping. H. N. Spence will extend the triangulation network in this area.

A. L. Rand of the National Museum will investigate the mammals of southern Alberta to supplement the data already available on the mammals of the Province.

Saskatchewan

R. T. D. Wickenden will make a detailed examination of cores and drill cuttings obtained from drilling for oil and gas, the purpose of the examination being to work out sub-surface correlation and structure.

A. W. Jolliffe will make a detailed study of the geology in the Goldfields area, with special reference to the occurence of rare element minerals.

J. B. Mawdsley will do detailed geological mapping in the Rottenstone Lake area, which lies within the Canadian Shield. Copper-bearing minerals occur in the area.

Manitoba

J. M. Harrison will continue detailed geological mapping in the Snow Lake area. Exploratory work has been particularly active.

M. S. Stanton will commence detailed geological mapping of an area that adjoins the Snow Lake area on the south. Exploratory work in this area also has been very active.

C. H. Stockwell will continue detailed mapping in the vicinity of Flin Flon to determine the structure and sequence of the volcanic rocks and their relationship to the ore deposits.

C. M. Duncan will complete the control surveys in the Snow Lake and Wekusko Lake areas for use in the preparation of maps from aerial photographs.

Ontario

J. F. Caley will continue the geological mapping of oil and gas areas in the southwestern portion of the Province, with particular reference to the Lake Simcoe area.

T. L. Tanton will continue the general investigation of iron deposits.

M. E. Wilson, who will be mainly engaged in field work in Quebec, will spend a short time in the Madoc area, chiefly to check on the drilling of fluorspar deposits, and in a study of fault problems.

Quebec

H. C. Cooke will do detailed mapping of a copper-bearing belt in the Sherbrooke area. The area lies immediately south of the Weedon area that he mapped in 1944, and comprises portions of Compton, Stanstead, Richmond, Frontenac, and Wolfe counties.

G. W. H. Norman will do detailed geological mapping in the Louvicourt area of western Quebec in a continuation eastwards of his work in Bourlamaque and Dubuisson townships in 1944.

L. P. Tremblay will do detailed geological mapping in the La Corne area which contains molybdenum, tantalum, and lithium minerals.

G. Shaw will continue detailed geological mapping in Beauchastel township near the west end of the Noranda—Cadillac mineral belt.

M. E. Wilson will continue detailed mapping of a small area near Rouyn.

J. W. Sinclair will make a palaeontological study of that part of the St. Lawrence region lying between Montreal and Quebec to establish standard sections with which formations can be accurately correlated. His work will be chiefly in the Three Rivers area. It will be of value in oil drilling and to geologists in studying the stratigraphy of the region.

F. P. DuVernet will establish control for mapping Vaquelin, Pershing, Haig, and Dasserat townships, the southwest quarter of Pascalis township, and the western half of Beauchastel township, on a scale of 1,000 feet to the inch.

Aerial photographs will be taken of portions of the metal belts of western Quebec for use in detailed geological mapping. The sections to be photographed have a total area of 1,878 square miles.

New Brunswick

F. J. Alcock will do detailed geological mapping in an area comprising, in the main, the southern portion of Charlotte county, in a westward continuation of work last year in the vicinity of St. George and Sussex. The results of his work will be of value in determining the oil and gas possibilities.

Post War Trade Agreements

By NORMAN MARSHALL

Ottawa.—One of the big problems which will face the coming Dominion-Provincial Conference will be the question of how much authority is to be given the Dominion Government in making postwar trade agreements. Under the War Measures Act the government at Ottawa has been able to make trade agrements with other governments. During wartime most of the agreements have been along the lines of lend-lease, but business men feel that this fact is not sufficient justification for the provinces resuming their pre-war powers in the field of international trade.

In the coming conference it is generally expected that the provinces will insist on retaining many of their rights as of 1939. Pressure will be brought to bear upon the conference by groups, particularly of business men, who have nation-wide interests. These groups will make an effort to have the conference bring about certain constitutional changes which will allow the Dominion Government greater powers in the interest of a more unified national policy. They will not favour the principle under which a delegation from Saskatchewan went to England a few months ago to arrange matters of trade.

Should the provinces gain their point, the whole machinery of the Export Credits Insurance Corporation will be endangered. This Corporation was created in 1944 to facilitate Canadian export trade. It has been given powers to make loans, both to Canadian exporters and to foreign government agents wishing to purchase goods in Canada. Should those who have relied on the credit of the Corporation become alarmed about the decisions to be made at the Conference, then not only would Canadian business suffer, but Canada's relations with other nations would be exposed to criticism.

"Self-Propelled"

Another Move Forward for Agriculture

New developments in machinery have always had a marked effect upon farming. The reaper, the binder, the tractor and power farming equipment, and the combine all have helped farmers do their work easier, quicker and more profitably.

The latest development in farm equipment, the self-propelled combine perfected by MASSEY-HARRIS prior to the war, has revolutionized harvesting. It has also opened up new possibilities to the implement engineer for developments in other types of farm machinery that will bring increased advantages in the saving of time and labor.

With the MASSEY-HARRIS self-propelled combine, one man with the grain tank model can harvest sixty acres and upwards in a day. Costs are less, too, because one motor operates the mechanism and propels the machine. Grain is saved, none being knocked down and shelled in opening the field. Anyone who can drive a car can learn to operate a self-propelled combine.

Good farm management employs the advantages of modern equipment to speed up the work, save labor, increase production and lower production costs. It is easier to farm profitably with good equipment. Your local dealer will be glad to give you full particulars about the self-propelled combine and other machines in the MASSEY-HARRIS line engineered and built to meet the needs of modern farming.

OBITUARY

Joseph Sheffield

For many years a resident of Brampton, Joseph Sheffield passed away suddenly at his home in Alton, Ont., on Thursday, July 5th, 1945. Although he had not been in good health for some time, the news of his death came as a shock to his family and friends. Born at Craighurst, Ont., April 24, 1876, he was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Sheffield, and his boyhood and young manhood were spent in that vicinity. He was a veteran of the first World War having served overseas with the 27th Battalion from Winnipeg. Left to mourn are his wife, four daughters and three sons, Mrs. Leslie Robinson (Hazel), Glen Williams; Mrs. Wallace Hoover (Irene), Beeton; Mrs. Claude Boyes (Lila), Vankoughnet; Mrs. Stan. Goddard (Margaret), Alton; Perry, Meadowvale, and Mark and Norman, of Brampton. Two brothers, Will at Craighurst, Ont., and Tom at Goodlands, Man., and one sister, Mrs. Alexa Thompson, Orillia, also survive. The funeral took place at Alton on Saturday, July 7th, with interment at Dixon's cemetery, Campbell's Cross. Pall bearers were the four sons-in-law, Mr. Roddie Murray of Brampton, and Mr. Ed. Haufman of Orillia. Much sympathy is extended to his wife and family in their sad loss. (Barrie Examiner please copy).

Miss Helen McClure

The tragic death recently of Miss Helen McClure, who was an Elementary School teacher at Kimberly B.C., shocked the residents of the district in which she lived. A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. McClure of St. Mary's Prairie, she left home to bring in the cows but failed to return. Her father and a party went out to look for her and found her pony standing guard where her body lay. She had evidently been thrown from the horse when it stepped in a badger hole. Helen Marion Rodina McClure was born August 27th, 1911 at Cranbrook B.C. In 1913 she went with her parents to live on St. Mary's Prairie, on Mountain View Farm, where the family still reside. Besides her parents, she is survived by one sister LAW Marjean McClure, attached to the Photographic Dept. of the RCAF at S.F.T.S. Calgary, and one brother Stewart of Marysville. Her untimely passing will be deeply regretted by a wide circle of friends throughout the entire district, where she was held in universal respect.

Miss McClure was a niece of Miss Sara McClure, West St., Brampton and Mrs. Arthur McClure of Mt. Pleasant.

Mrs. Mildred Margaret Irwin

Mrs. Mildred Margaret Irwin, beloved wife of Mr. Frank Duncan, died at her home, 51 Queen Street East, Saturday morning, following an illness which lasted over two years. She was born at Powassan and had resided in Brampton for the past two years, where she was highly respected by all who made her acquaintance. In religion she was a member of St. Paul's United Church.

The late Mrs. Duncan is survived by two children, Bert Duncan, of Orangeville, and J. C. Duncan, of Brampton. Two sisters also survive. Mrs. Joseph Closs, of Powassan, and Miss Daisy Irwin, of Toronto.

A private service was conducted at the home, 51 Queen Street East, Brampton, Sunday afternoon, by Rev. John McDermid, after which the remains were taken to Powassan where the committal service was held at Powassan Union Cemetery Monday afternoon, following a service at Powassan United Church.

Albert Pratley

After a long illness, part of which was spent in Peel Memorial Hospital, Albert Pratley died at Christie Street Hospital, Toronto, early Sunday morning last. He was in his 64th year. The late Mr. Pratley was born in Brampton, being a son of the late Daniel and Jane Pratley, two of the early pioneers of Peel County. He served in the last war for four years, where he was seriously gassed, and also saw service in the American Army in 1917. In religion he was of the Baptist faith and in politics a staunch Liberal. With the exception of eight years which was spent at Cleveland, Ohio, the late Mr. Pratley resided all his life in Brampton. He is survived by two sisters and three brothers: Mrs. William Martin, of Inglewood; Mrs. W. E. Coates, Brampton; Charles Pratley, of Cleveland, Ohio; Walter Pratley, of Toronto and Henry Pratley, of Meadowvale.

The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon from the T. H. McKillop Funeral Parlors, where the service was conducted by Padre Berkeley, of Christie Street Hospital, who also officiated at the graveside in Brampton Cemetery. The bearers were: Fred, Gordon and Dan Pratley, Earl Martin, Howard Finch and Sgt. Edgar Coates.

WEDDINGS

Lawery—Emmerson

Floral decorations provided the setting in the Baptist Church, Georgetown, Saturday July 14, for the marriage of Eunice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Emmerson, to Harold Norman Lawery, son of Mrs. Jane Lawery and the late George Lawery of Brampton. The Rev. J. Ostrume officiated. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white satin with lace insets, and orange blossom headdress, with fingertip veil, and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. She was attended by Miss Evelyn Rony of Toronto, wearing blue taffetta and net, with shoulder length veil, and carried pink roses. Albert Lawery, brother of the groom, was best man, and ushers were: George Lawery and Jack Davidson. William O'Hearn of Brampton rendered a solo, 'Because', during the signing of the register. The reception was held in the Legion Hall, where the brides mother received in a dress of Queen's blue, with white accessories wearing a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother assisted wearing grey and mauve, with white accessories, and corsage of white and mauve sweet peas. CASTLEMORE

On July the tenth the Castlemore Women's Institute held their Historical Research Meeting under the convenorship of Mrs. N. S. Lindsay at the home of Mrs. Walter Day. As it was "Grandmothers Day" many visitors were present and some of the ladies were attired in Grandmother's dresses and hats. Mrs. Ellis the president in the chair opened the meeting by asking all to sing the Institute Ode. The roll call 'Bring an Antique and tell its History' was very interesting. The minutes were read and approved. Mrs. J. Julian then read the Motto "Pioneers of Peel County," she took us back to U.E.L. time and named many orginial families that settled in Peel County. It was voted to donate $10.00 to Bolton Summer Camp and $10.00 to Hospital for Sick Children Fund. The Institute decided not to have a booth at Brampton Fair. Ditty Bags are to be filled this year as usual. The September meeting celebrating the 35th anniversary of the founding of the Institute at Castleton will be held at Balton Summer Camp as a picnic. Charter members are to receive a special invitation as well as all present members. Mrs. O. Ellis, Mrs. H. Fletcher and Mrs. R. J. Walson gave reports on the District annual held in Brampton. Mrs. H. Nix gave a paper on origin of Clairville school. Many facts were told that had been overlooked. The National Anthem closed the meeting followed by a tea hour in which the hostess assisted by Mrs. C. Lester and Mrs. L. Livingstone served refreshments.

MONO ROAD

The Mono Road W.I. held their regular meetingat Innis Lake Thursday afternoon, July 12, with about thirty members and visitors present. Mrs. Gordon Watson presided andthe meeting opened by the singing of the Institute Ode followed by repeating the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. J. Lindsey called the roll, which was responded to by stating "ways to save your feet." Letters of thanks were read from Mrs. Parsons (Dorothy Bulbeck) in England, whose little daughter had been sent a gift and also from the former Jean Fiskell, who was recently married and had received a gift. Twenty-five dollars was voted to the Jam Fund to be added to that subscribed for that purpose. An appeal for money for the Sick Children's Hospital was read and in this connection a supper will be held on Mrs. J. Watson's lawn in Caledon East, the proceeds of which will be sent to this worthy Institution. Two piano solos by Sihil Harmer, a guest, were enjoyed. The motto "Living a Life is more than making a Living" was prepared by Mrs. C. Judge and read by Mrs. R. Jinnis. Mrs. Judge stataed that parents had a double duty—to raise their children in the way they should go and to see that the community was a fit place for them to grow up in. Mrs. J. McLeish gave a full and interesting report of the convention. Members who attend these small efforts of individuals and individual Institutes are added together the results are amazing. Miss Lowe who is a teacher at Bishop Strachan school, and formerly on the staff of Dalhousie University, Halifax, gave a most interesting talk on that city. The harbour there is of great importance perhaps ranking next to New York on the east coast. The summers are beautiful and Haligonian housewives forget their housework, pack their lunches and spend the summer days on the shores of the beautiful Bedford Basin. Five University heads across Canada are from Nova Scotia, Miss Lowe said these people were for the most part industrious and stayed in the province but when they did go they advance far and went far afield. She spoke of watching the new immigrants leaving the ships. The European has so much to offer in handcrafts, in his methods of farming, etc. that if we would accept his ideas as he accepts ours an important type of Canadian that would be unique would be formed. Through her observations across Canada these newcomers had become extremely loyal Canadian citizens, Miss Lowe said. Mrs. Sam Wilson moved a vote of thanks to Miss Lowe. The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem. Mrs. Sam Wilson had as a contest pictures of men and women in the news. This was won by Mrs. J. Lindsay. Lunch was served, Mrs. J. A. Lindsay was pianist.

Mrs. B. A. Carruthers, of Kimberley, is spending a few days at the parsonage with Rev. J. S. and Mrs. Veals.

Miss Helen Dimples Veals, of Toronto General hospital, spent a few days last week with her parents in the village.

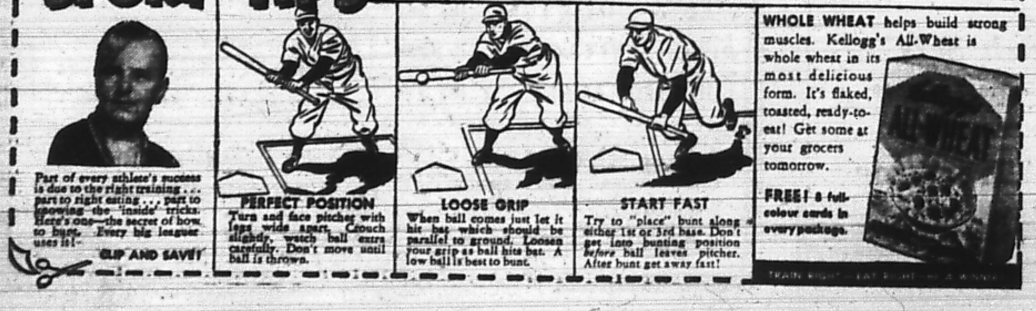
SPORT-TIPS #2. "HOW TO BUNT" IN BASEBALL by Ace Parker
Formerly "Canada's most versatile athlete" in all sports. Played on many championship teams! Now "Ace" is our leading all-round coaching expert.


Part of every athlete's success is due to the right training . . . part to right eating . . . part to knowing the 'inside' tricks. Here's one—the secret of how to bunt. Every big league uses it!
PERFECT POSITION — Turn and face pitcher with legs wide apart. Crouch slightly, watch ball extra carefully. Don't move until ball is thrown.
LOOSE GRIP — When ball comes just let it hit bat which should be parallel to ground. Loosen your grip as ball hits bat. A low ball is best to bunt.
START FAST — Try to "place" bunt along either 1st or 3rd base. Don't get into bunting position before ball leaves pitcher. After bunt get away fast!

Hello, Homemakers! In view of the curtailed supply of commercial ice cream it behooves the housewife to make her own frozen desserts whenever possible. It is not a difficult task, especially when an electric refrigerator is available, nor need the ingredients be expensive. With heavy cream off the market for the duration the thin type will do and various syrups may be substituted for sugar.

The simplest recipe we have seen comes from the Department of Agriculture, it uses honey instead of sugar for sweetening. Mix a quart of coffee cream (18%) and ¾ cup of flavoured honey and freeze. The addition of fresh fruit or berries makes it an exciting dessert.

TAKE A TIP

1. Set the refrigerator control for freezing. The tray of cream should always be placed on the bottom shelf unless there is an upper shelf over a freezing coil.

2. The cream is left until frozen solid, then removed to a chilled bowl and broken into chunks. Next, beat with a rotary beater long enough to break down all hard lumps, but not long enough to cause any liquid.

3. If the recipe calls for the addition of whipped cream or eggs this is the time to mix them in. Do this with a minimum of stirring.

4. Put the mixture back into the tray immediately and replace it in the freezing compartment and leave to freeze firm again. If the ice cream is ready before serving turn the control back to a point between freezing and normal cold.

5. Sweet chocolate can be shaved coarsely and added to unfrozen cream.

6. Fruit ices are cool and refreshing and easy to make.

LEMON CREAM
Six to Eight Servings

1 cup milk, 1 cup coffee cream, 2 eggs, ½ cup sugar, ½ cup light corn syrup, ¼ cup lemon juice, 1 tsp. grated lemon rind.

Beat eggs until lemon coloured. Add sugar gradually until the mix becomes a thick custard-like consistency. Combine with syrup milk, cream, and lemon juice and rind. Pour into tray and freeze with temperature control at coldest position. When frozen, remove to bowl and whip with an electric or hand beater until mix becomes light and creamy. Return quickly to freezing tray and allow to finish freezing. When dessert is completely frozen, turn temperature control half way back to normal position for holding until serving time.

CHERRY WATER ICE
Four Servings

½ cup sugar, ½ cup water, ¼ cup light corn syrup, 2 tbsp. lemon juice, 1½ cups cooked red cherries.

Boil sugar and water 5 minutes, cool. Press cherries through sieve. Combine with sugar, corn syrup and lemon juice. Pour into freezing tray. Set control at coldest position; freeze to mush. Remove to chilled bowl; beat until light. Replace in freezing tray; freeze firm.

CHOCOLATE ICE CREAM

1 tsp. gelatine, ¼ cup milk, 1 package Chocolate Pudding mix, ¼ cup sugar, 1¼ cups milk, 1½ cups light cream.

Mix gelatine with ¼ cup milk. Place pudding powder in saucepan. Add sugar and 1¼ cups milk gradually stirring constantly. Cook and stir over medium heat on electric range until mixture comes to boil and is thickened. Remove from heat. Add gelatine-milk mixture immediately and stir. Add cream and mix thoroughly.

Place in freezing tray of automatic refrigerator, setting control for coldest freezing temperature. When partially frozen, turn into cold bowl and beat with rotary egg beater. Return to tray. Freeze 30 minutes longer and stir; then freeze until firm. Freezing time: 3 to 4 hours. Makes ¾ quart.

THE QUESTION BOX

Mrs. J. B. says: I have large gelatine moulds, but since the family has scattered I don't know what to make in them. Any suggestions?

Answer: Make the whole main course in one, and it will be easy to serve. Put a layer of ham and vegetable salad on the bottom, then pack in a layer of potato salad. Chill and turn out on a bed of lettuce. Garnish with green onions and radishes. Serve extra salad dressing.

Mrs. C. D. says: I would like the recipe for the mustard raisin sauce served hot with ham.

Answer:

Tasty Raisin Sauce: ¼ cup brown sugar, ½ tbsp. dry mustard, 1 tbsp. flour, ¼ cup raisins, ¼ cup vinegar, 1¾ cups water.

Mix the dry ingredients. Add raisins, vinegar, and water, bring to boil and serve with hot ham.

Bankers Ass'n Pres. Asks Public Co-operation

Toronto, July 5—"Starting sometime this month the banks, through their branches all over Canada, are called upon to perform still another service to the public. They must and will be ready to negotiate the new government cheques issued under the Family Allowances legislation," said S. M. Wedd, President of the Canadian Bankers' Association, in a statement issued here.

"Official estimate is that 1,466,000 individual cheques will be issued by the government each month," he continued. "Most of these cheques will be presented at the branch banks for encashment or deposit.

"All government cheques are cashed by the banks without charge.

"The banks willingly accept this added opportunity for serving Canadians many of whom, perhaps, for the first time, will come into contact with the banks and with the useful services they perform.

"We shall welcome all of these people and aim to cash Family Allowance cheques with speed and efficiency. At the same time it is my duty to stress the need of the banks for co-operation on the part of all who receive these cheques.

"Recipients of Family Allowance cheques can help themselves and the banks by remembering four simple requirements:

1. The need for proper identification at the bank.
2. The need to make sure that cheque is correctly endorsed.
3. The need to guard against losing cheque after endorsing and before cashing it.
4. The importance of going to the bank in the morning hours if possible.

"First of all, of course, is identification—a bank must be sure that the person presenting the cheque is the right person; therefore, if the holder of a Family Allowance cheque is not known in the local bank, he or she should take into the bank when presenting it somebody who is known in the branch. This will help to obviate delay and misunderstanding.

"Next, is the endorsement on a cheque—it must be endorsed exactly as it is made out to the payee; after it is endorsed the payee should take no chances of losing it or having it stolen before it is cashed.

"Recipients can help very greatly also by using the banks during the easier hours of the day rather than during their busiest hours.

"No doubt many cheques will reach the banks through merchants who cash them for their own known customers. Merchants and storekeepers would be well advised to make sure of the identification of any person offering a cheque and to make sure also that the cheque is endorsed exactly as it is made out."

Enschedy, Holland—June 29: So chewing gum and a few other articles are scarce in Canada? Arthur Buckley, Force Director of Canadian Y.M.C.A. with the 21st Army Group explained the reason when he quoted figures showing the quantities of several items now en route between Toronto and Enschedy, distribution centre for all Canadian Army supplementary supplies in northwest Europe. Six thousands cases of chewing gum and one million five hundred thousand dozen bars of chocolate are in passage together with seventy-three million cigarettes and more than three million razor blades.

All these and many other delights for the troops are purchased and shipped by what is known as the Canadian overseas Y.M.C.A.'s "Bronco" service for distribution to the four Auxiliary Services. These in turn will make them available to Canadian forces personnel. Interviewed at his headquarters here, Mr. Buckley described the tremendous achievements of Bronco in buying and transporting the entire supplies of the Auxiliary Services for use of the Canadian Army in Europe following D-Day.

WPTB WEEKLY NEWS

Uncle Sam Can Get A Ration Card Too

Many Canadians are wondering just how their American cousins are going to get along when the peaceful summer invasion from the United States starts. . . will they be able to get ration cards?

To clear up such doubts the Wartime Prices and Trade Board points out that any person visiting Canada for five days or longer may obtain a Canadian ration card. Application forms for these may be completed in customs' offices at border-crossing points such as Fort Erie, Niagara Falls, Sarnia and Windsor.

Only one form is needed for a family having the same last name. American tourists eating in restaurants or hotels will not need a ration card.

If it is inconvenient to fill in the application form at the border-crossing point, any Local Ration Board can handle requests from American visitors for the ration cards.

Board Gives Hens Nod To Go On Laying

The Wartime Prices and Trade Board, recognizing that due to the long period of cool weather hens are still in good laying condition, has extended from June 30 to July 31 the time during which fowl (hens) may sell at the highest price level.

Poultrymen, it is hoped, will thus be encouraged to hold their hens longer and maintain maximum egg production. Under the previous order the price would have dropped on July 1 by 2½ cents per pound.

Motto for anyone with flocks of hens might well be, Keep Them Cackling!

After July 1 Only 25 New Farm Machinery Items Still Rationed

Following up its policy of taking machinery off the ration list as soon as supplies improve, the Wartime Prices and Trade Board has just announced that only 25 new farm machinery items will still be rationed after July 1.

These 25 items which will still require the approval of ration officers before they are purchased are: corn pickers; tractor plows; tractor-mounted plows; one-way disc; tiller or harrow plows; tandem tractor disc harrows; single wide disc harrows—12 feet or over; spring and stiff tooth field cultivators; tractor mounted cultivators; tractor mounted or semi-mounted mowers; side delivery racks; hay-loaders; pick-up hay balers; grain binders (horse and tractor drawn); corn binders; potato diggers; combine or reaper threshers; wind rowers or swathers; threshers; ensilage harvesters; standard and row crop tractors; garden tractors; rubber-tired gears or trailers; power potato sprayers or dusters; fruit or orchard power sprayers; pressure water systems and power pumps.

This is the third relaxation of this type since rationing began in October, 1942. Repair and spare parts have never been rationed.

A short time ago the WPTB announced increases in new machinery and attachment production for the next production year and equitable distribution through all provinces.

Newspapers Get More Newsprint

Canada has recently announced increase of her shipments of newsprint to the United States from 200,000 to 220,000 tons per month for the third quarter of the year. Hand-in-hand with this, Canadian newspapers will get a proportional increase. Third quarter allocations are at present being established by John Atkins, WPTB administrator of publishing and printing.

Here Are Producer and Wholesaler Cherry Prices

Effective June 26, all varieties of domestic and imported cherries are to sell under a single price ceiling. The ceiling will be the same as that set for Canadian sweet cherries in 1944. In Ontario the ceiling on producer sales to wholesalers or shippers is $1.30 for a six-quart basket.

The new order sets up a trucking zone in southwestern Ontario, extending east to Kingston and north to the Severn River. In this zone transportation costs will be the express rate from Grimsby, Ont., regardless of where the cherries are grown. Outside the trucking zone shippers' markup is set at 10 per cent. of grower price and wholesalers' markup at 12½ per cent. of actual cost.

The sour cherry crop, due to weather conditions, was almost a failure and no separate price has been drawn up for it therefore.

GENERALITIES:

How To Get Ration Coupons For Those Transient Hired Men

Since hired men usually have as healthy appetites as anyone else, it is important that farmers employing transient labour know how to get coupons for them. Here's the story, as briefly as we can put it:

Any farmer who employs extra help for less than two weeks may apply to his Local Ration Board for transient labour rations.

If applying by mail, the following information must be given—

Name and address and ration book number.

Full details of work to be done. For example—harvesting rye by combine, 60 acres; cutting and threshing wheat, 160 acres; summer fallowing, 40 acres.

Date on which work will commence and how long it will take.

Number of men to be employed and total number of meals likely to be served (coupons will not be provided for less than 12 meals).

The farmer must also state whether he produces his own butter, honey or maple syrup.

Spam, Sausage, Fish—Now Best British Meal

A recent report from London highlighted the present differences in what are considered good meals in Canada and Great Britain. The wife of an English captain on leave for a short time says that they try to have dinner at home three times a week. What do they eat? One night spam; the next night sausages; the third night a peculiar fish that no one would have thought of putting on a plate before the war. Compare that with our roast pork, roast beef and fresh salmon!

Conventions Called Off To Clear Track For Troops

The Canadian Women's Press Club, scheduled to convene in Quebec City June 28th, has called off its convention in recognition of the need to provide full facilities for troops returning from Europe. Likewise the Independent Grocers and Meat Dealers of Ontario convention at Niagara Falls has been postponed until September or October.

Donald Gordon, chairman of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board has commented on the action taken by saying: "Not only have they helped to clear the way for home-coming servicemen but they will help to ensure the veterans rail and hotel accommodation when they get their leave."

Do You Know

Orange coupons were exhausted June 21 when the first of the "P" coupons were started for preserves or canning sugar. . . in the manufacturing industries in Canada in March average man-hours worked per week were 43.5 . . . quota restrictions on the use of paperboard for the production and packaging of many articles were eased recently by WPTB . . . not long ago wheat crop prospects in the United States were estimated at 835 million bushels. . . hotels have already had cancellations from many conventions because of shortage of room space. . . clothing coupons in Australia must also cover household linens. . . F. K. Ashbaugh has been appointed deputy co-ordinator of capital equipment and durable goods in the WPTB. . . in the first four months of 1945 as compared to the same period in 1944 newsprint production showed a gain of 4.4 per cent.

LATE BULLETIN

Prices Imported Vegetables Carried To July 15

To encourage importation of United States vegetables during the present slack period, the Prices Board has carried over June ceiling prices through the first two weeks of July. The vegetables included are cabbage, beets, carrots, parsnips and turnips and the slightly higher price obtainable during the July weeks should provide possibilities for more of these commodities on the Canadian market.

EXCELSIORS WIN FIRST HOME GAME 17-2

Brampton's Classy Juvenile Squad Trims For.-St. Vincents 17-2

Superior Passing And Unselfish Team Play Of Excelsiors Leaves Toronto Hopefuls In Soup—13 Assists Granted For Brampton's 17 Goals—

In the first Juvenile League game at home of the 1945 season, Brampton defeated Toronto St. Vincents by the vast margin of 17-2. From the initial face off the Brampton boys played superior lacrosse and were never headed. Toronto, who were a big team and try heavy checkers, lacked the art passing, catching, and an all round team play which was a feature of the Brampton squad.

Thirteen assists were given out for the 17 goals for the Excelsiors, which shows that this team, which has many individual stars, put team play first and will be hard to beat for the Ontario Championship.

The score by periods was 4-0 for Brampton, end of first, 7-0 half time. In the third, Brampton added 3 while Toronto scored their first to make the score 10-1 at the end of the 3rd. In the fourth, Brampton added 7 and Toronto 1 to make the final score 17-2.

Powell and H. Madgett led the Brampton scorers each with 5 points, Howell with 5 goals and Madgett with 4 goals and one assist. These two were closely followed by Gett and Mate Evans, with four assists while the fourth member of this line Steele, picked up 1 goal and 2 assists. Firman with 1 goal completed the scoring for this line with 18 points. On the second line, Gallagher with 3 goals, Teasdale 3, Lyons 2 assists, Sutherland 1 goal, Gowland, Hennessey and Byrnes each with an assist, completed the scoring 12 points, for this line for a total of 30 points on the game.

For Toronto, Grossi and Dopp werer the scorers with assists on both goals going to Toronica. Penalties were almost evenely distributed by Referee Bruce McLure, 3 to Toronto and 2 to Brampton all minor.

Bill Russell making his first appearance as a Brampton Juvenile, played a stellar game in goal for the winners. Bill Bignell, the regular Custodian of last year was absent owing to illness in the family.

Tree Fruit Prospect

According to an official report, the total production of tree-fruits in Canada this season will be much below normal. Despite excellent prospects in British Columbia, the poor crops in eastern Canada (the result of adverse weather during the critical period) have brought anticipated supplies to an unusually low level. The first estimate of the apple crop indicates a reduction from the very large crop of 1944 of 52 per cent, or 8,183,000 bushels compared with 16,879,000 bushels in 1944. The pear crop, estimated at 557,000 bushels is expected to be the smallest since 1935, and it is anticipated that plum and prune and peaches will show a reduction of 24 per cent, owing to the small crops in eastern Canada. Cherries, despite a large crop in British Columbia, will also show a decline. Unlike tree fruits, the small fruit crops are all above the 1944 level.

Need Fresh Fruit For Best Preserves

Keeping qualities of canned fruits do not depend on the addition of sugar, but rather on proper processing and use of airtight containers, it is stated by Miss Edith Elliot of the Nutrition Division of the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

Miss Elliot recently made a tour of Ontario points, giving illustrated lectures on "Canning — Step By Step." The tour was sponsored by the Health League of Canada.

Among other things, Miss Elliot emphasized that—The fresher the fruit the better the canned product and the less the chance of failure; only proper sized rubber rings should be used; all sealers should be in perfect condition—no cracks or chips; chemicals or canning compounds should not be used, as they possibly could be harmful; tops should not be tightened after sealers are cold. Such tightening breaks the seals and causes much spoilage; in testing for leakage, never invert vacuum type sealers with metals lids. When cold, simply gently tap lids with a spoon. If properly sealed they will give a clear ringing note and be curved slightly inward.

These and other valuable hints can be found in a newly revised bulletin—"Wartime Home Canning of Fruits and Vegetables"—which may be obtained by writing to Miss Elliot, care of the Nutrition Division of the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

BELFOUNTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Widdis, of Cleveland, Ohio, spent their vacation at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Archie McArthur and Mr. McArthur. While in the village, Mr. Widdis rendered a vocal solo at the service at Belfountain Baptist Church, which was enjoyed immensely by the large number attending the service.

Friends of Mr. A. D. McBride are pleased to hear he is resting comfortably at his home after being a patient at Toronto General Hospital for several days. Although Mr. McBride is making rapid progress toward recovery, it will be a considerable time before he will be able to resume his duties on his farm.

Passed Examinations

The following students who are attending Erin High School passed their examinations with high standing: Doris Bruce, Margaret Scott, Mary Laughlin, Patsy Wilson. All young ladies reside in Belfountain, and are receiving heartiest congratulations from their many friends.

Successful Picnic

The annual picnic of Belfountain Baptist Church Sunday School, was held at Stanley Park, Erin, Tuesday, July 3rd, and was a success in every respect. On arrival at the picnic grounds a programme of races, games, swimming and other amusements was carried out. At 5 o'clock a sumptuous supper was served by the officials of the Sunday School, assisted by the ladies of the congregation.

Church Notes

The members of the congregation of Belfountain Baptist Church are pleased to note that Rev. Robert Segsworth of Cheltenham, has kindly consented to teach the Adult Bible Class at their Sunday School. Owing to the pulpit being occupied by students from McMaster University, Hamilton, from time to time, it has been a difficult matter to have a permanent teacher, and the services of Mr. Segsworth will be appreciated to the utmost. On Sunday next Rev. P. Augustine, of Ormond, will occupy the pulpit at the church and will preach for a call on the Belfountain, Cheltenham and Snelgrove circuit.

DDT Must Be Used With Care

DDT, the wonder insectic which has payed such an importa role in the control of insect-bor diseases among the Allied armi has recently been featured in t news. An illustrated article in Toronto paper portrayed its civili uses and among the photograp was a picture of an attracti young woman in shorts spraying about her summer cottage. T article mentioned also went on say that DDT would prove a gre boon to fisherman and others e ployed in the great outdoors in t black-fly and mosquito season they had merely to apply it to th clothing and insect pests avoid them as a plague.

This type of misinformation dangerous, unless considera modification has been made in t product from its state when us by the forces.

The insecticide was introduc early in 1944 in Italy as a malar control measure. But soldier mala iologists did not go about th business attired in sunsuits their masculine equivalent—th were garbed somewhat after t fashion of eskimos in a hea blizzard, with coveralls, glov hoods to protect the head a respirators! No man was allow to work with the liquid for mo than two hours a day. For DI reacts upon man as well as up his winged tormentors. Applied the skin, it results in a nasty ras Inhaled it is a poison with perma ent effects.

It destroys insect life in eith of two ways, first, exterior conta or second, as a stomach poison. is not applied in the fashion of atmospheric mist such as one us a conventional fly-spray, but directed upon a surface in a nea liquid form in much the same ma ner as a spray painter will paint wall. Hence its chief method killing is upon contact. The pers who soaks his clothing with it w do so with unpleasant results.

DDT will prove to be a gre boon to vacationists and farme but it must not be handled in t free-handed manner which o would believe from the recent pu licity it has been given. Perhaps commercial version will not be toxic in action as that used by t military, but it must always remembered that it is not an o dinary insect spray. Rationing helps the FARMER

HERE'S HOW!

- Rationing assures everyone a fair share of scarce foods. Without rationing farmers might get all the butter they need, they might not get sugar. City dwellers might get sugar but no butter.
- Rationing helps to keep prices steady.
- Rationing has assured farmers sufficient ammunition to protect their crops and livestock.
- Rationing makes it possible for farmers to get coupons to feed harvesters and other transient farm workers.

The FARMER helps Rationing

HERE'S HOW!

- By collecting and turning in the coupons acquired against the use and sale of butter and the sale of honey and rationed maple products.
- By writing to the Local Ration Boards for application forms RB 77 as SOON as they know definitely that transient labour rations will be needed to feed extra help hired for periods of less than two weeks.

Rationing is not intended to add unnecessarily to the burden of Canadian farmers who, faced with shortages of labour, materials and machinery, have continued to respond to repeated calls for greater production.

It is a protection against waste ..... shortages ..... inflation.

Spend $10,000 For Temporary Lakeview School

New Ogden Avenue School To House 85—Grades I To IV Pupils

LAKEVIEW.—As the result of a special meeting of ratepayers of S.S. No. 7, Lakeview, held on Monday night at Lakeview Beach school, a two-room temporary school is to be erected in Lakeview at an approximate cost of $10,000.

This school, which is to be erected on the Ogden Ave. site, already owned by the school board, will accommodate approximately 85 children who live in the area above the railroad tracks and will attend grades one to four.

On advice of the school board, architect, and E. Underhill, public school inspector for Peel County, a motion to proceed with the erection of a permanent four-room school was voted down when estimates, received since the March meeting, showed that building costs had more than doubled over a one-year period.

Harry Leslie, chairman of the board, reported that lowest tenders received quoted $59,411 for the erection of the school, without plumbing, heating, wiring, fixtures and cement, which would total over $72,000, without grading, drainage or furnishings, which might well bring the total to over $80,000. This cost was compared by Mr. Underhill with a similar school, erected in North York in 1944 at a cost of $38,000.

"The board is not in favor of throwing away the ratepayers' money and recommend as a temporary expedient the erection of a two-roomed portable until such times as construction and labor become more stabilized," Mr. Leslie said. He and Mr. McCraw recommended that suitable facilities, such as plumbing and heating be obtained with a view to using them later in the new school, which will be built just as soon as conditions permit.

The official motion made by Mrs. Breadner and seconded by Mr. Atkinson was as follows: "That the trustees be authorized to explore every means of providing accommodation in the form of a temporary two-room school on the Ogden avenue site at an approximate expenditure of $10,000, and further that the matter of proceeding with permanent accommodation be proceeded with as soon as possible."

Telling of his experiences in connection with erection of new schools in wartime, Mr. Underhill said that since 1942 building costs have rocketed sky-high and that this is definitely not the time to build, if any other alternative can be offered. He spoke of the difficulties in obtaining materials, even with priorities, with one school taking two years to be built and even then many inferior substitutes had to be used. This increased cost would result in having to issue debentures as the Department of Education would only allow $11,000 per classroom, Mr. Underhill reported.

The temporary school, members of the board explained, would be financed on borrowed money, payable over a two or three-year term, from the tax rate.

In response to a query regarding the standards of education in Lakeview schools, Mr. Underhill, who should be in a position to know, said that they compared most favorably with other parts of the county and province. He said that children in Lakeview schools had not suffered through overcrowding and that as soon as the new portable is available, classes in manual training and domestic science will again be available. Thomas Barrett was chairman of the meeting which had only a fair attendance.

Mrs. Hamilton Dies In 83rd Year At Lorne Park

Leader In Suffragist Movement Decorated For G R Serbian Relief

First woman to be elected alderman in Toronto, Mrs. Constance Eaton Hamilton died last Wednesday after an illness of seven weeks. She was in her 83rd year. An active social service worker, Mrs. Hamilton was a leading figure in the Women's Suffragist movement in Canada and was, in her earlier years, president of the Toronto Dominion Equal Franchise League.

In 1888, a year after her arrival in Canada, from England, Mrs. Hamilton did valuable work among new Canadians. She was later past chirman of the Toronto branch of the National Refugee Committee and worked ardently to bring about a closer understanding among all people regardless of race. In 1920 she received the Order of St. Saba, 3rd class, and also the Cross of Mercy from the Serbian Government. This honor was in acknowledgement of her work in Canada for Serbian relief.

Born in Middlesboro, Yorkshire, England, she was the daughter of Dr. George Fowler and Caroline Mary Eaton Bodington. On first coming to Canada the family made their home in Vancouver where she met and married the late L. A. Hamilton of Lorne Park, making their home in Lorne Park, where the family has been greatly loved and respected. After engaging in social work among the foreign-born in Winnipeg, Mrs. Hamilton came to Toronto in 1901 and represented Ward 3 in City Council for two years, after which she retired from municipal politics.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. W. B. Irvine, Vancouver, and Mrs. R. W. Meikellon, St. Augustine, Fla., and two brothers, Maurice Bodington, Toronto, and Dr. Arthur Bodington, England. Another brother, Oliver E. Bodington, interned by the Germans in France, where he was living died of malnutrition.

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Hamilton last week in Toronto where interment was made.

FO John Parsons on 30 Days Leave Says V-2 Bombs Could Have Won War

Bombed Kiel Few Days Before V-E Day—Lauds Fortitude Of British People And Their Hospitality Toward The Canadian Airmen

PORT CREDIT.—F/O John Parsons, 23, RCAF, son of W. F. B. and Mrs. Parsons, M.B.E., well known residents of Port Credit, was one of over 9,000 airmen who arrived in Canada last Friday after an uneventful though exciting trip on the Ile de France, on leave before reporting for Pacific duty.

John, who arrived in Toronto on Monday, looking fit as a fiddle received a royal welcome from his parents, seven brothers and sisters, as well as many other proud and happy relations and friends. He has nothing but praise for the manner in which the homecoming was handled, from the time the large contingent of over 9,000 men sailed until they were greeted in the Exhibition coliseum by their families and friends. The food was good and although space on shipboard was at a premium, better arrangements could not have been made for the men's comfort, according to John.

He is equally enthusiastic in his admiration and praise of the British people, from the ordinary man to the Royal Family, all having stood up so well under the terrific ordeal of nearly six years of war. Present at the running of the English derby, where the Royal Family were due to attend, John was looking forward to ceremony, pomp and fanfare befitting royalty, but was greatly surprised to learn that the King, Queen and Princess Elizabeth had entered in a quiet, unpretentious manner and were moving quietly through the crowd to greet their friends.

"England is really a marvellous place. I always pictured the country being very flat but it is quite hilly with quaint little villages set down in the valleys. Every house has its hedge, the roads are all lined with hedges and they really set off the countryside," he reports. "The roads are clean as a whistle with never a spot of rubbish in sight."

The British people also have a marvellous home hospitality set-up, which means that hundreds of homes will take any airmen for any leaves they may obtain. This touch of home away from home, is marvellous for the morale of the men and results in many lasting friendships.

Participating in the bombing of Kiel a few days before V-E Day, John, as pilot, took many crews on "victory flights" after V-E day, to see the amount of damage their missions had accomplished. Flying at low level, to take in the sights, he said the planes were greeted in France by cheers and waves, but in Germany, even after the war was over, they received showers of stones, even from the smallest children. Notable among the damage at Germany was the Krupps munition plant at Essen, which, according to John, was nothing but a bent and rusted heap of steel scrap. He gives the Germans credit for something really devastating in the V-2 bombs, which might have meant a different story to the length of the war if used sooner.

Educated at St. Michael's College, Toronto, John was employed at Victory Aircraft, Malton, before enlisting with the RCAF in September, 1943. He trained at Pendleton, received his wings at Centralia, and his pilot officer's commission shortly after arriving overseas early in April, 1944, being promoted to Flying Officer soon after.

Of his many relatives serving in the armed forces, two have been missing with the RCAF for over a year. They are P/O William Pocock, RCAF, and Sgt. Douglas Pocock, RCAF.

Weed Control

An eight-year mixed farming rotation over a period of years on the Dominion Illustrated Station farms in northern and eastern Manitoba has reduced wild oats, sowthistle, mustards, stinkweed, and other annual weeds to a point where they are no longer a menace. The sequence of crops in this rotation is—summer fallow, grain, grain, hay pasture, sod fallow, grain, grain. Pasturing for one year in eight is proving one of the most effectual practices for weed control.

Children able to creep or walk need constant supervision if drowning accidents are to be kept down. Prevention is better than regret. Supervision and the buddy or pal system help prevent fatalities. Learn to swim. Be a life-saver.

ISN'T IT THE TRUTH? By Ti-Jos No: 79

We can't expect everything we buy to be comparable with peacetime merchandise. Not only have manufacturers had trouble getting help, their supplies have been cut to the bone. If we try to understand the difficulties, we'll be less likely to find fault.

THE MIXING BOWL

Hello, Homemakers! No matter how busy we have been recently, the picnic day finds everybody full of vim, vigour, and appetite. It's usually the homemaker who has to satisfy the hunger pertaining to this pleasure—lots of good food. Of course, we begin a couple of days ahead to purchase supplies—meat, bread, butter, salad ingredients, and sandwich fillings, so that the day in question finds us well prepared.

If the meat has to be cooked, do so the previous day. To make butter go further, cream the pound of butter thoroughly and beat in a cup of top milk, and salt, then chill. Salad dressing should be tasty and fairly thick for this meal. Drop cookies or a large cake makes a good dessert along with some fruit. You can also include an iced beverage depending on your family's taste.

A simple repast: Meat loaf or jellied veal or just plain bologna with a dish of savoury, potato salad, thick jellied tomatoes, lettuce, and some of mother's tangy pickle relish, followed by generous sized fruit turnovers of rhubarb, apple, berries, or some filling off the jam shelf will satisfy the most demanding appetite.

Appetizing sandwich fillings: Whatever you do don't be sparing with the fillings, and don't make them too moist. Some appetizing fillings include:

(1) Minced beef with a little onion juice and salad dressing.

2) Minced cooked liver with mustard dressing.

(3) Chopped hard-cooked eggs, green pepper, and salad dressing.

(4) Chopped hard-cooked eggs with celery or grated carrot.

(5) Cheese with chives, nuts, peanut butter, minced vegetables, marmalade, honey or jam.

(6) Mashed baked beans with chili sauce.

(7) Crumbled leftover meat loaf with creamed horse-radish.

(8) Leftover cooked fish with chopped celery, sweet pickle, moistened with mayonnaise.

TAKE A TIP

1. Leather goods need every care—they're scarce and those we have require regular attention. If they're damp, stuff with paper and leave to dry. Brush thoroughly. Use a cleaner to prevent dryness or cracking.

2. The printed linoleum on our kitchen floor was in good condition except for a worn spot in front of the sink. We cut out a semi-circular piece of the worn printed linoleum and cemented in a piece of harmonizing solid colour instead of trying to match the pattern.

3. If your pottery vases and bowls don't fit into your colour scheme, paint them with cold water paint. Once the paint is thoroughly set, you'll find the water will not affect the finish if the water is changed every day.

4. To make a sturdy, effective shade for small plants and seedlings, cut the bottom off quart milk cartons and fit the cartons over the plants, pressing the edges well down into the earth.

THE QUESTION BOX

Mrs. J. M. asks: How to prevent strawberries from floating to the top of the jar?

Answer: This is one fruit which should be prepared for canning, then brought to a boil, cooled for an hour, then bottled and processed for the required length of time, according to the method used. (Electric oven at 275° for 15 mins.)

Mrs. M. T. asks: Recipe for inexpensive salad dressing for raw vegetables.

Salad Dressing: Into the top of a double boiler put 4 lightly beaten eggs, ¾ cup granulated sugar blended with 2 tbsps. flour, 4 tsps. mustard, and ½ tsp. salt. Blend well and stir in 1 cupful of mild vinegar. Cook over hot water until thick. Cool and store in glass jar in electric refrigerator.

When using the dressing, thin it with cream, plain or whipped. For a caggage salad, we often use sour cream when it's on hand. Cut down the amount of mustard if you prefer less tang. Try adding a pinch of curry when using it for devilled eggs or a meat salad.

Overseas for three years with the Medical Corps, Pte. Peter McGibbon returned to his home at Milton Wednesday morning of last week. While serving in Italy he was seriously burned at Christmas time, 1944, and as a result of his injuries was in hospital for a considerable time. He is now taking treatment at Chorley Park, Toronto. Pte. McGibbon has a sister, Mrs. Margaret Cardinell, of Main Street North, Brampton, and a brother, Jack McGibbon, of Oakville.

Sgt. H. O. Brown, overseas since in August, 1943, has returned to Canada and is visiting at the present time at the home of Mrs. George Catterick, Wellington St., Brampton. He enlisted at Orillia with the Gray and Simcoe Foresters, and was one of the first men to arrive at 24 Basic Training Centre Brampton. He served for eighteen months in England and three months in France and Belgium. Sgt. Brown received bullet wounds in the chest while at Merxem, near Holland, and as a result of his injuries was in hospital for four months. He is leaving this week to visit with his relatives at Quebec, and when his leave expires he will enter training for the Pacific Campaign.

After being overseas for four years, Corp. Bert K. Ostrander is now spending a leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ostrander, Toronto, formerly of Huttonville. He enlisted in Toronto with the Governor Generals Horse Guards. In December, 1944, while in Italy, Corp. Ostrander received shrapnel wounds to his leg, and after bringing him back to England it was found necessary to break his leg in order to remove the sharpnel splinters. He was in the hospital from January to June, 1945.

Corp. Ostrander was married in April, 1945, to LACW Irene Jones, who is expected to arrive in Canada to join her husband in the very near future. Before his enlistment, Corp. Ostrander was employed for a time with the Charters Publishing Company. He is a brother of Mrs. C. C. Sutton, West Street.

Gnr. Bertram Lundy, who has been overseas for fifteen months and received shoulder and pelvis injuries while in Holland, returned to his home, John Street, and will spend a thirty-day leave with his wife and daughter Carol. Owing to the injuries received Gnr. Lundy was a patient in hospital for eight weeks and when dismissed left immediately for Canada. He enlisted with the Canadian Artillery October 18th, 1943, received training at Petawawa and Woodstock and landed in England on May 9th, 1944. At the expiration of his leave, Gnr. Lundy will report at headquarters in Toronto.

Alton Sash Plant Total Loss After Fire Last Week

The local fire alarm summoned the residents of Alton to the street about 6.30 p.m. last Thursday evening, July 19th, when fire broke out in the three-storey plant of the Alton Sash and Door Co. at the east end of the village. Passing traffic a few minutes before the fire broke out had seen no sign of fire, until Mrs. Ed. Hilliard, living across the street, first noticed flames in the lower storey and ran out to give the alarm. Milford Lovell, coming home in his car, brought the news up town to sound the fire bell. The whole village turned out immediately but the fire had spread so rapidly the building could not even be approached. Flames and heat were terrific and the building was completely destroyed with a large quantity of machinery, new lumber and stock of paints, glass, fittings and other valuable building materials. Orangeville fire brigade made a record run, arriving 10 minutes after a call for assistance was placed. Water was pumped from the Credit river, beside the plant, through three lines of hose, but was of no avail. The flames spread rapidly to a large lumber pile stacked outside the factory and gave the firemen a lot of trouble before they had it extinguished. The home of Harold Crisp, across the street, also caught fire, but the blaze there was quickly extinguished. Embers, carried by the breeze, lighted grass fires as far as half a mile away from the burning factory, threatening many private dwellings and summer cottages. The fire loss is estimated at $5,000, partly covered by insurance.

British Firm Buys V.A.L. Malton Plant Get Bomber Contract

To Form Canadian Firm To Carry On Manufacture Of Huge New Bombers—Malton Plant Produced 400 Lancasters Last Year—Build Post-war Planes

Of utmost importance to the Town of Brampton is news that the huge plant of Victory Aircraft at Malton has been turned over to English aeroplane interests, headed by the Hawker-Siddeley Aircraft Company of London, England. The announcement from Ottawa claims that the sale is "conditional", and fails to mention what the conditions are, nor is any hint of the sale price disclosed.

To Form Canadian Company

The sale was the result of a visit to Canada by Sir Roy H. Dobson, a director of the Hawker-Siddeley Co., and also managing director of A. C. Roe and Co. Ltd.

A Canadian company is being formed to operate the Malton plant, and no interruption in its operations is anticipated.

One of the conditions of the purchase is the establishment in Canada of a design, research and development organization to promote the basic design and manufacture in Canada of all kinds of commercial and military aircraft, turbines for aircraft and other purposes, and various auxiliary equipment in which the company specializes.

Chairman of the Hawker-Siddeley Company is T. O. M. Sopwith, pioneer and early designer and producer of many well-known air planes since before World War 1. The corporation owns a large group of substantial operating companies in England, including A. V. Roe and Co., Ltd., Manchester; Hawker Aircraft Ltd., Kingston, Surrey; Sir W. G. Armstrong Whitworth Aircraft Co. Ltd., Gloster Aircraft Co., Cheltenham; Armstrong Siddeley Motors Ltd., Coventry; Air Service Training Ltd., Southampton; and A. W. Hawkesley Ltd., Gloucester, England.

The Malton plant of Victory Aircraft Co., was established in 1938 by the National Steel Car Corp. when that company was given a contract to manufacture Lysander army co-operation planes for the department of national defence. The original plant occupied a floor area of 60,000 square feet, but in subsequent years, as the company's manufacturing capacity increased, this original floor area has expanded until now the plant occupies a total of approximately 1,200,000 square feet.

Contract For 100 Lincoln Bombers

November, 1943, the plant was turned over to the government and the crown company, Victory Aircraft Ltd., was formed to operate it.

Under the management of the National Steel Car Corp., the plant produced 225 Lysanders, 80 Hampden bomber wing sections; assembled 119 Yales, 26 Harvards, and 17 British type Ansons; produced 736 Canadian Ansons and 10 Anson fuselages, and was just started on the Lancaster production when it was taken over by the government. Since then to the end of June, 1945 the company has devoted its manufacturing facilities exclusively to the production of Lancasters, and has turned out a total of 398. At present the company is re-tooling for the production of the new Lincoln bomber, an enlarged and modified version of the Lancaster.

At the height of its Lancaster production program, the company employed nearly 10,000 persons. Manufacture of Lancasters will continue along with production of Lincolns.

Select Service Case Lacks Proof Trio Dismissed

On a charge of terminating their positions without the approval of the Selective Service Office, Silvio Gagnon, Lucien Gagnon and Maurice Bernier, faced Magistrate K. N. Langdon in Brampton Police Court Monday morning. They pleaded not guilty to the charge. Charles Bowyer, K.C., of Brampton, acted for the Crown for the Selective Service; B. Luxenburg, of Toronto, acted as counsel for the accused, while A. E. Booth, Enforcement Officer for the National Service Office, Toronto, gave evidence in the case.

As there was no documentary evidence to support the claim that the Duplex Knitting Mills at St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, where the men were employed, was a designated establishment, the charge was dismissed against all three men.

Police Court

E. M. Peeling was convicted of careless driving and paid a fine of $10 and costs. While driving on the wrong side of the 6th line east of Brampton he collided with a car driven and owned by Ben Graham, of the Malton Dairy, causing damage to the Graham car to the extent of $300. The accident was investigated by Provincial Constable William McClelland.

James Burton pleaded guilty to a charge of assaulting Morley Burrows and was allowed to go on suspended sentence.

Whey, formerly used only as swine-fodder, is now being employed in Canada as a source of milk sugar for the manufacture of penicillin.

Five of the 10 wooden minesweepers being supplied to Russia by Canada have already been launched, while the other five are on the ways.

'Dutch' Young Saves Life of Weak Swimmer At Innis Lake Sunday

Alan Neilson, Farm Hand, Down For Third Time Before Brampton Rescuer Arrived—Eye Witnesses Say Float Ropes and Life Guards Should Be Posted

A drowning tragedy was narrowly averted last Sunday at Innis Lake when Winston 'Dutch' Young, 27, of Main Street North, Brampton swam out to rescue Alan Neilson, who had gone down for the third time.

Neilson had been rowing around the lake in a small punt for some time, until he decided the weather was too hot for rowing, and suddenly diving over the side he started to swim. Not a strong swimmer, he was soon in difficulty and calling for help.

Although Innis Lake is widely patronized on weekends and evenings, and hundreds swim in the lake, no provisions have been made for posting life guards or marking out safety areas by the use of floats on rope, to safeguard the lives of non-swimming bathers, or weak swimmers.

Young Neilson owes his life to the strong-swimming ability of 'Dutch' Young, who, when he heard the young lad call for help swam strongly to his aid. The drowning lad had disappeared for the third time when his rescuer arrived on the scene. The rescue was made with great difficulty, and it was only after several attempts to grasp the lad that Young was able to grasp him by the hair and haul him into the boat.

Winston 'Dutch' Young is well known in Brampton, and farms a small acreage on the 4th. line, Caledon Township, while the rescued lad, Alan Neilson, is employed on the farm of Ray Wilson, 2nd. Line, Albion Township.

This latest near-drowning recalls other tragedies at Innis Lake, sometimes referred to as 'bottomless'. The lake has been sounded over 200 feet deep in some parts without reaching bottom. Both swimmers and non-swimmers have been warned that the lake is dangerous for bathing. It is felt that immediate action should be taken to limit the bathing until reasonable precautions are taken by the owner of the surrounding grounds to protect the lives of those visiting the lake.

BRAMPTON PROVOST GETS AROUND

Norval General Store Gutted In Fierce Noon Hour Blaze Wednesday

Brampton, Georgetown Firemen Respond To Urgent Call From Norval—Loss Is Heavy In Black's General Store—Firemen Save Nearby Buildings

The worst fire in the history of Norval was experienced at noon Wednesday, when the general store owned and occupied by Mrs. J. Black, and twenty living rooms occupied by tenants, was completely destroyed by fire. Only the combined efforts of the Brampton and Georgetown Fire Brigades saved many nearby buildings which were in grave danger at all times. A call was placed with the Brampton Fire Brigade at noon and in less than seven minutes the entire Brampton force was fighting the flames.

The fire originated from wax exploding when it was being melted for preserving fruit, and before notice could be sent out the entire building was in a mass of flames. On the arrival of the Brampton Firemen it was necessary to place 1,250 feet of hose from the river to the burning building. In the meantime, owing to the intense heat, several feet of hose lying on the roadway a distance from the burning building, was badly scorched.

It will be remembered by the older residents of Norval that on the same site of the fire Wednesday, Mrs. Black's sister, eight years of age, met her death in a fire seventy years ago.

During the course of the fire several rounds of ammunition exploded in the building, which necessitated the firemen retreating for several yards to escape danger. In the meantime a call was placed with the Georgetown Fire Brigade who were on the job in a very few minutes, and were of great assistance in saving nearby buildings.

Watson's Barber Shop located twenty feet south of the burning building, was saved, after all the contents were carried out. The barber shop building was owned by Mrs. J. Greenwood. On the north side the residence occupied by Mrs. Watson was slightly damaged, while the service station north of the Watson home was saved after untiring work by both fire brigades. Owing to the prompt action of neighbors and friends, a quantity of merchandise, including furniture, was carried from the Black building and deposited in a place supposed to be safe, but owing to the extreme heat caught fire and was seriously damaged.

Oliver Burton, Herb. Jordon, Jerry Kendall and Norman Poyntz, all of the Brampton Fire Brigade, suffered burns to their faces, while the Fire Chief, George C. Maitland, suffered injuries to his hip when he was struck with a large hose.

The amount of damage done to the Black building cannot be ascertained as yet, as the store was fully equipped with merchandise.

Woodbridge Police Foil Ex-soldier's Burglary Attempt

Constable Sam Ireland of Klienburg and Beard Bryant of Woodbridge, captured Eugene Riendeau, 26, of Windsor, who police say, broke into the Royal Bank at Woodbridge early Wednesday morning. Riendeau is alleged to have broken into the Bank by forcing a side cellar window. It is believed that a second man, who made good his escape, was with him at the time. Leaving the Bank, Riendeau went out into the street and flagged a car which happened to be driven by Constable Ireland, but when he saw the Constable's uniform, he fled with Ireland after him. Bryant took up the chase, and apprehended him in a backyard. A thorough search of the Bank revealed that a revolver from the Bank Manager's Office was stolen but the vault was untouched.

Riendeau, who was discharged from the Canadian Army last December, told Police he was alone and hitch-hiking from Windsor. He is being held in County Police Court Cells in Toronto.

Coupon Plan for Meat Rationing Allows Up to 3 Pounds Weekly May Start Before Sept. 1st

New Tokens Will Be Issued By Retailers To Save Coupon Values On Small Purchases—Ottawa Announces Further Reduction Possible

Donald Gordon, Chairman of Wartime Prices and Trade Board, announced in Ottawa this week that the new meat rationing plan was planned to take effect by September 1st, or even earlier if it were possible, to complete the necessary arrangements in less time.

As previously announced, the consumer rationing will allow two pounds of meat, or one and a third pound boneless, per person each week. A coupon chart has been prepared in temporary form, and subject to change, which indicates that the consumer may purchase on a coupon, from one to three pounds of meat depending on the kind selected. A further advantage is seen in the new coloured ration discs or tokens now being prepared for distribution, which will permit the purchase of smaller amounts of perishable meats without any loss of coupon value.

The new rationing chart is shown complete on page four of this issue for the benefit of Conservator subscribers, and should be clipped and retained for future reference. This chart shows the amount of meat that may be purchased, the types and cuts, and the token value of your coupons.

The Prices Board is quite candid in their statement that consumer rationing may face further drastic cuts in the present plan, if the European situation remains as critical as at present indicated. In the British Isles, rationing has been cut to a level as low, or lower in many commodities, than the years from 1939 to 1945. In Europe, with the apparent exception of Denmark, starvation is rampant, with with millions of displaced persons eating the most frugal of rations, and the overworked supply organizations doing their utmost to obtain orderly distribution out of chaos. If meat cannot be supplied regularly to people undernourished throughout the war years, it is predicted that the death toll from resultant diseases will be terrific.

The government is gradually organizing a huge department of investigators to rigidly enforce the rationing plan, and to lend further control to slaughtering of animals. It is hoped that this force will be able to successfully cope with undercover black market activities. All slaughtered meat is to be stamped when passed through a regular licensed slaughtering agency.

Offences under the new ration plan will come under the War Measures Act, and fines up to $5,000 may be imposed against offenders. Prison sentences up to two years may be added, or separately imposed. The Prices Board is in favour of pressing for maximum penalties against offenders.

It has been estimated in Ottawa that meatless Tuesdays and Fridays in Canadian restaurants and hotels will create a weekly saving of one million pounds of meat.

May Lack Best Cuts

"We'll expect that most people handing in meat ration coupons will be able to get the meat they want," Mr. Gordon said.

"They will not be able to get bacon always and porterhouse steak and other meats sometimes may be in short supply. But generally we expect the meat to be available."

Under the slaughter control, a farmer killing for his own or his neighbor's use will turn in half his ration coupons to the Board, keeping the remainder in case he wishes to purchase meat not produced by himself. If it were found that a farmer was slaughtering without turning in half his coupons then the Board would have a case against him for breaking the regulations.

Only 50 per cent. of his coupons would be taken from a person having meat in store in a locker. Quantities held in private lockers usually were small. A locker would be regarded as a household unit, and if the meat held in it were for the use of all the family, then 50 per cent. of all coupons in the family would have to be surrendered.

Brown "M" coupons in existing Canadian ration books will be used for reimposed meat rationing, each coupon having a value ranging from one to three pounds of meat a week depending on the type.

Three Changes

The new meat ration plan will be "basically the same" as during the previous rationing period, with these changes:

1. Meat tokens are being introduced on the basis of eight tokens for one coupon. This permits the purchaser to split his coupon and buy less meat at one time than the entire coupon value.

2. Fancy and canned meats are included in the new ration.

3. Changes have been made in

This Story Smells!

John Burrows the renowned writer of Natural History Stories for children, would have had a field day had he been sitting on a verandah on Wellington Street East, Brampton, any day last week. The subject of a book written from his observations might have been "Skunks", for a Mother Skunk and four baby skunks were in perambulation up and down the street at all hours of the day and night. On one occasion the mother and her family were doing their best to cross the street, the on coming traffic separated two of the youngsters from the rest of the family. The two lost skunks took refuge under a verandah. The residents become alarmed and expected grave results so one of them secured a rifle and, being somewhat of a marksman, had no difficulty in writing finis to the skunks.

A cleric living next door to where the massacre had taken place, was glued to his radio listening to a detailed report of the Halifax explosion. The commentator was giving a graphic description of what was happening and, as if syncronized with the shooting of the skunks, he announced another explosion. The crack of the rifle made the scene so realistic that the reverend gentleman almost fell off his chair. He ran to the door to see if anyone else on Wellington Street had heard the report that shook Halifax. The truth of the story was told to him. The only comment was "that kind of a story smells!"

Peel County Girls' Camp Hampered By Wet Weather

The Peel County Girl's Camp was held in the Humber Valley, near Bolton, on the new Camp site purchased a short time ago from Mr. Dill Stuart of Bolton. This site will be most desirable when some necessary improvements have been made. In spite of the heavy rains, which caused much inconvenience to the Campers, a very fine spirit prevailed until Sunday evening, when the parents arrived to take the girls home. On Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. M. Boyd, and the members of Castlederg church cancelled their service and transported all the campers to the church in cars loaned by the members and Mr. Lavelle of Toronto. Supper was served following a Sunday School service.

The leaders were much disappointed that several interesting events had to be cancelled, owing to the inclement weather. The open air service planned for Sunday morning was conducted by Mrs. Neelands, Mrs. Scott and Miss Frances Luittit in the marquee.

The Camp staff and leaders were as follows—Director, Mrs. A. G. Neelands, Mono Road; Nurse, Miss Marguerite Mitchell, Bolton; Swimming, Miss Claudia Coulter, Port Perry, Miss Elizabeth Brown, Meaford; Cooking—Mrs. R. McLeod and Miss Margaret Thompson, Bolton; Bible Study—Miss Evelyn Stewart and Miss Frances Luittit, Belwood; Miss Dorothy Graham, Brampton, Mrs. R. J. Scott, Toronto, Miss Elizabeth Sawers, Watford, and Miss Natalie Harrison, Port Credit.

Interest Groups — Handcraft, Mrs. Neelands, Mrs. Scott, Miss Stuart, Miss Graham; Dramatics—Miss Elizabeth Sawers; Tips for Teens—Miss Natalie Harrison.

The campers came from Alliston, Bolton, Brampton, Mono Mills, Clarkson, Port Credit, Nortonville, Huttonville, Erin, Walter's Falls, Orangeville, Mono Road, Malton, Meaford, Port Perry and Inglewood.

Local Firemen Show Public New Escape Equipment

The first demonstration of the Hardy Fire Escape was put on Monday night by the Brampton Firemen in the top rooms of the building adjoining the Victoria Hotel, and was a decided success according to Fire Chief George C. Maitland. Several of the local firemen travelled down the escape to the ground with perfect ease.

The bridge then went to the Morrison Apartment building, corner of Nelson and Elizabeth Streets, and after raising a 35' ladder, tried out the new Chicago Hose and straps. Later the members of the fire staff went up in the Morrison building and came down the escape in less than five minutes.

Major Stockdale Awarded D.S.O. Heroic Action In Italian Campaign

Inspired Men To Repel Enemy Attacks Until Finally Overcome By Numbers—Enabled Allied Troops To Establish Bridgehead That Blocked Enemy Attacks

OTTAWA—Major William Oscar Stockdale, 37, of Brampton and Toronto, recently liberated from a German prisoner-of-war camp, has been awarded the Distinguished Service Order, it was announced by National Defence Headquarters recently.

Maj. W.O. Stockdale

Maj. Stockdale was commanding a company of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment at the time of his capture.

He won his decoration for gallantry following the crossing of the Naviglio Canal, Italy, in December, 1944. In this action, after his company crossed the canal they were surrounded by the enemy, but refusing to surrender, held out for three hours before being captured.

When last seen, Major Stockdale was burning his maps and code book, and was listed as missing until the following April when he was confirmed prisonerof-war.

Major Stockdale is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stockdale, 31 Ellen Street, Brampton. The citation reads:

"Major Stockdale landed on D-Day in Sicily with the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment. From then until December 13, 1944, he served with distinction in every action the battalion fought. He was promoted to the command of "B" company at the end of 1943, and commanded it with gallantry and distinction from the moment he took it over. The standard he set, both in and out of action, was a tremendous inspiration to the whole regiment. One instance which perhaps best illustrates this officer's outstanding qualities was the crossing of the Canale Naviglio. "B" Company was given the left forward objective of the battalion plan. Crossing the canal at 4 a.m. on December 13, 1944, Major Stockdale led his company on to the objective through enemy machine gun and mortar fire, successfully consolidating the position at approximately 5 a.m. At about 7.30 a.m. the enemy counter-attacked in force with tanks and infantry and although completely lacking anti-tank guns "B" Company, inspired by the calm determination and outstanding leadership of Major Stockdale repelled two such attacks. The enemy then called on Major Stockdale to surrender. Vastly outnumbered and unsupported the outcome for the company was practically certain, but Major Stockdale in the finest tradition of the service, unconditionally rejected the demand. The enemy then counter-attacked again in great strength. This officer seemed to be everywhere at once, urging his men. Inspired by his great leadership this depleted body of men held off the enemy for yet another hour before finally being overrun at 10.20 a.m. Their gallant commander's last act before capture was to burn his maps and code books. The devotion to duty shown by this officer delayed the enemy long enough to enable the main forces of the battalion to reorganize and consolidate a narrower bridgehead which later withstood eleven enemy counter-attacks. At all times, Major Stockdale's conduct has been in keeping with the highest tradition of the service."

STATE SOCIALISM ON THE MARCH

Advanced social ideas are blooming rapidly in conservative old England these days. In sharp contrast to the days when child labour and female workers were common in the coal mines, when textile industries and dye factories were operated along similar lines to the Nazi slave labour factories, comes the announcement that Ernest Bevin, British Labour leader, has proposed a new Industrial Charter for Britain.

Ernest Bevin, former Minister of Labour in the Churchill Government, has advocated a new industrial idea providing government pay for unemployed workers, with the same basic wage as those with jobs. Details of the plan were presented in the form of a resolution adopted at the closing session of the Transport and General Workers' Union in Blackpool, England.

The resolution contends that The State should undertake to pay a wage not less than the basic rate for the trade concerned, until such time that work could be provided at a wage commensurate with that standard.

Mr. Bevin explained that this merely meant that the union was not content with the present arrangement whereby thousands are thrown temporarily out of work, and merely receive unemployment insurance or pay. A similar view was expressed by the powerful Amalgamated Engineering Union.

Any thinking person who does not adopt the 'ostrich with his head in the sand' attitude toward social progress, must realize that every prosperous nation will inevitably provide State legislation assuring a full year of employment to every employable breadwinner. It is not good enough that a factory should offer high wages for 6 or 8 months out of a year, then a four month lay-off. Such an industry does not provide economically sound employment for the worker, nor is it outstanding as an asset to the community. Unfortunately, it is the employees of such plants who become charges of the community during their period of unemployment. In this 'tooling-up or lay-off season' the families of such workers must exist on starvation diets and litle or no new clothing.

During the slack period, the salary of foremen, key men and plant executives is continued at the full rate of pay. Quite often this preferred class find the lay-off period gives them more opportunity for summer vacations, and, as far as they are concerned, has little disadvantage. Not so the forgotten labourer. The excuse is 'they should have saved enough from their good wages to carry over the lay-off season'. It just doesn't work that way.

In this period of high-pressure advertising and salesmanship, the labourer is bombarded on every side with a thousand and one reasons why he should have a home, a car, a radio, a washing machine, a vacuum cleaner, modern ranges, and numerous other household appliances. Insofar as he is able, he provides such modern conveniences . . . almost invariably on the instalment basis. What happens to the innocent oversold householder when the lay-off period comes along? Do the ever-obliging collection agencies politely tell the unemployed man not to worry about his payments? Not so, not by a long shot! Just as soon as they hear the poor guy is out of work they pounce like a flock of vultures.

They will probably tell the guileless victim that they'll just take the article back until he can continue his payments. His car, his household appliances may all find their way back to the shop that sold them without any consideration being paid for the equity of the purchaser. During depression lay-offs in Canada real estate equities to the tune of hundreds of millions of dollars were hungrily grasped by large financial concerns who held mortgages on them. Did they offer to reimburse the owners for their equities? No, sir! Depression periods are always followed by boom years, and those properties are bringing handsome rentals and magnificent prices today. It seems very difficult to classify business transactions of this nature as other than straight legalized robbery.

No doubt it is knowledge of such diabolical practises and their probable recurrence that now inspire the British Labour movement to provide year 'round incomes for British workers. Labour methods in Canada differ somewhat from Great Britain, but many problems of the individual workers are similar. Possibly Canadian Labour groups will take the cue from their British cousins. If they do, we'll hear an unholy howl gush forth from the pens and tongues of industrial public relation representatives.

We can easily visualize the picture of hundreds of returned veterans of this war, back from years of 'protecting our democratic institutions' on land and sea, and in the air, perhaps a few years from now. By that time the savings and rehabilitation grants may have disappeared and just the same as after the last war, the collectors gather to pick the remains. We wonder, when that happens, if the vets will have reorganized a little more for economic protection and considerably less for the benefit of political jockeying and individual benefit of the few representative heads.

CLOSE WOMEN'S BEER PARLOURS

It looks very much as though public opinion is at last taking a strong enough hold to force closing of women's beverage rooms, beer parlours, or whatever grandiose title the hotels choose to describe the rooms where 'ladies' attend for the purpose of getting plastered.

Of course, we shouldn't pat ourselves too strongly on the back as to the value of public opinion. Actually, the majority of public opinion in Ontario has been against beer parlours for women ever since the first spineless body of legislators railroaded them in. Since that time, each succeeding Provincial Government has thought less and less of the demoralizing effect of the beer on women, and hungrily eyed the ever-increasing income from Government tax on beer sales.

Now, because hotels are automatically short on their beer quotas, some of them are showing a belated desire to get rid of their boozing female clientele and asking the Government to close the women's beverage rooms. An added saving would thereby accrue to the hotels through reduction of staff required, and no doubt the hotel owners would expect the public to recognize the action as a move on their part to better the morals of their thousands of female devotees.

Ontario Governments and Ontario hotels can hardly point with pride to their record on the beverage room situation since they were first introduced. Ontario politicians and hotel operators have, through the medium of women's beverage rooms, contributed to the moral breakdown of thousands of Canadian women, many of whom were little past the adolescent stage. The financial success of operation of such dives leaves the Province sadly in the red when measured with the lowered human values of those who were lured to patronize them. In brief, the record of women's beverage rooms in Ontario has left a stench and a smear that the Province will never be able to erase.

MORE ABOUT MEAT RATIONING

Peel County farmers shake their heads dubiously whenever the subject of meat rationing comes up. "Well . . . I dunno, looks kind of funny to me", states one old timer, "here we send cattle down to the market in Toronto, and what happens? Next day we see in the paper or hear over the radio that a thousand cattle were held over for lack of buyers. Then we hear that five packing houses may close down entirely because the union and the packers can't decide what to do about moving one man to another job, or leaving him where he is working now."

"I dunno," repeats our informant, "take a look around the County at the cattle situation and what do you see? Fine, solid herds. Just thousands of cattle in this County and the adjoining cattle districts to the northwest of us. Hundreds of tons of prime beef on the hoof. Send 'em to the market . . . nobody bids on 'em . . . and we pay added expense for overnight feed. It just don't seem to make sense".

"I'd like to know," he went on to say, "whether the packing houses have induced the government to impose this meat rationing merely to increase Canada's economic power through more foreign exchange, and whether it pays the slaughter houses to ship more meat through export channels where the demand is heavy and prices high, rather than to the domestic consumer market in Canada where the demand is also great, but the price is controlled through the ceiling regulations."

Well, there's a problem. Maybe that farmer is thinking along the right lines. However, with the limited knowledge at our disposal we would hesitate to render an opinion. The Conservator would like to hear from our country subscribers, just what they think of the present cattle supply, and the relation of meat rationing thereto. If you have any suggestions we'd very much like to hear them. Address your letters to the editor, and state whether or not you wish your name to be published.

FIRE MENACE

Ontario sems to have gone "fire bugs" this month. During the past week, we have seen hundreds of thousands of dollars go up in smoke. Summer hotel in Muskoka . . . sash company in Alton . . . huge truck warehouse in Toronto . . . and yesterday the general store in Norval. Will Brampton be next?

The Fire Marshall's office tells us that more than eighty per cent of all fires could easily be prevented with reasonable care. Faulty wiring, rubbish littered about in the basement or rear of shops and homes, dirty and overheated chimneys, careless stowage and use of inflammable liquids and paints are but a few of the commoner causes of fire.

It would appear that the most economical form of town fire insurance would be the appointment of an official to act in conjunction with the Town Fire Department, whose duties would consist chiefly of constant inspection of all properties in Brampton, industrial, commercial and residential.

A town by-law with teeth in it, would be the enforcement weapon of this official. Any person or business failing to co-operate could quite easily be brought into line with a summons from the police department.

We feel that such an appointment, methodically carried out, would be a boon to the town of Brampton. Used for a double-barrelled purpose, such an inspector could be instrumental in doing away with the uncovered garbage and refuse heaps about town that help to breed Brampton's annual billions of flies. As a full time job, it is unlikely that such a thorough survey or inspection as suggested could cover the entire town of Brampton each year. However, in all probability, the wages of such an official would be saved many times over in fire prevention and the increased observance of community health standards.

Communications received at the regular meeting of the Brampton High School Board, included one from Mr. E. E. Ball tendering his resignation as teacher of moderns; also one from the Deputy Minister of Education, stating that the grant for 1915 will be $893.07. It was moved by Dr. Heggie and Mr. Robinson, that Miss Margaret Hamilton, late of Niagara Falls High School, be appointed teacher of moderns for the ensuing year at the initial salary of $1,300. Eighty-four applications were received for this position, Miss Hamilton being the choice of the members of the board . . . The response to the appeal made by Mr. W. M. Johnston for razors for men at the front has been a generous one and gratifying to Mr. Johnston who is anxious that as many as possible be sent in from Brampton and Peel County . . . Sir J. A. M. Aikins, K.C., was unanimously elected leader of the new Conservative party in Manitoba this afternoon. He framed the McDonald Liquor Act 15 years ago. James Aikins is a native of Peel County. He was born in Toronto Township in 1851, and is a son of Hon. J. C. Aikins, who was Secretary of State in 1869 in the administration of Sir John A. Macdonald. The present leader of the Manitoba Conservatives attended the old Grammar School at Brampton, and afterwards Upper Canada College and Toronto University . . . The citizens of Norval and surrounding district are preparing to give their soldier hero, Capt. Gordon Brown, who has been invalided home on account of numerous wounds received in battle, a right royal reception on his return. Captain Brown sailed on Friday for Canada . . . The women and girls of Brampton and Peel County are working energetically to raise the required sum for the motor ambulance by August 1. All societies who are co-operating in this work and all individual subscribers are asked to send their donations direct to Mrs. Denison, Brampton, and receive prompt acknowledgment.

On Monday last, before His Honor, Judge McGibbon, the assessment appeal of the Grand Trunk Railway Company against the Town of Brampton was heard. Judge McCarthy, of Dufferin, and Judge Gorham, of Halton, were also present. Mr. Cowan, of Toronto, appeared for the G.T.R., and Mr. McMurchy, of Toronto, in the interests of the C.P.R. Mr. T. J. Blain appeared for the Town of Brampton . . . Mr. Michael Murphy, of Caldwell, who taught the public school at Caldwell for seventeen years, has given up the school, and was presented with a well filled purse and an address, also a grand social party at the home of Mr. McDevitt, where he has boarded all these years. He leaves for the west with the best wishes of a host of friends and with no enemies behind him . . . A large crowd attended the band concert last night, and enjoyed a splendid program rendered by the band, but the competition for the Morris chair was the attraction of the evening. Little Marian Switzer drew the winning ticket which was held by Mr. Henry Hill. This was the first prize band concert this year and a large number of tickets were sold . . . A second petition in favor of the licensing of the Junction House, Caledon Township, was forwarded to the commissioners this week. It contains the names of travellers and others passing that station from time to time . . . Mr. Choate, the new proprietor of the Graham House, Brampton, is now in possession. The Graham House is one of the best paying houses in Brampton and Peel County . . . Blair-Hodgins—in Brampton, July 19th, 1905, by Rev. C. A. Simpson, Donald Alfred Blair to Caroline Hodgins, both of Georgetown . . . Mr. T. E. Parsons and family left this morning for Owen Sound where he will engage in the livestock business . . . Town Clerk Johnston, of Goderich, is in Brampton at the present time making enquiries regarding the operations at the Brampton Gas Plant . . . Mr. Fred Burrows, many years ago a resident of Brampton, is in town visiting his brother, Mr. A. Burrows. He is interested in a number of theatres in the west and bears every sign of prosperity . . . At a meeting of the High School Board Monday night, Mr. L. R. Halnan, formerly of Georgetown, was engaged as Mathematical Master, at a salary of $900, and Mr. W. H. Fletcher, late of Toronto Junction, as Science Master, at a salary of $1,000.

Coupon Plan

the coupon values of different cuts.

Two Pounds Gross

"When consumer rationing is introduced the ration will be roughly two pounds a person, carcass weight," the Board said.

"Two pounds carcass weight approximates 1 1-3 pounds clear meat."

Under the previous rationing plan each consumer could use two coupons a week; these having various values depending on the type of meat purchased. The values ranged from one-half pound a coupon for smoked and cooked meats to 1¼ pounds for such cuts as blade roasts of beef and a number of lamb and veal cuts with the bone left in.

The meats remaining unrationed are beef-calf-pork-and-lamb brains and heads and beef-pork-and-lamb tails. Poultry, game and fish, canned or fresh, will not be rationed.

Meat coupons will be valid until declared invalid and will not expire as under previous rationing.

The Board statement reviewed the world food situation and said that "meat shortages throughout the western world have developed into major crises."

The Future of Censorship

By NORMAN MARSHALL

Ottawa.—Among those government offices which are being greatly reduced in size with the end of the war in Europe are those of Press and Postal censorship. Postal censorship is now confined largely to the mail of the 35,000 prisoners of war in Canada and changes in the set-up of Press censorship are expected shortly.

Outside of Ottawa, however, censorship has not ceased with the close of the European struggle. No official statement has yet been made here on the government's view of the tight censorship which surrounds the Big Three conference at Potadam. While Canadian leaders are not actually taking part there, Canada, as a member of the United Nations, with both financial and political committments to that body has a very real concern with the decisions made there. Criticism of the censorship blackout has come from the British and American press and from the Senate in Washington. While admitting that much of the discussion at Potadam centers on the war in the Pacific, and can therefore be justly kept secret for military reasons, these critics maintain that the plans of the Big Three for economic and political supervision of Europe should be made openly.

Official sources here are also silent over the attacks, launched particularly from the United States, against Allied policy in the Balkans and especially against the operations of UNRRA. Not only has a political crisis developed within the past two weeks between Greece and Yugo-Slavia, but political censorship has survived in Greece months after all military need had disappeared. The cloud of political censorship has permitted suspicion to appear in isolationist circles concerning the workings of UNRRA in Greece.

And yet political censorship may not have ceased altogether in Ottawa itself. There is the story of Major Robin Fraser, D.S.O., of Toronto, that, following the charges made last Fall by Major Conny Smythe about overseas reinforcements, an order had been issued by the army overseas that copies of all statements made to the press by returning veterans were to be sent to district headquarters and then to Ottawa. While there are reasonable grounds for this regulation, Major Fraser stated that it led to fear on the part of returning veterans that they could not speak their minds about possible grievances without losing their gratuities. This order comes perilously near to outright censorship though not actually bearing that name.

OBITUARY

Mrs. S. B. Fleming

Keen regret was felt in Brampton Sunday when it was intimated that Mrs. Vina Sanderson Fleming, wife of Mr. S. B. Fleming, had died at her home, 33 Elliott Street, following a lengthy illness. Born in Cheltenham, she was a daughter of the late Matthew Sanderson and Martha Carr Patterson Sanderson, and for the past forty years resided in Brampton. The late Mrs. Fleming was a member of the Brampton Baptist Church, and until compelled to retire owing to ill-health, was an untiring worker in the different church organizations.

The late Mrs. Fleming is survived by her husband, three sisters and one brother: Mrs. Martha Watts, Mrs. Len Sanderson, both of Shelburne; Mrs. Harry Chipchase, of Toronto, and Rev. N. H. Sanderson, of Ayerscliff, Quebec.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from T. H. McKillop's Funeral Parlors, where an impressive service was conducted by Rev. Archie Ward, of Toronto, and Rev. Norman McLeod, a former pastor of Brampton Baptist Church. Interment took place at Brampton Cemetery.

Mrs. C. T. Terry

Mrs. Mary Ann Terry, beloved wife of Mr. Charles T. Terry, R.R. 1, Brampton, died at Peel Memorial Hospital Friday night last, where she had been a patient for the past three weeks. She was born at Cumberland, England, 78 years ago and for the past forty years resided in Peel County, where she won the respect of all those who made her acquaintance. In religion the late Mrs. Terry was of the Presbyterian Faith, and until she was attacked by illness was a regular attendant of Brampton Presbyterian Church.

She is survived by her husband, one daughter and three sons: Mrs. George Julian, of Woodhill; Bert Murray, of Chicago, Ill.; Harold Murray, of Toronto; Edward Earl Terry, of Toronto Gore, and Jack Terry at home. One sister, Mrs. Kate Carlyle, of Devonshire, England, also survives.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon from the family residence, where the service was conducted by Rev. A. Neil Miller, who also officiated at the graveside in Brampton Cemetery. The bearers were: Maxwell Monkman, Thomas Ingoldsby, George Moffatt, Henry Donnelly, Wellington Fenwick and Forbes Snider.

Seeing-Eye Dogs Get Meat Ration

Ottawa, July 24—Under Canada's new meat rationing system to be instituted shortly no rationed meats will be allotted for the feeding of animals, with seeing-eye dogs perhaps the lone exception, the Prices Board revealed to-day.

"These dogs are very few in number and consideration is being given to providing a meat ration for them similar to that under the previous meat rationing period," the board said.

MEN FOR HOME BUILDING MUST BE SECURED

Home building is highly essential to overcome pressing housing shortages, and to provide dwellings for the Forces as discharged.

Shortages of workers for building homes and for producing the building materials are threatening to impede Canada's program for the construction of 50,000 homes as soon as possible.

All men experienced in home building or in producing building materials, who are not now working in either of these industries, are urged to apply to the nearest office of the National Employment Service immediately.

Men experienced at home building or producing supplies, if now in other essential work, will be given permits to work at jobs which will assist the house building program.

All men, not now at house building nor producing supplies, who can fill a job in this program, are urged to answer this call.

Apply at once at the nearest office of the National Employment Service.

Brampton Friends See Reunion Of Bomber Crew Here On Sunday

Nazi Prisoners Released Some Day From Nazi Prison Camps—Met In England—Held Reunion At McCulloch Home Here Recently

It was indeed a happy re-union at the heme of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McCulloch, West Street, Sunday last, when they entertained three repatriated prisoners of war in Germany, who were liberated on the same day. They were Flt./Lieut. E. Milton, of Toronto; F/O John Newman, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Flt./Lieut. Bob Lagerquist, of Brampton. Flt./Lieut. Milton and Flt./Lieut. Lagerquist were together at Stalag No. 3 prison camp, while F/O John Newman was at Stalag No. 1 prison camp.

After the trio was liberated they returned to England together when a separation took place. Newman and Lagerquist returned to Canada on the same trip, while Milton only returned last week. Many happenings were recalled when the three men were joined together at the McCulloch home for the first time since they were together overseas.

I Went Shopping

By R. J. DEACHMAN

Recall the story of my roof garden, made out of half a barrel, a bit of soil brought in from the country, some flowers from the market and a little flat pan from which sparrows, and more lately the robins, God bless them, come to drink.

Buying the pan started an amusing experience. I asked a clerk if he had one to sell, he pointed at a pan and said: "There!" "Will it hold water?" I asked. "I wouldn't know," was the reply. "Have you any other?" "No, take it or leave it."

I looked at a well-dressed business man who stood beside me, raised my eyebrows, looked back at the so-called clerk and shrugged my shoulders. Then I turned to the man and said: "How much is that chap worth a month?" He bit the end off a fresh cigar and said, "$13 in a competitive economy. In fact you wouldn't give him that if people were buying instead of grabbing stuff off a table." He touched a light to his cigar. We walked up the stairs—it was a basement store. "The state," he said, will build a house for that chap. He will spend the baby bonuses his wife receives. Peace has its casualties, he's one of them!"

I called a taxi service which I sometimes patronize and asked them if they could send me a truck to take a barrel out in the country and get it filled with earth. "Yes, in ten minutes." They arrived in ten minutes. The man who drove that truck knew his business, he made time but he took no chances. He was the type of man who would pick the fragments of a car out of a junk heap, make a jeep out of them, attach a mower to it, keep the grass on the sides of the road mowed, while others were watching the thistles grow.

I asked the man at the greenhouse if he had retired—I knew that he had been in business for many years. "Oh, no," he said, "I just laid aside some of the burden, let the boys carry it, but I work a full day. I'm as fit as a fiddle and never seem tired. Drop in sometime next February, I will be right in that greenhouse. I wear the same straw hat all the year round. Stop work! Once I looked forward to the seventies, now I look forward to the eighties, I'll tackle the next job after that." He waved me good-bye as we drove through the gate.

Why is it that we usually get good service, in an off-hand pleasant type of way, out of a hardware store. The men in the hardware stores are generally more grouseless than the average. It may be a grocer has a more grouseful job! I called a hardware store to ask if they had a lawn edger. "Sorry, but I haven't got a thing in that line. We are not making them in Canada any more." Then as an after thought, "you might try Rankins." "I did," said I, they told me to call you." "We had one," he added, "that came from Japan some years ago, but Hirohito isn't making them either." When these boys had nothing they sold it to you happily and made you feel good about it. There is real triumph in salesmanship.

"Honey dew melons are very nice," I said to the girl in the store, "but it is like buying a "pig in a poke" and I don't even know why a pig should be in a poke, or that one ever was, but chances are that the melon is not ready to eat." I will tell you a secret," she said, "one that I tell everybody. Pick the melon up and shake it. If the seeds rattle, eat it tomorrow morning for breakfast, it's ripe. This one doesn't rattle, come back tomorrow or the day after." I came back, the seeds rattled. The melon was ripe.

The world has taken a terrible beating. Under such circumstances some of the good comes to the top and some of the bad. Whatever comes out of this world to which we look forward, the reward will go to the people who render service, who do it quickly and efficiently, and leave you with the happy idea that life, to them, was a pleasure, that they were trying to do a job and do it well. There will be no place, at least not one of safety and success, for people who in times like these have nothing to give you, and leave you under the impression that they are glad of it.

Raise $40 For Hospital Fund At Huttonville

Over 700 Attend Sunday Night Sing Song To See Amateur Artists

Over 700 persons packed the park at Huttonville last Sunday night to attend the weekly Community Sing-Song. In a program replete with talkies, featuring a travelogue of the Canadian Rockies and a sports feature from neighbouring Quebec, those who attended were well rewarded for their Huttonville outing. Gordon Vivian lead the community singing, and conducted a general Quiz contest which was won by Miss M. Clark, of Huttonville.

Among new features that have been added this year to make the Sunday evening sing-songs more attractive, are the talking pictures offered by C. A. Chinn, and this week the crowd was delighted to see the new lighting effects which Mr. Chinn has arranged with coloured lights.

In the amateur programme Sunday a great array of new talent was displayed. Winner of this feature was Geraldine Kendall, Brampton, who charmed her audience with selections of several popular songs. Other artists who showed excellent talent were Hazel Reid, of Brampton, in a display of tap dancing, and Doreen Hayes, of Toronto, tap dancing and singing. Accompanist was Alf. Sutton, recently returned from overseas, well known to Brampton audiences. Mr. Sutton was the composer of a song officially adopted by the 1st Corps Canadian Signals.

At the end of the program, Jim McCracken announced that forty dollars had been taken in the silver collection, and would be forwarded to the Hospital for Sick Children Building Fund. It is further announced the proceeds from the Community Sing-Song next Sunday evening will be donated to the Salvation Army.

Green—Hore

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Paul's Church parsonage Saturday July 14 when Doris Isabelle Hore daughter of Mrs. Hore and the late Mr. Harry Hore was married to Kenneth Charles Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Green. Rev. John A. McDermid performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, attired in a white satin and lace gown, and wearing a half length net veil, carried a shower bouquet of red and white roses. The bride was attended by Miss Dorothy Smith as bridesmaid who wore a gown of ice blue crepe and carrying pink roses with wreath of rose buds in her hair. Thomas Hore cousin of the bride attended the groom.

A reception was held at the Old Countryman's Club rooms. To receive the bride's mother wore navy sheer with corsage of red roses. The groom's mother wore a gown of orchid with corsage of yellow roses. For travelling the bride wore a lime green dress with orchid coat and hat.. After the honeymoon to Wasaga Beach the bride and groom will make their home in Brampton.

Newton—Raine

Decorated with pink roses by Rowancroft Gardens, Meadowvale, the United Church, Streetsville, on July 23, was the setting of a pretty wedding, when Jean Mary Raine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Raine, Streetsville, and Cpl. Albert Henry Newton, RCAF, Newfoundland, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Newton, Willowdale, were united in marriage by Rev. T. D. Jones. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of mouseline de soie. Her finger tip veil was caught in a halo of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of red roses and baby's breath. Her sister, Mrs. Earl Lolyd, Cooksville, was matron of honor, wearing a street length dress of pink sheer and carrying a bouquet of pink roses. The groomsman was Bert Dixon, Toronto. At the home of the bride's parents, her mother received in grey crepe with a corsage of pink roses, assisted by the groom's mother in powder blue crepe and corsage of pink roses. Donning a dress of blue silk jersey and matching hat of velvet petals and corsage of pink roses, the bride and groom left for Montreal.

"THE KEYS OF THE KINGDOM" AMONG TRULY GREAT FILMS

The regular meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of Cheltenham United Church was held Thursday afternoon, July 19, at the home of the secretary, Mrs. Wilbert Wilkinson, and took the form of the annual picnic of the Cradle Roll, when several of the Sunday School pupils were invited. Before the picnic started the ladies held their meeting indoors with the president, Mrs. Herbert Taylor, presiding. The secretary, Mrs. Wilkinson, read the minutes and when she called the roll each member recited a verse of Scripture containing the word "Babe." The devotional period was in charge of Miss Audrey Wilkinson and Miss Isobel Fraser. Mrs. John Moddison gave the report of the Cradle Roll for the past year; Mrs. Victor Frazer presented an interesting paper, and Miss Frances Frazer gave the children's story. 1. "The run to the village was a nice change of scenery and I like to get away from the rest of the farm-yard for awhile" said Polly. "But it was that blamed dust that always used to get me. I always say it's a nuisance to both man and beast! In fact it used to take the joy out of every trip to the village.

2. "And what the boss used to say about it isn't fit to print. "It's a menace" he used to say "and always will be 'till something's done about it. And what it does to farm property is nobody's business!"

3. "And the Missus had a name for it too! She said she couldn't keep the verandah clean for five minutes at a time, and as for sitting out of an evening, she claimed it was just as bad as a trip to the village.

4. "But now they've fixed the road, the boss purrs like a kitten. "It's wonderful what Calcium Chloride does" he says. It's not only a heap more pleasant, but it's a whole lot safer and the road's smooth and easier on us." No bumps, no ruts, no dust!

5. "And the Missus not only has more time for knitting but she has a pleasant place to knit the sweaters she sends to Johnny. She says her housework's cut in half. She may be exaggerating just a little bit, but you can bet she makes her point."

6. "And Bill Baxter, the county engineer, who's pretty friendly with the boss, says he's able to keep more gravel road mileage in good shape, with less labour, less wear on equipment and at no more cost, than before he started using Calcium Chloride."

"It costs no more to have a dust-free consolidated surface than a bumpy, dusty one" said Bill, one day! He says the Calcium Chloride saves its cost in his men's time and in gravel replacements. And he's got everybody in the county a whole lot happier about it too. "It pays to use Brunner Mond Calcium Chloride," he says!"

Too Strong For Daggers

Brampton Excelsior Juveniles edged New Toronto Daggers 13 to 12 for their straight win at the Rose Bowl Tuesday night. The see-saw battle saw Brampton's vaunted passing attack, fail to click until the second half of the game. Hero of the overtime battle was Gord Steele, who scored the goal that tied the score at 10 all and forced the game into overtime. M. Steele also scored the winning goal in the overtime session.

The first quarter saw "88" Evans from Firman give Brampton a 1 to nil lead, with "Red" Howell meditating on his sins in the penalty box. Berneski scored twice the first on a pass from Shkordoff, and the second on a breakaway. Berneski added a third for good measure to give the Daggers a 3 to 1 first quarter lead.

The second stanza saw "Red" Howell notch one for Brampton. Campbell and Beatty made the score 5 to 2 for Toronto, only to have Wilson from Teasdale, and Firman from Steele, nullify their goals and make the half time count 5 to 4 for Daggers.

Penalties, Sutherland, Downer, Robinson and Caruso.

The third quarter saw Brampton's classy passing click, as Evans from Howell and Steele from Hennesy, make the score 6 to 5. Evans from Firman, and Hollwell from Watkins match counters as did Shkordoff from Beatty and Gord Steel, to make the three-quarter 8 to 9 for Brampton. Penalties, Robinson and Caruso. Gwilymn Evans opened the fourth quarter as he took the pass from Bignell and tore into score. Allwell came right back with a perfect corner shot on a breakaway. Watkins and Venner notch a pair of low shots to give New Toronto a 10 to 9 lead. "Hero" Steele wound up and fired a long shot that the goalie never saw, to tie the score to 10 all.

In the first 5 minutes of overtime, Allwell gave the visitors a lead when he picked the top corner on a breakaway. Bob Sutherland took a perfect pass in front of the net to tie the score at 11 all. Penalty Downer. The second overtime session again saw Daggers in the lead, as Beatty bounced a shot past Bignell.

With team mate Hennessy, in the sin bin, Glen Wiggins smashed home a rebound after a beautiful, by Knatchbell to again knot the count. That set the stage for Gord Steele to score the Clintcher and please the 200 odd fans who turned out to witness this exhibition of Canada's National game.

The sequence of crops in this rotation is—summer fallow, grain, grain, hay pasture, sod fallow, grain, grain. Vitamin C Now Held Useless For Hay Fever

Vitamin C, an anti-scorbutic which prevents scurvy, is no longer considered useful in the treatment of hay fever, it is revealed in a recent issue of The Journal of the American Medical Association.

This vitamin, another function of which is to maintain in good condition the walls of blood vessels, also prevents occurrence of subclinical conditions such as bleeding gums and the tendency to bruise easily. It also promotes growth.

"About three years ago, the administration of Vitamin C was suggested for the treatment of hay fever and other allergic conditions," the Journal said. "Generally this theapy has been viewed with scepticism, but nevertheless some have given it fair trail. Most recent of the reports is that of Sidney Friedlaender and S. M. Feinberg, who found that hay fever patients have a normal level of Vitamin C.

"Although large doses of this vitamin produce saturation blood levels, they do not change the course of hay fever or asthma. In view of this and previously published evidence, Vitamin C therapy for hay fever and other allergic conditions may be considered useless and wasteful."

Pte John Gwilt Arrives Home On Fogged Hospital Ship "Letitia"

Delayed Landing For Several Days—Seriously Wounded In Action On Western Front—Praises Dutch People For Hospitality and Religion

COOKSVILLE—Pte. John Thom- Gwilt, 20, Argyle and Sutherland Highlanders, a victim of serious wounds while serving on the western front last April, arrived home last week-end on the hospital ship "Letitia."

Due to heavy fog near the harbor, the ship was delayed in landing for several days, and Jack's friend, Jack Braithwaite, made several trips in to Toronto before the hospital train finally arrived. Also present at the station to meet him were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gwilt, a younger brother, Billy, also a sister, Mrs. E. Davis, and other friends.

Seriously wounded in the lower raw from shell fragments, Jack was in hospital in England since April, undergoing five operations whereby bone was grafted from his leg to jaw bones. After a brief rest at his home in Cooksville, he is reporting to Chorley Park Military Hospital in Toronto, where he is to undergo additional plastic surgery operations.

Native of Cooksville, Jack trained at Brantford, Woodstock, London and Camp Borden, going overseas last December, and into action shortly after. His father is a veteran of the last war.

Although he accumulated several souvenirs, during his travels, including a pair of German riding boots for his friend, Jack Braithwaite, Jack lost them all when he was wounded and taken to hospital. He has nothing but praise for the Dutch people whom he says are deeply religious, extremely clean and very hospitable.

Softball Game Adds $25 To Hospital Fund

Credit Valley Men's League Beats Toronto Township Council

PORT CREDIT. — Over $25.00 was realized on Tuesday night for the building fund of The Sick Children's Hospital at a benefit softball game played at St. Lawrence Park, between the Toronto Township Council and a team selected from the Credit Valley Men's League, the game ending with a score of 17 to 10 in favour of Credit Valley.

A large crowd was on hand to cheer their favourites on, and were entertained with some very good baseball. Han. Watson was, as usual, in good form, making the spectators laugh with his antics. John Katan, the wrestler, was unavoidably absent, being called out of town at the last minute.

A goodly number of old-time ball players took part in the game, and showed all their former cleverness.

Some of the players taking part were:

Credit Valley: Bullen, G. Hendry, Golding, White, Milne, Shelley, Oughtred, C. Hendry, Reid, Munro, Burns, Roberts, Cauthers, McDonald.

Toronto Township: T. Courtney, W. Courtney, W. Davis, Waller, Hank Nairn, Hap. Watson, McGill, Cantelon, Bradley.

Firemen's Annual St. Dance Draws Record Crowd

PORT CREDIT—When the fire siren sounded in Port Credit last Saturday night, it was not to give warning of a fire and call the brigade to duty, but to remind local residents of the annual street dance held at the foot of Mississauga Road.

In spite of the rainy weather, which held off proceedings for a little while, there was a record crowd on hand, with an estimated 2,000 people participating in the dancing and many enjoyable games of chance.

Two war savings certificates, given as lucky draw prizes, were won by Harry Law and Miss May Drummond, both of Port Credit. Anson Forster's recording system provided a program of dance music to suit all tastes and a dear little pony, to be given as first prize at Cooksville Fall Fair, was a special feature, especially pleasing to the children, who took turns in riding him. Merry-go-round rides were also a special highlight of the evening.

Valuable prizes such as pottery, chocolates and housewares were given as prizes at the many games of chance, which featured bingo, wheels of fortune and shooting galleries. Refreshment booths, selling hot dogs, soft drinks and ice cream, did a rushing business and were sold out in record time.

Proceeds are for the firemen's fund of the Port Credit volunteer brigade.

Four Cartons of Clothing Shipped From Port Credit

PORT CREDIT.—Four large cartons of good used clothing were sent overseas recently to Dover, from Port Credit by Port Credit and Toronto Township National Salvage Committee, who packed the shipment at the home of Mrs. B. Deacon, Lakeshore highway, under convenership of Mrs. J. Coates.

The bales, which weighed 500 lbs., were sent to the Mayor of Dover, from the people of Port Credit because they were anxious to establish more firmly the bond they established several months ago when a van was presented to the City of Dover through donations made by the Salvage Committee through the Evening Telegram War Victims' Fund.

Pt. Credit Airman Praises Meals And Shipboard Treatment of Vets

Returned To Canada On Ile de France Last Week —Was Attacked By Sub On Overseas Voyage and Heard Lord Haw Haw Broadcast the Attack

COOKSVILLE—After three-and-a-half-years overseas, LAC Austin Hepton, 25, RCAF, arrived home from overseas last week on the Ile de France, and received a warm welcome from his mother, Mrs. Victor Hepton, his sisters, brothers and many other friends and relatives.

Austin, who says it is too wonderful for words to be back home in Canada again, looks very healthy and fit and says he had some very exciting experiences during the past three years when he was stationed in England, Belgium, Holland, Denmark and Germany. As mechanic, following the bombing planes, he got as far as Berlin, but says that the thrill of getting there was nothing compared to coming home again. On his way overseas, the ship on which he was a passenger was attacked by a sub, and to the amazement of the passengers, this fact was broadcast by Lord Haw-Haw, as soon as they arrived in England. "He did not say that the sub was sunk, though," Austin said.

Stationed in Belgium for some time, he and a friend were billeted with a Belgium family who treated them like sons and put the best of everything they had left at the Airmen's disposal. Among the souvenirs Austin brought home are wooden shoes, a German belt, and several different types of foreign money.

Austin had nothing but praise for the way in which all arrangements for the homecoming were handled. "There were over 9,000 men aboard, the meals were wonderful and everything was well arranged," he reports.

Besides his mother at Cooksville, he has three sisters, Olive, Shirley and Enid, at home, also two brothers, Clarence and Everett, both of whom have seen service with the RCAF, Everett having completed a tour of 33 operations overseas before receiving his discharge recently.

"...There She Goes!"

YES, there goes the whistle that means jobs! But remember! Factory whistles will keep blowing ... smoke will keep pouring from factory chimneys, only if you and all of us do our part to keep Canada's dollar sound. And unless we keep the Canadian dollar worth a dollar, we're headed for inflation, and its inevitable result—depression!

Canada's active fight against inflation is a vital part of all our post-war planning. We Canadians must now—more than ever now—fight to keep Canada's dollar worth a full dollar!

Why now especially? Because now civilian goods are scarce, and yet money is plentiful. This is a dangerous condition.

It means we must maintain controls and price ceilings; support rationing and urge the support of rationing. We must buy wisely and with the greatest care: be on guard at all times, checking, working, fighting to keep Canada's dollar sound. If we do this, we can keep prices from rising. If we don't, some day we'll be paying a dollar for 30c worth of goods, which means our dollar is only worth 30c.

We know what happened after the last war! We must fight against it happening again. For our own sakes —for the sake of the men who fought overseas and to whom we owe a future with a job, we must keep Canada's dollar worth a full dollar. We must keep up an active fight against inflation!

Make this Pledge Today!

I pledge myself to do my part in fighting inflation:

By observing rationing and avoiding black markets in any shape or form.

By respecting price controls and other anti-inflation measures, and refraining from careless and unnecessary buying. I will not buy two where one will do, nor will I buy a "new" where an "old" will do.

By buying Victory Bonds, supporting taxation and abiding by all such measures which will lower the cost of living and help keep prices at a normal level.

Poet's Corner

Through Storm and Calm

March of the 48th Highlanders,
Toronto, in Surrey, England, by night.
We muster in the evening on the square,
Bugles disturb the stillness everywhere,
And, like the gathering clans, as falls the night,
We march away, rejoicing in our might.

The swing of tartan kilt, the pibroach's wail,
The rustling leaves, the fast approaching gale,
The coming storm we welcome with a song,
As loud, the rumbling thunder rolls along.

The rearguard ill becomes a Highland-man,
And Highlanders are ever in the van,
So onward still, and forward by the right,
For we perchance must march the livelong night.

While twilight slowly deepens in our path,
The night is calm, the storm has spent its wrath,
And twinkling in the sky, the stars appear,
The lessening breeze makes cool the atmosphere.

And as we slowly wend our homeward way,
by Towering castle's turrets, old and gray,
Abandoned to the night hawk and the bat,
Perchance the eerie owl or scuttling rat.
These crumbling walls, a mystic scene presents,
Against the skyline some huge battlements,
The eglantine with wild rose clinging fast,
Like tapestries o'er niches as we passed.

Beneath the time worn arches, great and tall,
Of ruined temples and of lordly hall,
We caught a glimpse of moonbeam, struggling through,
Where gallant knight once came, fair maid to woo.

And onward yet we go, and by the lakes,
Whose rippling surface bears fantastic shapes,
And where the moon shines clear behind the trees,
Whose waving branches tremble in the breeze.

The moon now full appeared and, like a balm,
It seemed to bathe our spirits in its calm,
We revelled in our idylls of the night,
Where every scene was beautiful and bright.

The lowly cot appeared below the hill,
The children were asleep, and all was still,
But dimly burned the lantern in the hall,
Be beacon light when evening shadows fall.

A beacon light to guide the shepherd home,
From hills afar where all his flecklings roam,
And as he neared the friendly cottage door,
He smiled to know his nightly task was o'er.

We reached the camp at last with weary feet,
Relieved of heavy kit in haversack,
For tramping, thirty miles in circle route,
Each Highlander rejoiced that he was back.

JAMES MacGREGOR,
The Glen Warbler.

The Gift of Love

There is no fear in love, for "God is Love"
And, if your love be true, it comes from Him;
And you will find this priceless gift of love
Devoid of sordid passion's futile whim.

So grasp the gift of love, and you will find
The more you love, the more love comes your way,
And, as its wondrous sweetness fills your soul,
Fear is cast out, for love drives fear away.

Love is the greatest gift in all the world,
Transcending every virtue from above,
For true love makes us each a part of God—
For love is life and life is truly love.

Woodbridge Tot Drowns In River

Ronald Arthur Hannem, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Hannem, of Woodbridge, was drowned in the Humber River on Saturday afternoon.

Pte. J. McKay, recently returned from overseas, had taken the little toddler for a walk and left him to play in the yard of the house. His mother, seeking the child a few moments later, was unable to find him. A search, delayed by the muddiness of the river at that point, disclosed his body in the river about fifty yards away.

Dr. William Berry, of Woodbridge, applied artificial respiration to the body for two hours before hope was abandoned.

The Hannem family moved to Woodbridge from Mt. Dennis. They have two other children, Nelson, five and Dellas, three.

D.D.T. Released For Farm Use

D.D.T. is the sensational insecticide, that almost overnight, has become a household word to many Canadians who had never before used it or even seen it. Recently a great deal has been written of this chemical compound that since 1870, when it was discovered, has remained in obscurity. Not until 1939, when the war with Japan cut off sources of supply of our chief insecticides were the possibilites of D.D.T. investgated. Results of test and practical experience gained in Naples and the South Pacific proved beyond a doubt that in D.D.T. the world had found an insecticide that would surpass anything yet known in that field. It remained for the end of the War in Germany to make this beneficial discovery available to the civilian user.

D.D.T. is a chemical compound that in more learned circles would be respectfully referred to as dichlor-diphenyl-trichloroethene. It is effective either in solutions or when used as a dusting powder. It is not, however, soluble in water. Tests so far would indicate it to be relatively harmless to humans and animals, but as its toxic properties are not yet completely understood this quality must be assumed with reservation. It is however, a tested killer of the winged and other types of insects that damage crops or spread disease in animals and man.

Many are the uses to which D.D.T. can be put, and production of this chemical compound has been commenced by the Naugatuch Chemicals Division of the Dominion Rubber Company at Elmira, Ontario. However, for the immediate present, its use is restricted by the Director of Pesticides for Canada to stable spraying, food packaging establishments, hospitals, etc. The International Varnish Company, Limited, through its coast to coast dealer organization, now makes this product available to Canadian farmers. Known as International D.D.T. Barn Spray it provides probably for the first time, complete freedom from the plague of crawling and winged insects experienced in all farm buildings.

D.D.T. Barn Spray uses a kerosene solvent and when sprayed on walls of barns, stables, dairy houses and other farm buildings will destroy all of the above insects. Because of its nature it remains active for two or three months and therefore only two or three sprayings are necessary during a season. Caution, however, must be exercised not to allow it to come in contact with the animals. Every farmer knows, only too well, how advantageous it is to have freedom from flies, lice, mosquitoes, etc. Now, with D.D.T. Barn Spray available, no longer need there be fear of such insects, and its value will be measured in a greater farm profit by better developed cattle and higher diary production.
